
THE BIG SPIN

Resist the Revolution
The Globe Hoax Exposed

Biblical Cosmology 101

General Contents

	Introduction	3
Chapter 1	The Bondage of the Mind	13
Chapter 2	The Firmament Disclosure	23
Chapter 3	What is the Missing Connection?	31
Chapter 4	Is the Globe in the Bible?	47
Chapter 5	The Ball in the Bible	53
Chapter 6	The Circle of the Earth	63
Chapter 7	The Earth is at Rest	69
Chapter 8	Christian Heliocentricity?	77
Chapter 9	The Earth and the World	91
Chapter 10	The Sun	105

Chapter 11	The Face of the Earth	113
<hr/>
Chapter 12	The Earth and the Sun	117
<hr/>
Chapter 13	Living in the Program	131
<hr/>
Chapter 14	Two Paths — Two Realities	141
<hr/>
Chapter 15	The Historical Stepping-Stones That Lead Us to the Modern View of the Universe	149
<hr/>
Chapter 16	Two Cosmologies Repeated	157
<hr/>
Chapter 17	Perspective and Common Sense	165
<hr/>
Chapter 18	Welcome to Barrow, Alaska	179
<hr/>
Chapter 19	Indisputable Obviousness	189
<hr/>
Chapter 20	Liberated from the Program	195

INTRODUCTION

“THE ONE WHO LIED IN THE BEGINNING IS LYING ABOUT THE BEGINNING!” C.J. LOVIK

ARE YOU SURPRISED?

1 TIMOTHY 4:1

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits,
and doctrines of devils;

This book was sparked by a comment made by a well known Christian apologist who has spent his entire career teaching other Christians that the creation account revealed in Genesis 1:1 can be trusted.

When this Christian apologist, for the creation narrative, publicly proclaimed that he believed in the heliocentric spinning Earth cosmology, I was surprised.

When this Christian apologist went on to warn his questioners, viewers and supporters that any investigation into the geocentric, non-spinning Earth cosmology was a distraction from the Gospel of Jesus Christ, I realized how ensnared we had become in the sticky web of “scientific” disinformation and deception.

When this same apologist went on to paraphrase 2 Timothy 2:23 “But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.”—implying that any such investigation was a silly waste of time, I decided to write this book.

When it comes to cosmology there are at least four basic groups of people.

The first group are those that have fully embraced modern astronomy. This group believes that the theory of the solar system is settled science. They believe that any debate regarding the origin or the architecture of the universe that questions the basic premise that Earth is a planet orbiting the distant sun is pseudo science and a complete waste of time. They believe that anyone who questions the globe, Earth cosmology, is either mentally challenged or a religious bigot. Sadly, a large percentage of the Christian Church subscribes to the anti-Biblical theory of the globe Earth in a solar system.

The second group is made up of those that believe the Genesis 1 account of creation is a literal transmission of accurate and reliable revelation. Based on the Biblical account, this group does not believe in a solar system or a globe Earth. Historically, this group far outnumbered the first group, but lately that majority view has dwindled down to a very small remnant.

The third group are those that believe the Biblical account, as recorded in Genesis 1, but have conveniently avoided the topic out of fear for what those in group one would think of them. For 68 years I was a card-carrying member of this group, and not very proud of it.

THE BIG SPIN

The fourth group are those that have begun to question the solar system theory. This group is made up of all sorts of people—many, if not most of them, are not Christians. It is my prayer that a growing number of Christians join this group.

I began my own personal journey to investigate the question of the status of the debate regarding Earth's cosmology. The first place I checked and searched was the internet. I wanted to know if any prominent Christians, or Christian groups, were promoting a literal Biblical cosmology.

What I discovered, considering my own cowardice as regards to the topic, should not have surprised me.

Not only were Christian apologists not defending the Scriptural account of creation, but also many were actually mocking those that even took the time to investigate the matter.

Most Christians took the position that the globe heliocentric spinning Earth theory was now settled and proven science, and you better get on-board with it.

Some even went so far as to warn any Christian who dared to consider this matter—that they need to stop before they embarrass themselves individually or the Church of Christ corporately.

Many of these “enlightened” Christians have become some of the strongest defenders of the world's cosmology. This is truly amazing!

I was surprised and encouraged to discover that the debate regarding the globe solar system model was a hot topic of debate and discussion.

I discovered that there were a growing number of voices emerging in defense of a geocentric, non-spinning Earth cosmology.

Were they Christian voices?

To be fair, there were a few, but they were in the minority.

Who had taken up the cause for Biblical truth?

Who were these warriors against deception and protagonist of common sense and reason? They were, for the most part, non-religious, non-Christians, Atheist and Agnostics.

This fact shamed me and sent me to my knees, asking the LORD to give me courage. My silence on this most important topic had amounted to an abandonment of the literal interpretation of Scriptures. Coming face to face with my own heightened concerns about what “others” would think of me, I had neglected to consider what my Lord thought of me.

I believe we are living on the cusp of the appearing of Jesus Christ to collect His bride, both the living and the dead.

I believe that the Second Coming of Christ, at the conclusion of the seven years of Jacobs’s trouble, prophesied in the book of Daniel, is on the near horizon.

I believe we are in that period of time that God identified as a season when the lies of Satan and the world would be exposed just before the end.

I believe the purpose of this exposure is to wake up the church so that she might make herself ready for Him to come and gather her up in the clouds and take her to the place He promised to prepare for her.

God is clearing the minds and raising up men and women to speak out against the solar system deception. Most of these folks do not identify themselves with Christians or have any allegiance to Christ.

Why is God doing this?

I can only guess! Perhaps the reason is that Christians have openly denied the creation account. Has this denial temporarily disqualified them from taking up the standard of God's truth and brought them into a confused state of mind?

Has the unbelief of the Church resulted in a divine judicial blindness when it comes to the veracity of the creation account?

Are we not seeing the consequences of this unbelief in the faltering and feckless witness of the modern Christian church, as they meet across much of the world in order to figure out how to have their best life now?

It is my hope that this blindness may be removed, once Christians are reacquainted with true Biblical cosmology and repent of their unbelief.

For Christians, this is not so much about a scientific deception as it is about a spiritual deception that has resulted in a grievous lack of confidence and understanding of the Word of God.

Most Christians, are unaware that they are deceived and truly believe that they can incorporate the world's cosmology and a literal interpretation of the Bible at the same time.

It is for this group that I have decided to venture into the battlefield, prepared to be met with an onslaught of slings and arrows from other Christians and the world that hates God and His Word.

To those non-Christians who have taken up this cause and have yet to meet the Creator whose disclosure about the universe you are perhaps unwittingly promoting, may God continue to open your minds to the truth.

Not only do I admire some of these stalwart individuals who are willing to advance truth regardless of the personal cost, but I have begun praying for them. They put most Christians to shame! The same God that has opened their minds to the truth about the universe is able to open their hearts to receive the Good News that Jesus the Creator is also Jesus the Savior! I pray this glorious revelation awaits them at the end of their quest for truth.

In the meantime, I would warn any Christian searching the internet for information regarding the “non-spinning” Earth at rest. They should be discerning and careful to test everything before receiving or repeating it. There are many agendas out there that are either directly or tangentially “orbiting” this hot topic, and many of them are rooted in deadly errors and ancient deceptions.

To be clear, there are agenda's in play that are the antithesis of Christianity.

In the back of this book I have created a short “recommend list” of Christian apologists who have done a great job of raising up common sense arguments that support the “Earth at rest” disclosure of Scripture.

THE BIG SPIN

To the Christian apologists who have spent their careers sticking up for the literal interpretation of the six-day creation account and the young Earth as described in the Genesis 1 account, I would ask you to consider the following questions:

Don't you see the connection between the lie of evolution and the lie of heliocentricity and modern astronomy?

Have you not considered that the same enemy of God's truth that mires the divine creation of man in millions of years is the same liar that mires the truth about the heavens and Earth in trillions of miles?

Don't you realize that you have lost the battle for the truth regarding the literal six-day creation account as soon as you acknowledge as truth the lie regarding the trillions of miles and multi-trillions of years that they tell us are "apparent" in the Heavens?

Have you not read your Bible? The sun, moon and stars were created according to the Scriptures contemporaneously with the creation of Adam and Eve.

THE BIG SPIN

Can you not see that the account of creation of the Earth and all the life God spontaneously spoke into existence approximately 6000 years ago, cannot exist in the same space as a sun, moon, and stars that you now acknowledge have existed for untold eons of time? Not to mention celestial bodies that have been blown up into such monstrous proportions that it would be impossible for them to co-exist within the firmament described in Genesis.

And you wonder why Christians are not taken seriously.

Better to be mocked by the enemy, which is a sign that they both loathe and fear you, then to be praised by the world for your “good sense”.

2 TIMOTHY 2:23-26

But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strife's.
And the servant of the Lord must not strive;
but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,
In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves;
if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 1

THE BONDAGE OF THE MIND

The purpose of this book is to clearly present a Biblical cosmology. The goal is to provide the reader a definitive and authoritative outline of what the Bible literally reveals regarding the Earth we live on and the Heavens that exist above our heads.

This book is primarily written for those that profess to be Christians and have a love and respect for His Word.

If you are not a Christian, I invite you to read this book with an open mind, understanding that the initial purpose of this book is to make it crystal clear what the Bible actually teaches about the Earth we live on and the Heavens that are stretched over our heads.

If you get nothing else out of this book, you will be informed as to what literal Biblical cosmology teaches.

Only after that revelation is clear, and the reason for the revelation is unambiguous, can Christians then begin to examine the evidences that confirm the Biblical revelation.

In other words, the first thing all Christians should desire to discover is what God revealed regarding the creation and architecture of the Heavens and the Earth.

The second thing that Christians should desire to discover is what God intended for us to understand regarding His revelation. Only then can we examine the evidences that God has so graciously provided us in order that we may continue to fortify our understanding and our faith.

If this investigation is done with a heart and mind firmly devoted and subordinate to the revelation given by the Creator, then I have no doubt that God will be glorified and our minds will be at peace and rest in the knowledge of the truth.

Remember that we love and serve a God who delights in encouraging His children, but steadfastly resists and causes blindness and confusion to be the portion of the arrogant and the proud.

The first question that must be asked and answered is as follows:

Does the Bible reveal an authoritative cosmology?

Many have tried to evade the issue of the cosmological view presented by the Bible by saying that the Bible is not a book of science and therefore should not be expected to conform to known science. This is complete and utter nonsense.

The Bible gives us a clear cosmological vantage point that is consistent throughout the Old and New Testament. It is supported by hundreds of verses that not only reveal the basic design of the universe, but do so with a consistency that is absent from the constantly morphing modern science and astronomy that is continually being modified, adjusted and manipulated.

You may not accept the Biblical model, but to say it does not exist is simply untrue.

For those that claim to take the Scriptures literally, this book is meant to be a direct challenge to the current heliocentric spinning globe theory that has captivated not only the entire pagan world, but also the Church of Christ.

MATTHEW 11: 25,26

At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.
Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

Clearly, most Christians have abandoned the plain, literal, Biblical revelation as it describes the architecture and essential features of the Heavens and the Earth.

The current scientific theory presents for our instruction and indoctrination, a globular, constantly expanding universe with an Earth that is ever spinning and wobbling around the sun.

We are taught that we live on a tiny planet of little importance that exists in an obscure un-distinguished quadrant of the Milky Way galaxy. According to the high priests of science, we are rocketing through space at speeds that range from a spinning-speed of over 1000 miles an hour to velocities that are thousands of times greater than a speeding bullet. All this is unfelt and unseen motion as we move forward and around the sun at 65,000 miles an hour.

If we are to believe modern astronomy, we are moving in four directions at the same time at speeds that total over 600,000 miles an hour as we move around a sun that is moving around the universe. And yet we feel no motion or movement on an Earth that is apparently at rest.

The plain truth of the matter is that the heliocentric theory has been elevated to the status of absolute truth without rigorous investigation or disputation. All evidence to the contrary has been deliberately hidden.

There are only a relative few who dare challenge the current edifice that has been erected to the “science god”, with all its cleverly contoured and assembled non-sensical math formulas and fortified with constant recitation by a ceaseless eruption of ridiculous presuppositions. All of this bolstered by the cartoon pictures of Earth supplied to us by NASA. The computer generated globe Earth has taken firm root in the minds of billions of people.

The spinning Earth theory is a moving target that is constantly morphing and reinventing itself with fresh supplies of “new discoveries” supported by media speculation. It is all meant to have us wondering out loud what amazing prizes or perils await us in a yet to be discovered galaxy.

What are we given as “absolute proof” that we live on a globular spinning ball? The answer is a computer-generated graphic that was allegedly taken from the moon landing in the late 60’s. Really?

Few take the time to consider the counter intuitive dictates that are designed to weary the average person into dizzying submission and brow beat them into a mental bondage that is calculated to lock up common sense and throw away the key.

The expert high priests of the scientific elite have decorated themselves with letters and degrees that are meant to insulate them from common sense and give them license to lord over us with their ridiculous theories.

THE BIG SPIN

The average person never thinks to lift their heads up and consider with a clear mind the absolute absurdity of the science fiction that is currently being served up as indisputable truth.

The purpose of this book is to put before the reader the long rogance to put God in the dock in order that we might arrive at a verdict regarding the nature of our universe.

Are we to judge between the testimony of the Creator of the universe and the latest missives handed down to us by the ever-morphing science cult, modern astronomy, and NASA?

PROVERBS 1:7

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge:
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

ago abandoned Biblical cosmology revealed by the only authoritative source who can claim to have actually been present when the world, we think we understand, was spoken into existence.

It is the position of this author that it is a sign of unmitigated ar-

In other words, is it reasonable for us to expect that God will allow us to sit in judgment between His account of the existing universe and the account brought forth by modern science, NASA, and modern astronomy?

I think not!

THE BIG SPIN

God remains the only arbitrator of truth and will not be put into the witness box and sworn in like some eyewitness to a traffic accident.

Such a presumptuous approach, common today, is almost guaranteed to invite a divine sentence of judicial blindness.

This may partly explain the current condition of the modern Christian Church. If you have drunk the latest “scientific Kool-Aid” you can only expect to wake up in a stupor, stumbling around in the dark, witless and confused.

That does not mean that we cannot investigate the common sense clues that God has put all around us. The truths about the universe only elevates and confirms God’s account of His creation. It is by this humble examination that we come into contact with the real Heaven with all its moving celestial bodies circling over an Earth at rest.

THE BIG SPIN

Once God is honored as the Creator, and His account is received humbly by faith, the evidence for the veracity of the Biblical account opens up before us like a flower graced by the warming rays of the morning sun.

We will focus on one indisputable and inconvenient truth that defies the current heliocentric system.

As I investigated 100's of convincing proofs and the arguments against the solar system model, I discovered one proof that no one could dispute or debunk.

I am not exaggerating! This is a proof that, once you get, will inoculate you from that moment on—from the spinning globe delirium.

It is a proof that can be ignored, but it cannot be refuted. The only problem with this proof is that most people have no idea how the universe actually works. Without this basic understanding, any proof against the globe is met with a hundred questions that would be completely unnecessary, if we simply understood Biblical cosmology.

Understanding human nature as I do, let me state again for the record that the purpose of this book is not to only provide a persuasive proof that you're not living on a spinning sphere circling the sun; others have done that job very nicely as any investigation of this topic will reveal.

The purpose of this book is to take you back to the pathway prepared for those that in humble submission receive the word of God as the only source of pure truth.

The stepping-stones to illumination must begin with an unshakable confidence in the God that revealed the truth about His Heaven and Earth.

THE BIG SPIN

It is my belief that this book will increase your faith in the Creator and open the doorway that will reacquaint you with the amazing and completely rejuvenating revelation of Biblical cosmology. It is a revelation that should fill you with courage and faith.

In order for that to happen, you might want to consider doing something revolutionary. You might want to bow your head and pray that the God who created the Heavens and the Earth reveal His truth to you and give you courage to believe it—no matter what anyone says or thinks about you.

Christians need to repent for allowing their minds to be propagandized by the great enemy of our souls. Deliverance from the science cult and its globe god will result in an unshackled intellect that is free to sincerely worship God in Spirit and truth. It will also free you to investigate the world God created with confidence that His findings will be consistent with the revelation found in the Scriptures.

You are not going to change the course of this world as it chases science down the rabbit hole of self-destruction. But you can allow the Holy Spirit to change your own mind and bring you into conformity with the mind of Christ, your Creator.

You can be liberated from the system and propaganda that the media is shoveling down your gullet.

This book is about liberation from a world system that seeks to change how you think, while at the same time it drives God from your consciousness and removes your admiration and respect for His revelation and His creation.

The good news is that in the final analysis, the only opinion that will matter is the opinion of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, the One who spoke all things into existence. He is the One that reveals the truth.

THE BIG SPIN

This book is not for the faint hearted or those that need the approval of men. It is for those who have the faith to believe that God is true and every man a liar.

If I have not dissuaded you from reading this book with these highly charged opening comments, then I invite you to dig in and discover the real truth about the universe you live in. Remember that condemnation without investigation is the mark of a fool.

You can be confident that there are people on their knees, praying for every person that reads this book, in order that you might come in contact with the Creator of the universe.

Wouldn't it be wonderful to get the obstacles purposely placed on your path by a world whose prince is the father of lies and allow God to form your opinions and increase your understanding?

This is not just an intellectual battle; it is literally a spiritual battle for your mind and soul.

The enemies of truth are working overtime to keep the globe deception coursing through our culture, like a poisonous virus that just keeps on spawning new and bigger venomous lies.

Christians need to unshackle themselves from the mindless propaganda of the enemy and regain the common sense that God gave us.

The next chapter will begin with a Scripture that is meant to allow the truth to unfold seamlessly before your eyes.

CHAPTER 2

THE FIRMAMENT DISCLOSURE

GENESIS 1: 6-10

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

And God made the firmament, and divided the waters that were under the firmament from the waters that were above the firmament: and it was so.

And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

And God said, let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

GENESIS 1: 14 -18

And God said, let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

There is a detail in this Scriptural account that almost all Christians miss.

Do you know what it is?

It is a profound disclosure that ties the Revelation of Genesis 1 with the Revelator of Genesis 1.

WHO is the revelator?

According to the English translation of the Scriptures, the Revelator is none other than “God”.

There is a crippling disconnect between the revelation of Genesis 1 and the Revelator of Genesis 1.

This unfortunate decoupling of the meaning of the revealed name of “God” from His disclosure of the creation of the Heavens and the Earth has its own beginning in the translation of His name from the Hebrew to the English.

In order to understand the profound nature of this “hidden in plain sight revelation”, we first need to understand what it is that “God” said or disclosed in these ten verses that are found prominently in the first chapter of the first book in the Bible.

Only after we grasp the nature of the revelation can we begin to understand its importance. So let us begin by answering the following simple question.

What did “God” reveal?

The answer is simple. God is declaring that He created a firmament in the midst of the waters.

Had He not done this, all His creation would be living under water.

In other words, God created a space between the waters. He accomplished this by way of a firmament. God’s disclosure and description of the firmament is the foundational truth for understanding the rest of the revelation regarding the Earth and Heavens.

If you don’t get this, nothing will make any sense. Once you understand it, everything falls seamlessly into place.

What is a firmament?

The answer is pretty straightforward.

A firmament is a canopy, dome or vault in which exists the expanse of everything that is not “the waters”. God calls it the Heavens. It includes the atmosphere we breathe, the sky and the space we view, and the place where God placed the sun, moon, and stars.

We might call it the Celestial realm, a realm with a “firm” impenetrable canopy, vault, or dome.

Let’s make it clear what the firmament is not.

The firmament is not the clouds or a protective water canopy that once surrounded the Earth prior to the Flood of Noah that exists no longer. This theory is simply inconsistent with the Scriptures that declare the existence of the firmament nine times in the first chapter of Genesis (pre-flood) and another eight times after the flood.

These explanations are not only inconsistent with the unfolding revelation regarding the architecture of God’s creation, but they also make no sense.

If you asked me why the tropical fish stayed in the aquarium filled with water, and I told you that an “air canopy” surrounds them, you would think I was mentally challenged.

Clearly, the aquarium functions as a watery home for fish because they are enclosed in a firm, fixed and water-proof enclosure.

Flipping this aquarium example around, you can understand that air-breathing mammals cannot exist in a free-floating bubble with no solid protective enclosure.

Clearly, “God” reveals that the firmament was, and remains, an indispensable feature of both past and present cosmology.

If you’re going to take the Scriptures literally you can come to no other conclusion. It is an explanation that perfectly describes your habitat.

In order that you not miss the significance of this revelation, “God” spent ten verses addressing this mystery directly.

No other single element of the creation revelation found in Genesis 1 received more attention than the ten out of thirty-one verses that make up the first chapter of the first book in the Bible.

Understanding what “God” revealed in these ten verses found in Genesis 1 may be controversial, but they are certainly not difficult to understand.

As a matter of fact, it was so simple to envision that it became the foundational model of Scriptural Cosmology for thousands of years. It has only recently been displaced as the predominant “Earth view”.

I must ask, “Where are the Biblical literalists I keep hearing about?”

Apparently, this is one revelation they have decided they don’t want to take literally.

In summary, those that read and understand “God’s” revelation regarding the firmament, could easily and readily, literally, create two and three dimensional models that plainly represent the disclosure. And so they did. See the figure named Ancient Hebrew Conception of the Universe in the contiguous page.

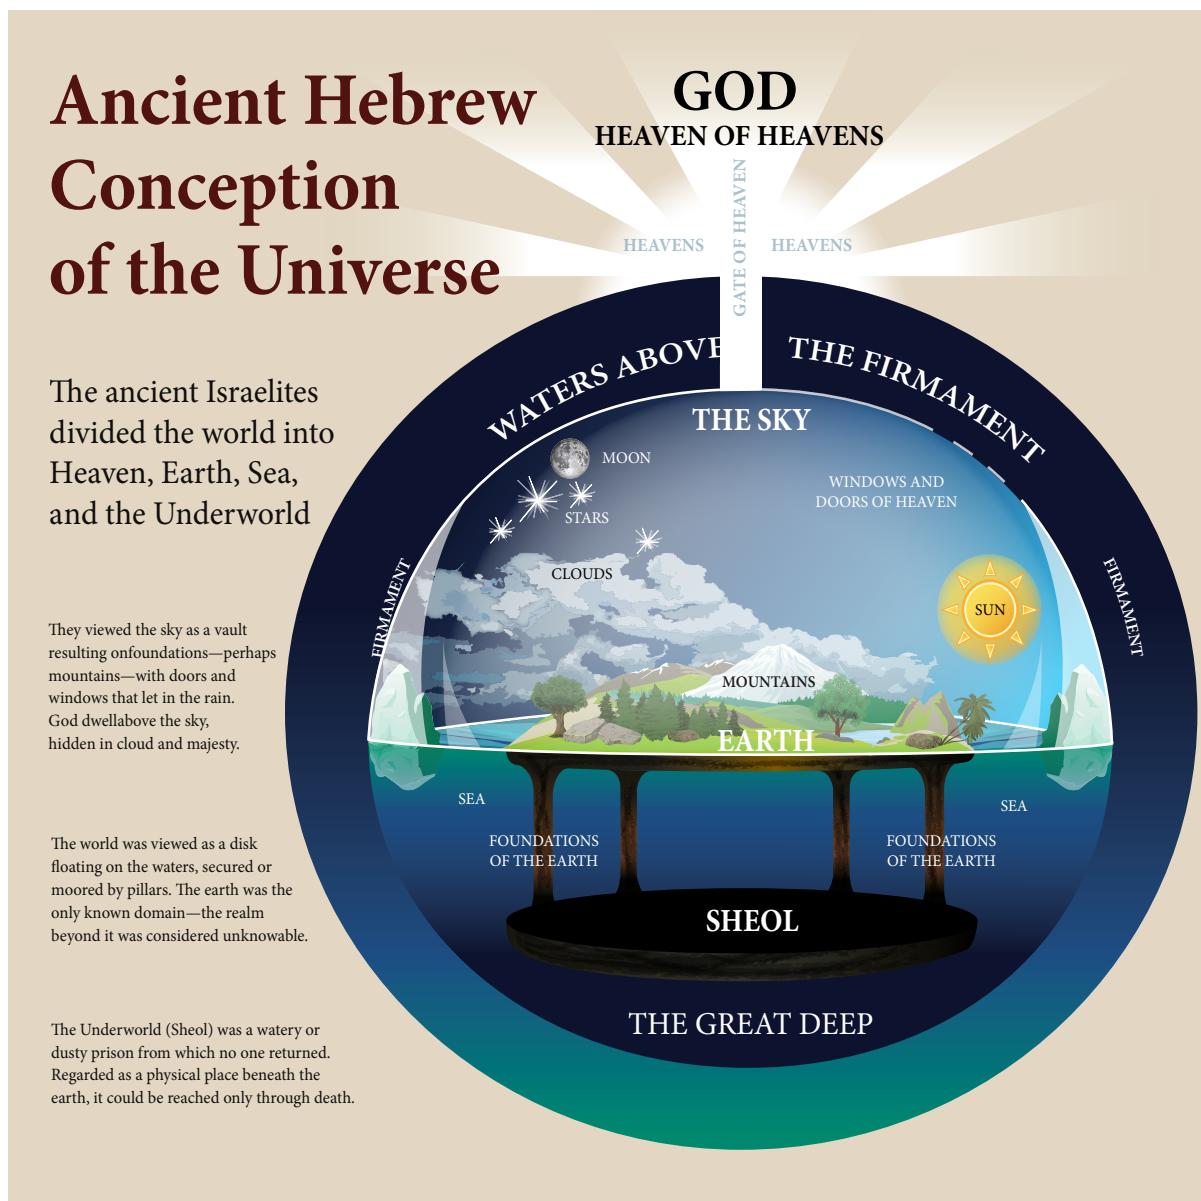

There are some who take the position that the “firmament disclosure” was simply God’s way of making the creation account understandable for the unsophisticated and unscientific ancients.

THE BIG SPIN

Some religious scholars have claimed that the “firmament disclosure” was for the purpose of “theological messaging”.

I appreciate the fact that these Bible scholars honestly face up to the fact that the literal cosmological model presented throughout the Scriptures is completely inconsistent and bears not the slightest resemblance to the current heliocentric globe model.

But at this point, my admiration ends abruptly.

I disagree vigorously with the conclusion that the Scriptural revelation is obviously in conflict with agreed upon science, and is therefore, untrustworthy as a scientific model.

I am thankful for the scholarship that makes it absolutely clear that the ancient Hebrew model of the universe has its roots in the clear teachings of Scripture.

To be an apologist for the literal Scriptural cosmology and then turn around and accept the Copernicus Heliocentric model, with the explanation that basically God never intended for us to take His revelation literally, is to elevate unbelief to a new level of absurdity.

According to those who wish to accommodate the God of the Scriptures with the “god of science”—the purpose of the Biblical cosmological revelation was “theological messaging”. Really?

I can’t help but wonder what “theological message” the faithful Biblical literalist would understand once they discovered that the clear literal message was an obvious deception.

To be clear, I am not suggesting that the Biblical “firmament disclosure” is either a poetic explanation designed for the unscientific ignorant ancients, nor is it a method of “theological messaging”.

Both these explanations are an insult to the integrity of God and the intelligence of man.

The firmament is central to the Biblical disclosure for good reason. Without the firmament we would cease to exist in the Earth that God created as our home.

CHAPTER 3

WHAT IS THE MISSING CONNECTION?

The following revelation based on the meaning of the name of “God” will go a long ways toward disabusing anyone of the serendipitous or poetic intentions of “God”, regarding His preeminent firmament disclosure.

The Missing Connection

The Hebrew word translated into English as “God”, is the Hebrew word ELOHIM. Elohim is the first revelation of the name of the Creator.

What does Elohim mean?

What most Christians do not understand is that the Hebrew language is a composite of three languages.

Those three languages are:

- 1 • Conventional
- 2 • Pictographic
- 3 • Numeric

Hebrew is the only language in the world today that has these three layers of communication.

Greek has a numeric language and Chinese is based on pictographic. Only the Hebrew language combines all three layers of communication.

Here is how it works in a nutshell:

Each of the 22 letters in the Hebrew Alpha-Beyt has a meaning based on the original and ancient pictographic representation of each letter. To repeat, this link between the conventional, pictographic, and the numeric was true from the very beginning and is not a novel or recent feature of the Hebrew language.

Each of the 22 letters in the Hebrew Alpha-Beyt is also a number. To be clear, the letters do not represent numbers, they actually are numbers. The meaning of each number is based on how it is used in the Scriptures alone.

If you would like to know more about this, I would suggest you visit www.rockislandbooks.com and purchase one of the following books:

- The Living Word in 3-D Volume 1 – Genesis 1:1
- The Living Word in 3-D Volume 2 - The Patriarch's Genesis 5

• 50 Amazing Words – Volume 1

The bottom line is that contained in each Hebrew word is a collection of pictures that undergirds the meaning of the word.

Underneath the pictures are numbers that also have meaning and significance.

The pictures seem to provide an “ideal” understanding of the Hebrew word, while the number, that is also the letter, provides the theological understanding of the Hebrew word based on how those numbers unfold and are used in the Scriptures alone.

Using this simple tool for investigating the “hidden in plain site” meaning of Hebrew words, allows the reader to explore the original meaning of Hebrew words. The one Hebrew word, found most often in the creation account of Genesis 1, will be of particular interest to us.

THE BIG SPIN

We will be exploring the following Hebrew word:

Elohim (God) – used 32 times in the Genesis 1 creation account.

The first Hebrew word we are interested in exploring is one of the most important words used in all of Scripture. Every time your English version of the Bible uses the word “God”, it is translating the Hebrew word ELOHIM.

In Genesis 1, the Hebrew word Elohim (translated as “God” in English) is used 32 times—more than any other verb or noun found in Genesis 1.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to know what ELOHIM means?

Conventional Meaning

“God”

English Translation

Elohim

Original disclosure in Hebrew

אֱלֹהִים

aleim

(Right to Left in Hebrew)

Primary Conventional Usage

Creator of all things!

First use of Hebrew Word ELOHIM (God) in Scriptures

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

Genesis 1:1

THE BIG SPIN

PICTORIAL MEANING

GOD

ELOHIM

אלהים

(Hebrew is right to left)

aleim

Pictorial Translation of ELOHIM (God)

The Ideal

Alef
Strong Leader
First
God the Father
OX

Lamed
Control
To Have Authority
The tongue
Staff
The Good Shepherd
The Son of God

Hey Reveal
Look
Holy Spirit
Behold

Yood
To Work
A Mighty Deed
To Make Hand

Mem
Liquid
Streams of Water
Tsunami Massive Chaos
Waters

THE BIG SPIN

It has been pointed out by Christian Hebrew scholars that Elohim ends in the Hebrew letter mem.

The importance of this is that whenever mem is found at the end of a Hebrew word, it signifies that the word is plural.

While I agree with the implications of this observation, I believe there is an even more powerful and persuasive argument to be made.

Yes, it is true that the Hebrew word Elohim, the word translated “God” in English, is plural and therefore discloses that God exists in more than one personage.

The Triune nature of Elohim is not, however, proved in the pluralization of the name of Elohim.

The triune nature of God is, however, found in the first three Hebrew letters of His name, as revealed in Genesis 1 and throughout the rest of Scripture.

The Name

ELOHIM Reveals the Trinity

Elohim begins with the letter alef.

Alef is the picture of the Strong leader.

It is understood by Hebrew and Christian Bible students and teachers that this letter and its underlying picture is ideally one that represents the “First”, or “God the Father”. It is not an accident that the first letter, alef, occurs as the first letter in the Hebrew words El, Abba, Elohim, and Adonai, all appellations for the Almighty.

Who is the Strong Leader?

It is God the Father.

The second letter in the word Elohim is the letter lamed.

Lamed is pictured as a shepherd's staff, and the meaning is “one that speaks with authority”. Lamed is clearly a picture of the Son of God who authoritatively spoke all things into existence and is the Good Shepherd of our souls.

Who is the Voice of Authority?

It is God the Son.

The third letter in the word Elohim is the letter hey.

Hey is crowned with the number 5, the number of Grace. The Hebrew letter, hey, means “to reveal”.

Who is the Gracious Revealer?

It is the Holy Spirit.

The First Three letters in ELOHIM reveal the Trinity.

The first three letters of Elohim tell the astute reader that what you’re being introduced to is God the Creator—who is self identifying as God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

What do the last two letters of Elohim reveal?

The next two letters in the name of Elohim are yood and mem.

Contained in the name Elohim—discovered in the first three letters—is an introduction to the triune God.

This is followed by another great mystery that is hidden in the last two letters of the name of Elohim, the Triune God.

The Creator discloses a name that is meant to arrest your attention. It is a key that unlocks the mind of God as it relates to His creation of the universe, in which we are currently residents.

What does Elohim Disclose?

Is it the creation of Man—the pinnacle of His Creation?

NO!

Does the Creator draw our attention to the terra forming of the Earth with all its mountains, rivers, lakes, rocks, and trees?

NO!

THE BIG SPIN

Does the Creator bid us to observe the sun, moon, and stars as His crowning achievement as Creator?

NO!

Does the Creator ask us to consider the amazing variety of creatures that He has spoken into existence?

NO!

So what is so important that Elohim actually included it in the revelation regarding Himself?

What is second in importance, only to disclose that He is the Triune God?

The answer is the HAND that does a MIGHTY DEED separating the WATERS.

Everything that God created resides in and occupies the Place that God made for all His creation to exist. This is the undeniable Revelation, that everything He created—based on the Genesis 1 creation account—exists in the space between the waters below and the waters above, that He created.

Summary Translation of Elohim (God)

God the Father, the Son who speaks with authority, and the Holy Spirit, will reveal a mighty deed that separates the waters.

Or put in another way:

God the Father would inform His children—

I have created a home for you between the waters!

NUMERIC

GOD

ELOHIM

א ל ה י ם

40 10 5 30 1

aleim

Numeric Meaning of ELOHIM (God)

1 א Alef

Deity – Unity – Sufficiency – Independence – The First Indivisible
God the Father

30 ל Lamed

Blood of Christ, Dedication – (3x10) Magnified Perfection of Divine Order Marking the Right Moment – Blood Sacrifice

5 ה Hey

Unmerited Favor – God’s Goodness – Pentateuch
Divine Strength – The Fifth – Grace

10 י Yood

Perfection of Divine Order – Completeness of order – Testimony –
The Law – Responsibility – Ordinal Perfection

40 מ Mem

Trials – Chastisement but not Judgment – Action of Grace Resulting in Revival – Magnified Renewal – An Extended Period of Rule or Dominion – Grace Multiplied by Renewal (5 x 8)
Probationary Period that results in Renewal

Now let’s look at the Numeric Translation of the Hebrew word ELOHIM. Remember that while the ideal is revealed in the PICTURE, the “theological” and “prophetic” is revealed in the NUMERIC.

Numeric Translation of ELOHIM (God)

Theological and Prophetic

1 א Alef

Deity

Unity

Sufficiency

Independence

The First Indivisible

God the Father

30 ל Lamed

Blood of Christ, Dedication

(3x10) Magnified Perfection of

Divine Order Marking

The Right Moment

Blood Sacrifice

5 ה Hey

Unmerited Favor

God's Goodness

Pentateuch

Divine Strength

The Fifth

Grace

10 י Yood

Perfection of Divine Order

Completeness of a Sequence of Divinely Ordered events

Testimony

The Law

Responsibility

Ordinal Perfection

40 מ Mem

Trials

Chastisement but not Judgment

Action of Grace Resulting in Revival

Magnified Renewal

An Extended Period of Rule or Dominion

Grace Multiplied by Renewal (5 x 8)

Probationary Period that Results in Renewal

Summary Translation of Elohim (God)

God the Father will bring about deliverance through His Anointed One and by His grace at exactly the right time. He will unfold a divinely ordained plan, testing Man to show his weakness, and then reviving and renewing Man by His Grace.

In a nutshell, the numbers in the name of Elohim disclose a plan of redemption and deliverance, but only after a time of testing. The implication is pretty obvious.

We are being tested by our Creator below the dome. This is a concept that is not only inconsistent with man's progressive view of himself, but it is a concept that is hated by the world. I wonder why?

Summary

It will be the purpose of this book to establish one indisputable fact. The Holy Scriptures, that most Christians give lip service to as being infallible and God breathed, disclose a cosmology that is at extreme variance with the heliocentric globe model. The vast majority of modern evangelical Christians have accepted this as irrefutable truth.

There is simply no way of forcing the Scriptures to teach, or even hint at, the current scientific heliocentric globe theory, which is cleverly designed to explain our world.

The two models are completely inconsistent.

Hundreds of Scriptures describe an Earth at rest, with sun, moon, and stars moving overhead inside our firmament.

This truth is not only revealed in the narrative of Genesis 1, but it is confirmed and memorialized in the very name—Elohim. As we have learned, the Pictorial meaning of Elohim declares the

THE BIG SPIN

Trinity and the mystery of the firmament.

Do you imagine that Biblical cosmology is quarantined in the first chapter of Genesis?

Biblical cosmology is a theme that runs all the way through the Old and New Testament, without modification or alteration.

Anyone that thinks this is an unimportant discussion needs to carefully read this book.

Biblical cosmology is the starting point for not only understanding the world that Elohim created for us to inhabit, but also establishes the gold standard for treating God's word as a literal transmission of truth.

Let me end this chapter with a simple to understand summary of the Genesis 1 revelation.

Elohim wants us to know that He has created a place for us to live. It is a place under the firmament, a place between the waters that He separated. As we look up we can see the luminaries, including the sun and moon that He has placed within our view, in order that we might both glorify Him and celebrate His gracious plan of redemption and salvation.

And how important is this revelation? So important that He embedded the very truth regarding the fundamentals of the universe we inhabit, in His very name—ELOHIM.

Now at this point many people respond with "SO WHAT?"

The most common response I have heard is as follows:

"What is the difference, as long as I glorify God for His creation?"

Is it all right to ignore this revelation and excuse yourself by imagining that you're "glorifying" God with an elevation of the heliocentric globe model of the universe?

I believe we need to respond to this question with another question.

THE BIG SPIN

Is God glorified when we attribute something to Him that has been vomited out of the pit of hell and lapped up by the world that hates God?

Does God want us to promote a creation account that the enemy has crumpled up like a ball and thrown in the garbage heap?

God destroyed the entire world with a flood because His creation had become corrupted. Not only was man corrupted, but also the animals and even the plants.

How do you think God feels about His people abandoning His truthful revelation of the origins, and architecture of the Yes, this is very serious!

Do you really think that God is glorified by giving Him praise for a cosmological monstrosity that was invented by Satan and sold to mankind as a substitute for the Biblical model?

cosmos, and latching on to the lie that Satan has concocted—in order to deceive the unbelieving and rebellious world?

At this point, I can hear the objections from those who think they have found a way to reconcile modern astronomy with the Biblical cosmology.

THE BIG SPIN

Notice first that they think it needs reconciling.

Do you think the creation account in Genesis 1 is an allegory? Perhaps you think it is poetry, or a metaphor? Is it a simile or a parable? We will deal with all these questions in a future chapter.

For now, let me just say that any Christian that believes in the literal six day creation of the world, cannot then take the revelation regarding the Heavens and the firmament, found in the same narrative, and attribute it to allegory, parable, or poetry.

You cannot have it both ways.
(More about this in a later chapter).

Some Christians have been taught that the Bible teaches the globe model of the Earth.

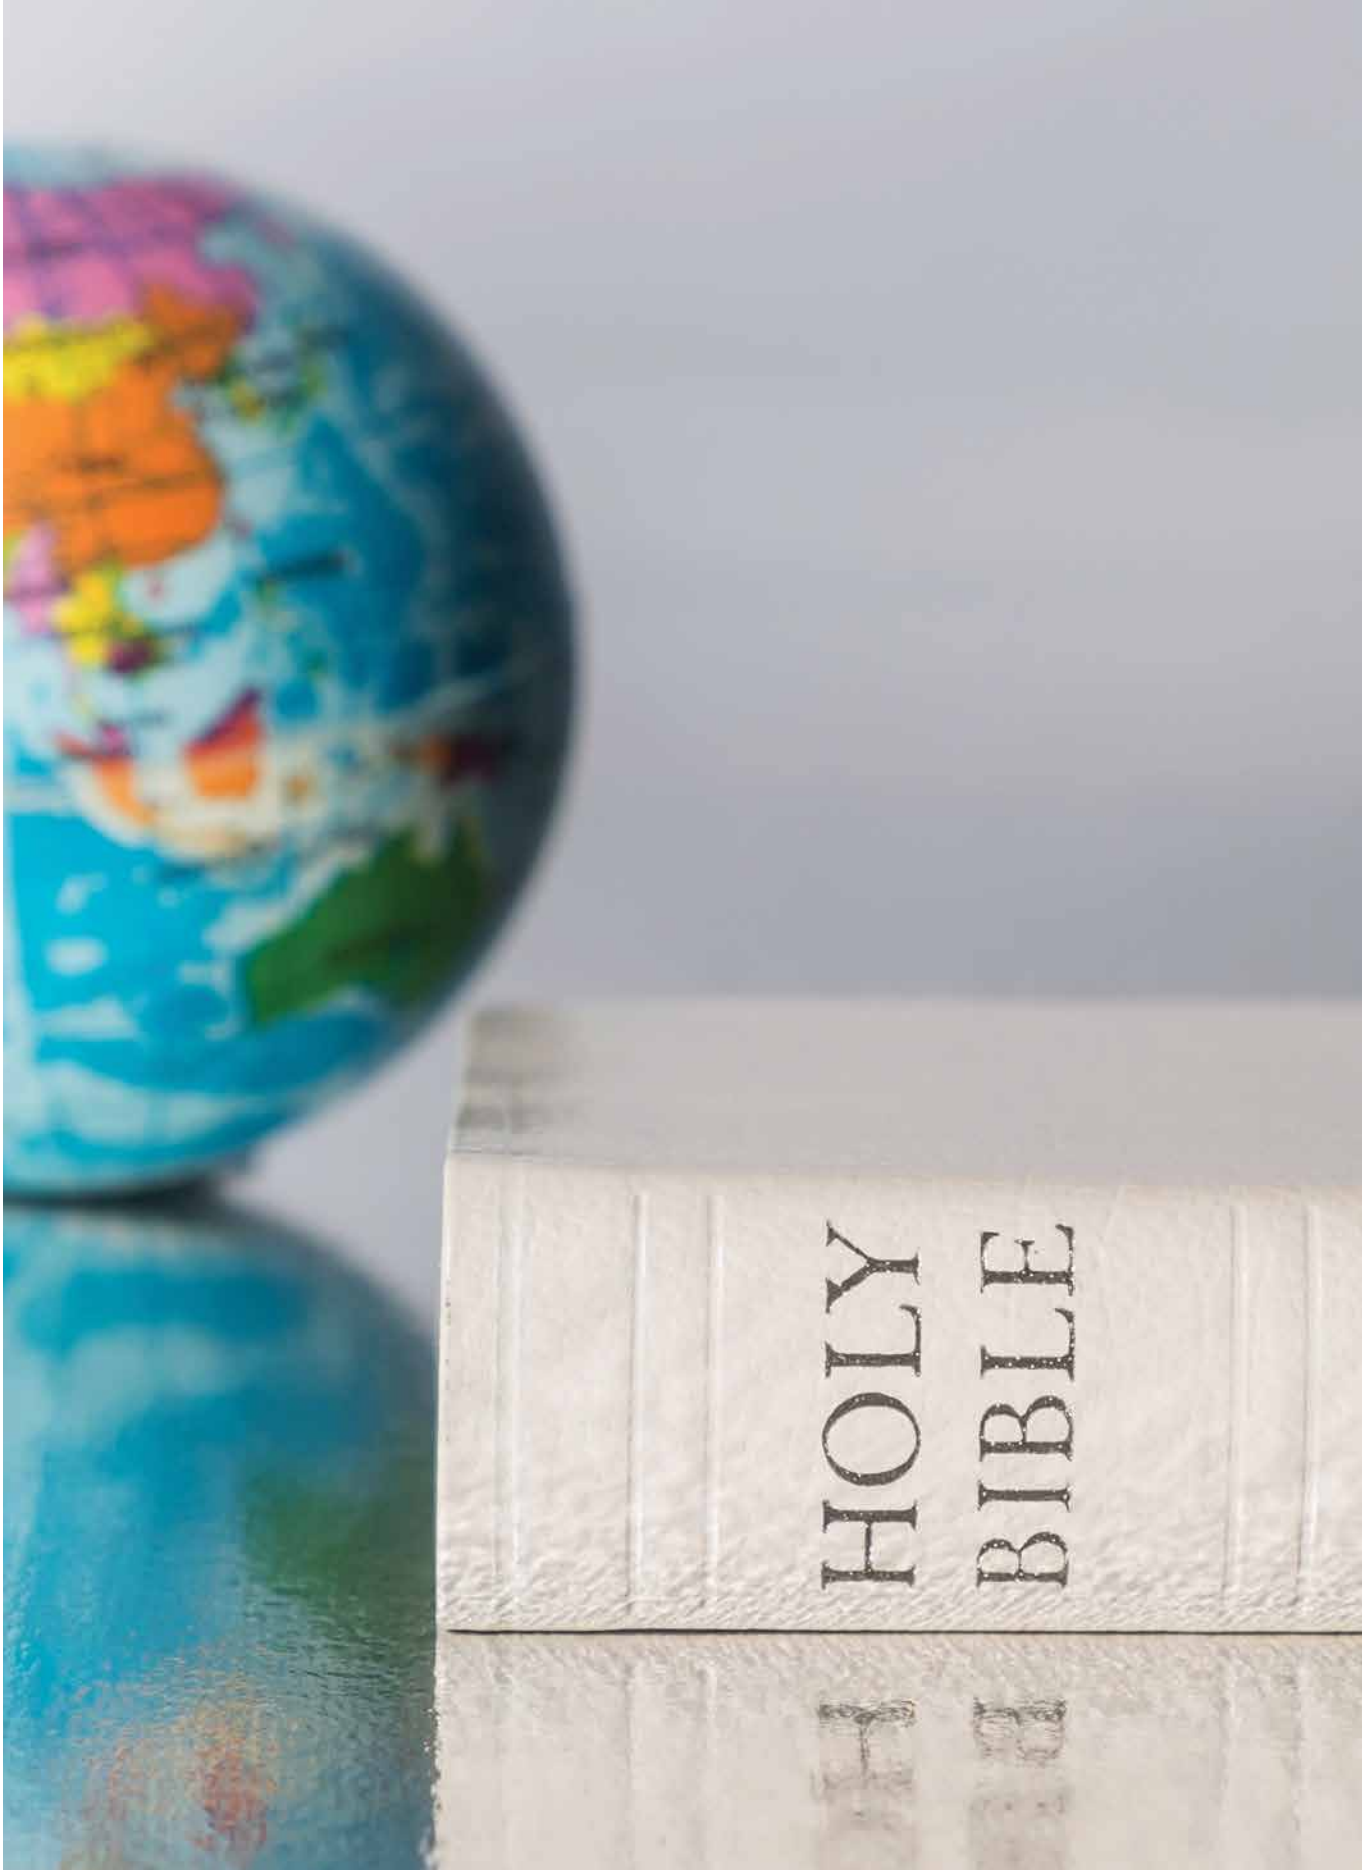

Among the over 300 Biblical references that inform us clearly about the Biblical model—there are two verses in the entire Bible. One is found in Job and the other in the book of Isaiah. They are most often used by the uninformed to promote the idea of a globe spinning Earth.

Do these verses found in the books of Job and Isaiah promote a globe theory? Or are these verses being twisted out of context in order to satisfy those who would rather believe the world than the literal Word? And in order to accomplish that mission, they would never think of challenging the world scientific system but would think nothing of twisting scriptures to fit their “scientific” world view.

The next chapter will deal with these two Scriptural proofs.

Once they are understood, you will see that they actually prove that the Scriptures NEVER even come close to presenting a globe, ball Earth model.

CHAPTER 4

IS THE GLOBE IN THE BIBLE?

JOB 26:7

Many Christians attempt to use this single verse in the book of Job to reconcile the Bible's cosmology with modern astronomy.

This chapter proves, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that this reconciliation is impossible, based on the clear meaning of the text. No matter how you torture this text, it will not confess allegiance to the spherical spinning globe god.

Literal Hebrew translation of Job 26:7 based on the Westminster Leningrad Codex Hebrew Interlinear.

JOB 26:7

Stretching out north over chaos hanging earth on without what?

There are no punctuation marks in Hebrew. So to be clear, the translation of this verse, from the Hebrew to the English, should include a question mark as is indicated in the Hebrew structure of the sentence. The question mark is missing from the KJV English Bible, which changes the question to a statement.

THE BIG SPIN

Whether Job is making a statement or asking a question, the solution to understanding this verse is equally evident. The Scriptures themselves have provided two principles of interpretation that are both connected and designed to keep the reader from going down the wrong path.

Those two principles are these:

The solution to any question about how to understand and interpret Scripture, is found in Scripture. In other words, Scriptures interpret Scripture.

The second principle is that if you're looking for a preconceived proof of your interpretation in Scripture, and you cannot find it, then you need to stop questioning Scripture and start questioning your presuppositions. In other words, the Scriptures always give corroborating testimony or witness to the truths it is genuinely proclaiming.

How anyone can find a spinning globe in this verse is simply beyond me.

The only thing that gets stretched when you try and force a "globe" into this verse is the truth. The only thing that gets "suspended" is common sense. Only those who have "suspended" their belief in the plain literal meaning of Scripture and are desperately trying to force "modern astronomy" into the verse could ever come up with such a bizarre notion.

The simple, plain interpretation of this verse involves two basic concepts that are not in the least mysterious. The two concepts are stretching and hanging or suspending. The mystery in the verse is not the "what" but the "how".

Job did not know how God did it... and neither do any of us.

There is a theme that runs all through the book of Job. And what is that theme?

THE BIG SPIN

The theme is that man is the creature and that God is the Creator and between the two there are unfathomable distances between what the creature knows and what God knows.

There is a great gulf between what God can effortlessly accomplish and what man can understand about what has been accomplished.

Add the question mark to the verse in Job, as is indicated in the original Hebrew, and the plain meaning of this verse is evident. If you insist on having Job turn the question into a statement, you arrive at the same understanding, albeit by a route not indicted by the construction of the language.

God is an awesome creator and His works caused Job to be both amazed and full of wonder. It should do the same for us.

What did He stretch the North over and what did He hang the Earth on?

It is the position of this author that Job is posing a question for which he does not have the answer.

Job is not in a discussion with God at this point, as that conversation does not begin until chapter 38.

The word translated “hangeth” in King James, has the Hebrew meaning “to suspend”, everywhere that it is used (28 times).

The word “suspend” simply does not contain any of the concepts or elements necessary to construct the tenets and theories of modern astronomy. And that is a good thing since modern astronomy is not only NOT taught in Scripture, it is provably false.

The book of Job does say that “He hangs the earth on nothing”—literally, without anything—but that does not say the Earth moves. It says it is “hung by God,” and this simply implies no movement. This verse is not about the shape of the Earth, it is about a mighty and all-powerful God who is able to both create the Earth and “suspend it” or “hang it”.

THE BIG SPIN

And at this point, let me give you a little insight into the motivation of “modern science”, just in case you have not yet figured it out.

If the Bible taught the current notion of a heliocentric Earth globe spinning around the sun, modern astronomy would be teaching a flat Earth.

Modern science is a cult whose main objective is to lie about everything in the Bible because they hate God and they hate His Word. If that is too conspiratorial for you, then you have clearly never read through the Scriptures which describe a war between God, and all that is good, and Satan with his angels, demons, and the corrupted mind of men, and all that is evil.

Now let’s look at Job 26:10, where Job describes the water of the oceans.

The literal interpretation on this verse, according to the Westminster Leningrad Codex Hebrew Interlinear, is as follows:

“Statutory limit he circled over surfaces of waters unto coincidence of light with darkness.”

Hebrew is a verb first language, not a noun first as we are accustomed in the west. So, a rough translation of Job 26:10 is as follows:

THE BIG SPIN

He created a statutory limit which encircled the surface of the waters, and its size (unto coincidence) made it possible for there to be light and darkness.

In other words, God encompassed the waters and made the size of the circle exactly the right circumference in relationship to the light from the sun, in order that we might have night and day.

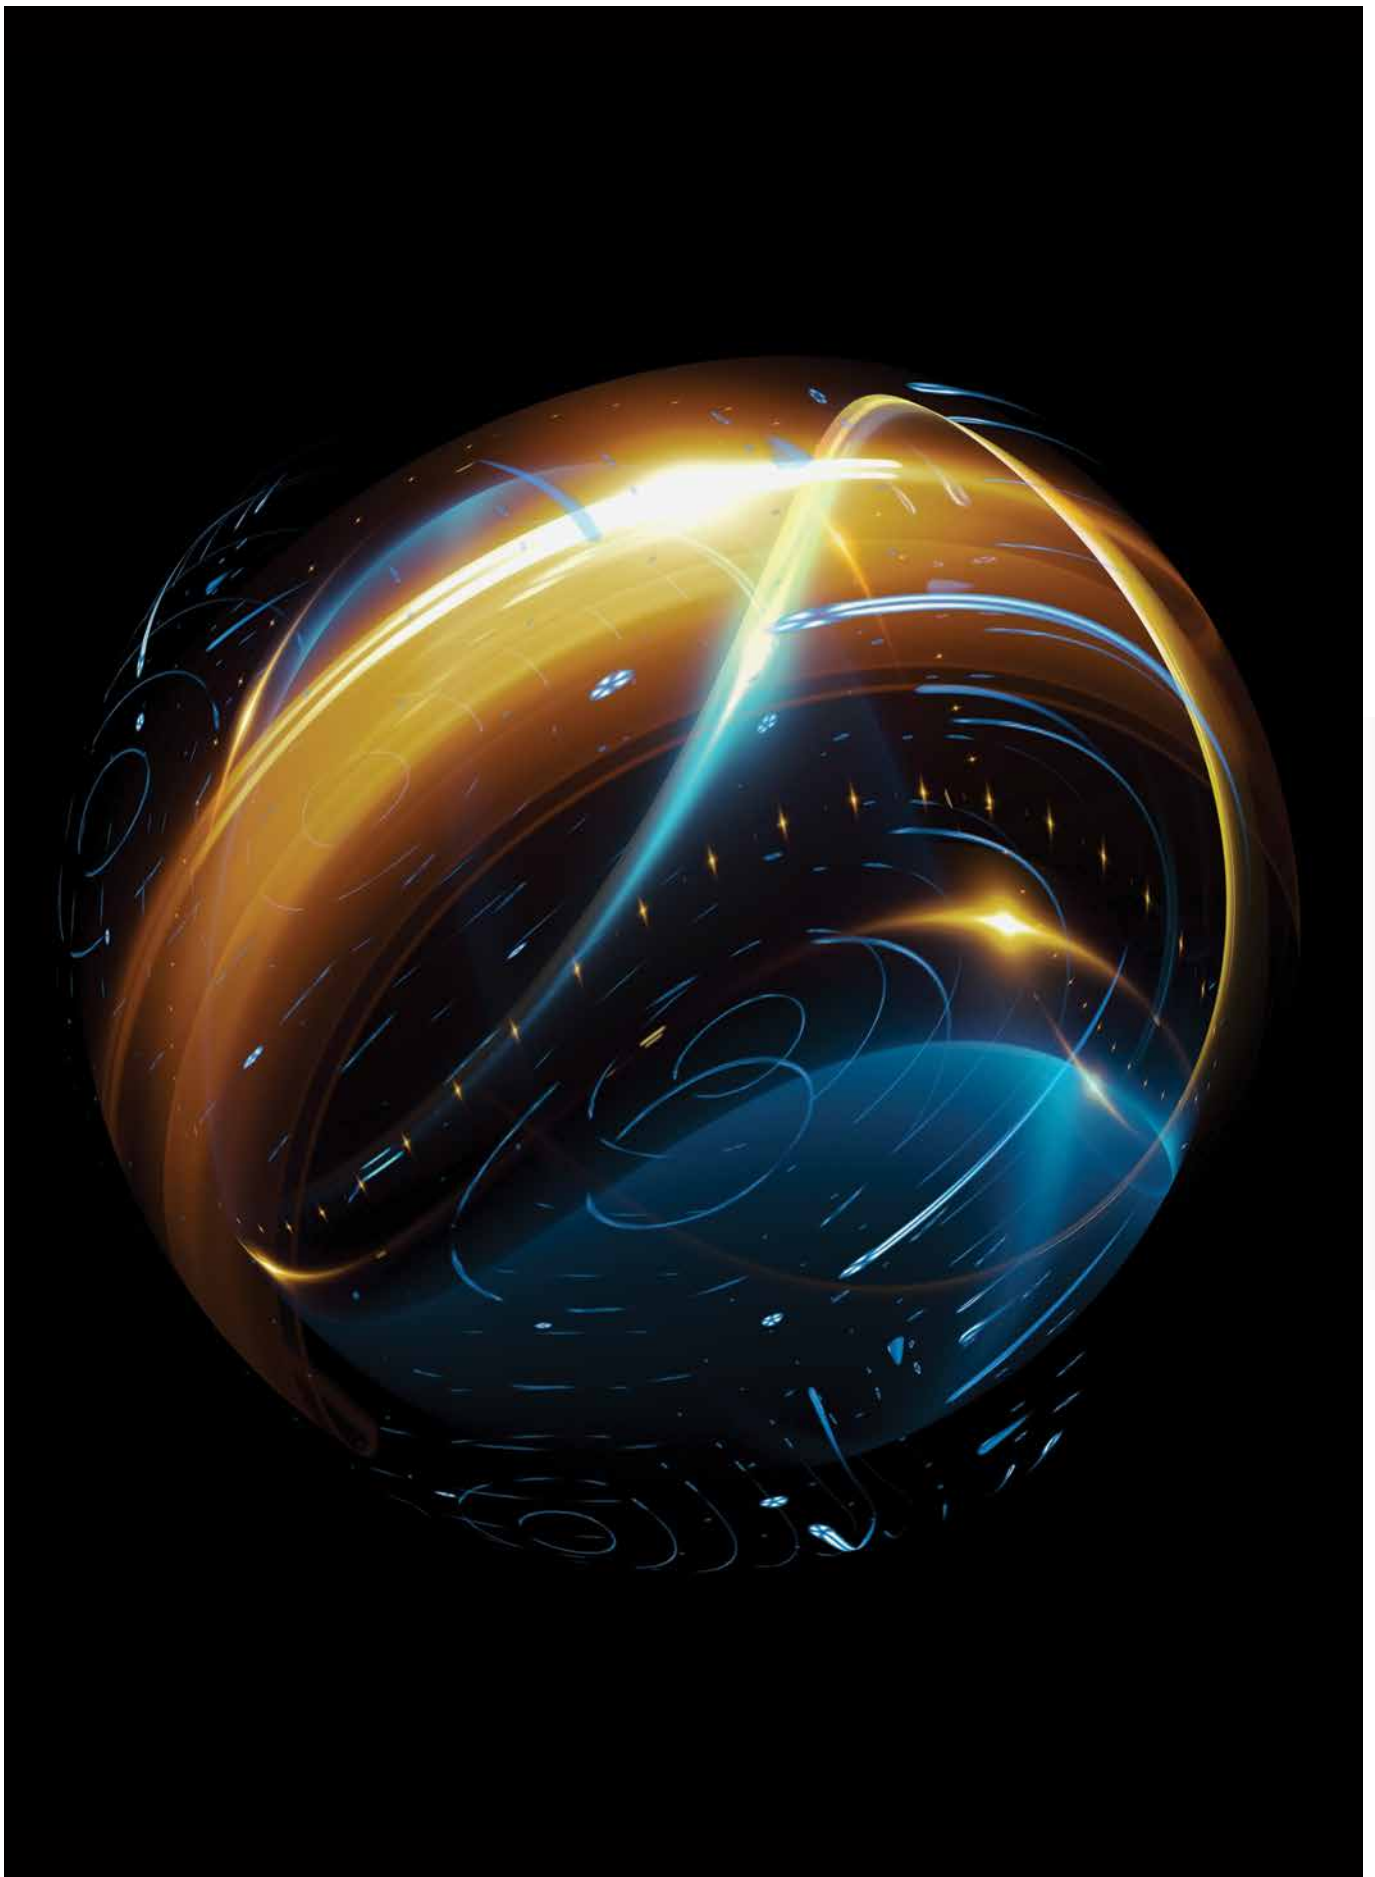

One more fact that the Scriptures make abundantly clear is that the sun is in a circuit above the Earth. It is not 93 million miles away, and it is not 400 times the size of the Earth.

Is Job describing a spinning globe? Clearly not!

What he is describing is an Earth that has a face that is circular with a sun, moving in a circle overhead, at a distance and a speed that God calculated based on the boundaries of the sun, its distance from the Earth, and the sun's changing rate of speed. The circuit of the sun, or the pathways as the Scriptures call them, were designed by God to produce a day and a night and the seasons.

To verify this, all one needs to do is look at the "apparent" path of the sun overhead as it makes a large circle over a pathway we call the "Tropic of Capricorn." It then contracts the circle to make a smaller circle over a pathway we call the "Tropic of Cancer." This fundamental and observable fact explains the seasons and the variations in the amount of sunlight observed, based on where you are located on the plain Earth. The ancients were not confused by this cosmology. It is only in the 400 years or so, that man has, by degrees, thrown off the Biblical model and replaced it with the monstrous solar system model that we are now told is "settled science".

CHAPTER 5

THE BALL IN THE BIBLE

The Ball And the Captivity of Israel

ISAIAH 22:18a

“He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country:
there shalt thou die...” (KJV)

Read the literal translation from Hebrew to English.

ISAIAH 22:18a

“To twirl he shall twirl you twirling as the rolling ball into a large land where you shall die.” (Literal Hebrew Translation)

Before we look at the word BALL, let's spend some time understanding the context of this proclamation by the prophet Isaiah, as he literally speaks the words God gives him to speak.

Israel is about to go into captivity. Israel has forsaken YHVH and now YHVH is about to forsake Israel. The Assyrian army is a wicked pagan, gentile nation used by God to discipline His idolatrous rebellious people.

The captivity and dispersion of the 10 tribes of Israel lasted from 733 BC until 1948 AD. That covers a period of 2681 years.

Let's read the prophecy of judgment that Isaiah pronounced against Israel one more time.

ISAIAH 22: 17-18a

Behold, the Lord will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die...

There is only one occasion in all of Scripture where the Hebrew word Dur, translated into English as ball, is used. The context of its usage is absolutely stunning.

The Hebrew word ball is one word used exclusively to describe a tragic event. Could it be that the Holy Spirit used the word ball as a metaphor for another massive world changing deception?

Is this a metaphor for the worship of the false globe and the system it represents?

I do not know.

What I do know is that the parallels are striking and worth considering.

Notice that as reported by the prophet Isaiah, the ball spins violently.

Modern astronomy informs us that we are living on a ball that is spinning violently.

Modern astronomy would have us believe that we are spinning at over 1000 miles an hour, while moving in an orbit around the sun that is 93 million miles away, while we on earth travel around it at 1,600,109 miles per day. To further accelerate the speedometer, they tell us that the sun and Earth are moving around the galaxy at speeds that approach a half billion miles an hour.

THE BIG SPIN

Modern science is obsessed with adding zeros to the already preposterous calculations of the speed of the twirling, racing Earth. I wonder why?

The description of a violently spinning ball is an apt metaphor of the galactic Earth as it races at lightning fast speed through the ether of time and space.

Annual speed of the Earth around a sun that we are told is 93 million miles away. This means that the Earth is rotating the sun at 66,671 miles an hour.

Could it be that the Holy Spirit is using the metaphor of a ball, in order to inform this generation of the greatest deception to ever infect the mass majority of mankind?

I want you to notice something else in the plain text before we look at the underlying pictures and numbers that will give us clues as to the meaning hidden in plain site.

Notice the result of the twirling, rolling ball.

What does it accomplish?

The answer is also stunning—The ball takes them to a “Large Land.”

What is the spinning “Earth ball” that is the third planet from the center of the solar system meant to communicate to us?

The answer is everywhere and repeated often by those that continue to propagandize us with their grandiose system. Earth is a tiny insignificant planet in a tiny insignificant solar system that is located in a tiny insignificant spot in a tiny insignificant galaxy.

The Earth shrinks into insignificance while the firmament is removed and replaced with endless and ever expanding amount of nearly infinite space.

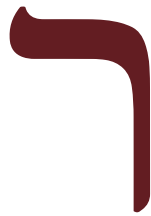

Truly, the spinning ball has taken us to a “Large Land.”

THE BIG SPIN

Now what happens to those that are transported to this “Large Land”?

They PERISH!

Now let’s see what the Pictorial and Numeric meaning of the Hebrew word, translated ball in English, discloses.

Reysh

Vav

Dalet

(Hebrew is right to left)

DUR
Ball

Dalet

Pathway – Doorway – Gate –
Place of Decision –
Entrance to Life or Death –
Moving into something –
Moving out of something –
To Open up –
A Place where Change can take place –
Door

Vav

To Add – To Secure – To Join
Together – To Make Secure
To Bind Together – To Create a Connection between
Two things that are separated from each other
Wooden Hook – Wooden Peg
To Hold Up
Iron Nail

Reysh

The Prince of Heaven is
The Head – The Highest – Leader
The Sum – The Supreme –
The First
The Most Important –
The Top – Master or by contrast, the Dark Prince of the Power of the Air
PRINCE

THE BIG SPIN

What is the underlying picture that is revealed by the Hebrew word translated ball?

- Dalet means doorway or path
- Vav is the nail that connects two things together
- Reysh, in this context, is the Dark Prince

Translation

Ball is the doorway that connects us to the Prince of the Power of the Air, the Dark Prince.

Now let's see what the numbers reveal:

NUMERIC

(Hebrew is right to left)

Reysh	Vav	Dalet	=	210
200	6	4

DUR
Ball

What does the number 210 mean?

10 (Ordinal Perfection) X 21 = (Exceeding sinfulness of sin)

Meaning of the Sum of the Numbers

The meaning is unambiguous.

Ordinal Perfection (10) means that there is going to be a sequence of events that were ordained to result in some momentous event at the conclusion of the matter.

And what is that something?

The answer is the exceeding sinfulness of sin.

Is the simple Hebrew word, translated ball, infused with a prophetic end time meaning?

Is the ball a harbinger of both violence and death?

Isaiah could not have known that in the last days the one word that would be ubiquitous throughout the entire Earth would be the word GLOBE.

And what is a globe?

It is a ball—a spinning ball.

Is this the key to understanding the last day's deception that the Word of God says will entangle the entire Earth?

The image of the globe spinning Earth is everywhere. It is associated with everything.

Does it meet the qualifications of an idol?

Certainly! It has captured the minds and imaginations of men who are paying their respects and homage to the globe image.

Can you think of a more repugnant idol than one that reports to be a true representation of the Earth and Heaven, created by God, when it is in fact nothing but a fake and a fraud?

Consider these questions as you explore the hidden meaning of the Hebrew word dur, translated into English as ball.

Numerical Meaning of Ball

4 ך Dalet

God's Creative Works – The World – Four Elements
Four Regions of Earth – Four Seasons
Four divisions of Day – Four in Contrast to Seven Earth (4) vs. Heaven (7) – The Fourth Thing
First Number that can be divided Material World that had a Beginning Creation

6 ך Vav

Enmity with God – Weakness of Man – Imperfection
Manifestation of Sin – Evils of Satan – Falling Short
Preservation – Labor – Sorrow – The Sixth
Number of Man – Secular Completeness
Man's World

200 ך Reysh

Inadequacy of the Temporal – Inadequate – Deficient
The Insufficiency of Man – Insufficiency
The Ineffective – Lacking what is Necessary or Required
Inability to Accomplish a Purpose

THE BIG SPIN

The number 4 means Creation.

Four refers to God's works—His material creation. God's creation has 4 corners, 4 winds, 4 regions of the earth, 4 seasons, 4 divisions of the day.

The number 6 refers to man's world with all its imperfections, evils, and sorrows.

The number 200 reminds us of man's insufficiency, inadequacy, and ineffectiveness. 200 reminds us of man's inability to accomplish a purpose.

The translation of the numbers is a compelling picture that whatever it is that man has connected to the idea of a ball is contrary to God's revelation and creation. It is imperfect, full of evil and completely insufficient to accomplish the purposes of man. And what are those purposes on a spinning Earth globe?

Man wants to dominate and conquer "space."

Man dreams of colonizing Mars or some other planet with Earth-like conditions. He dreams of communication with alien life forms that will help lift us out of our death cycle and give us the long promised satanic lie of immortality.

All this and more are just extensions of the big lies that Satan told Adam and Eve.

This ends our discussion of the ball.

Even if you don't agree with all of my commentary on the topic, you must admit the following:

Isaiah the prophet knew what a ball was. He knew about a spinning ball. He demonstrated his grasp of the Hebrew language and described a ball.

Why is this important?

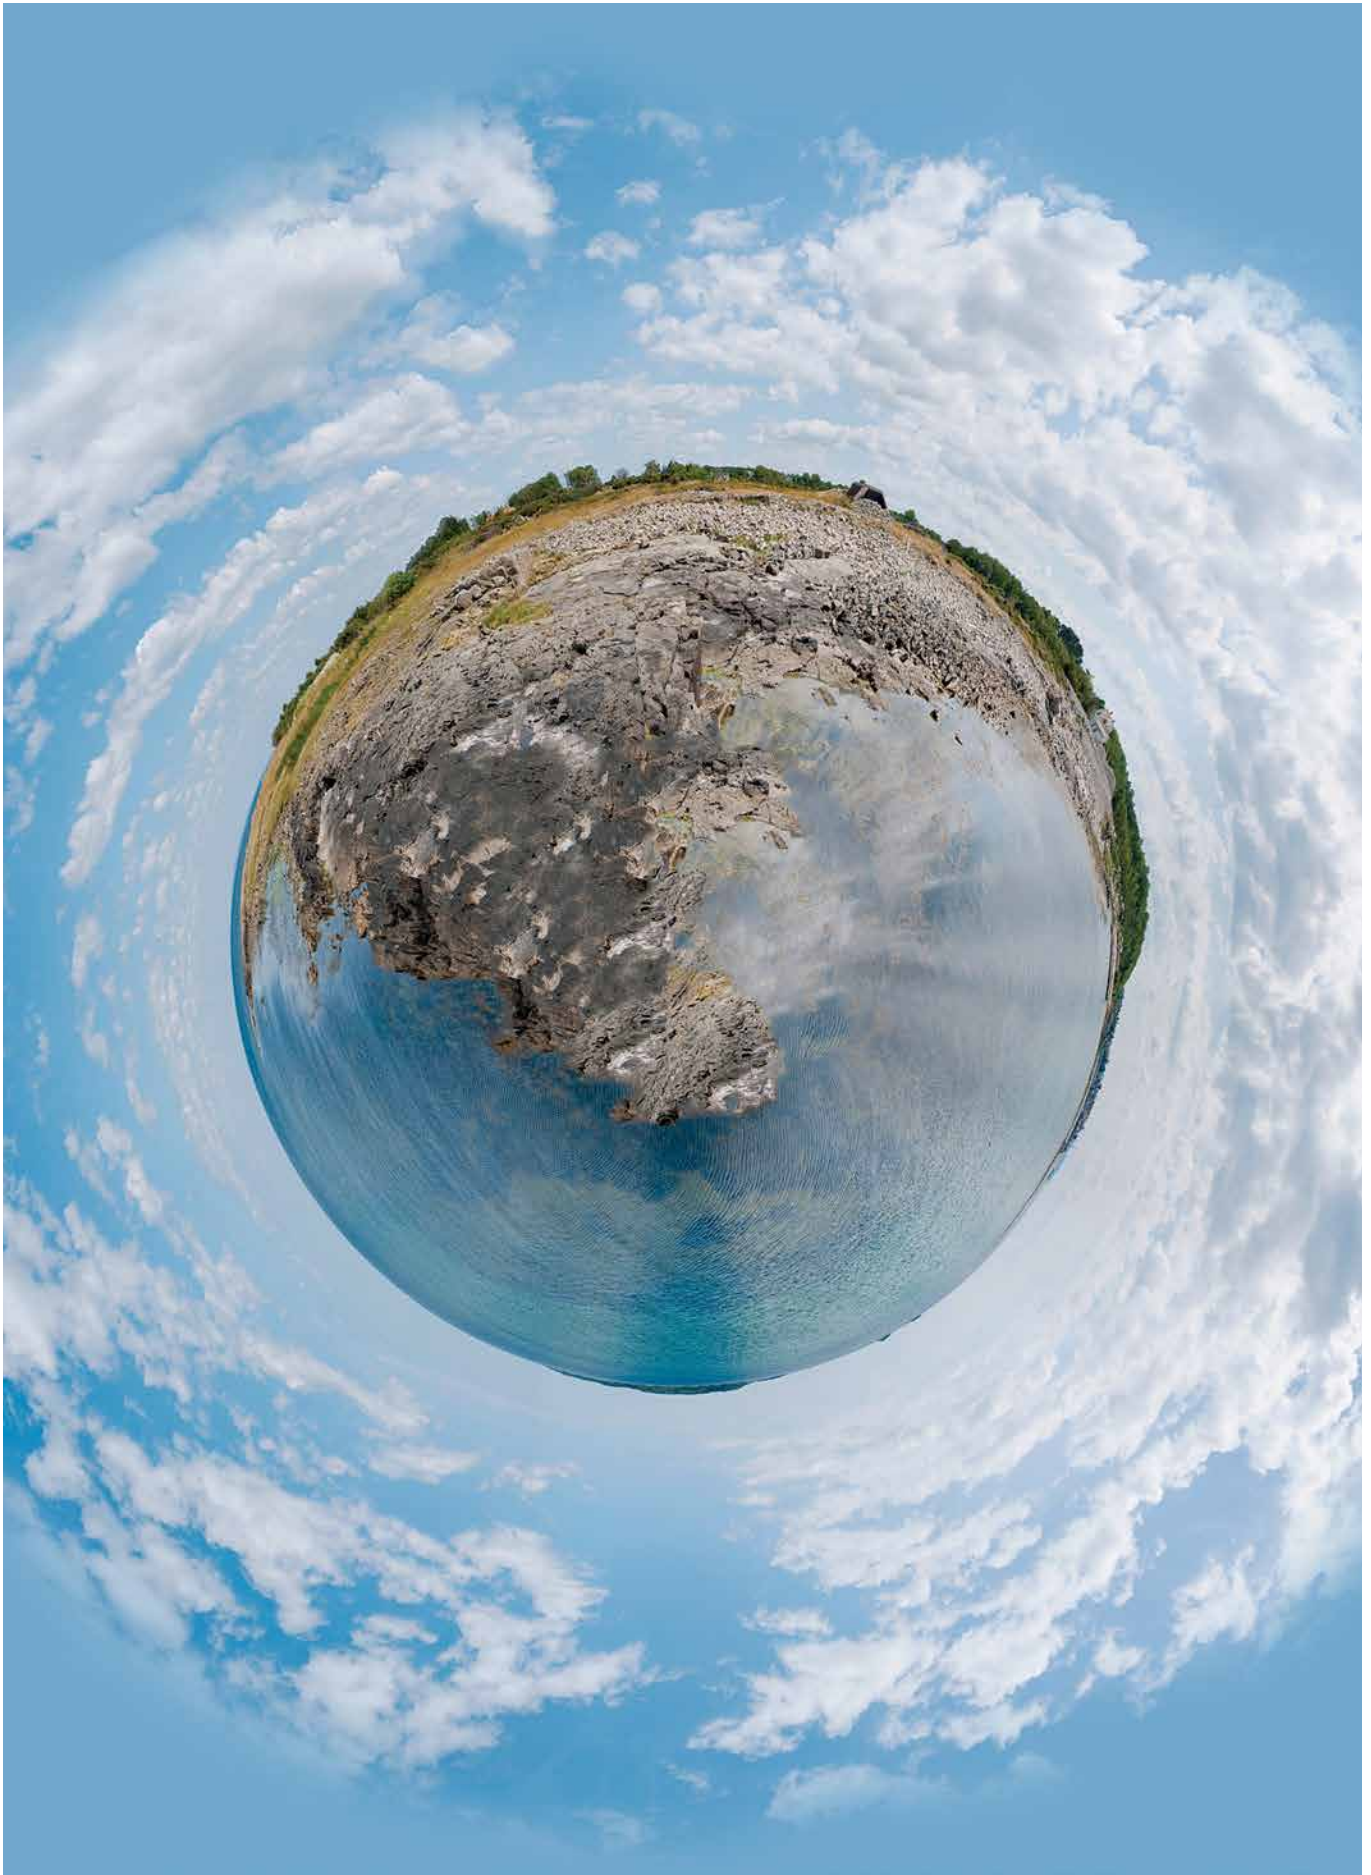

The answer should be obvious as you read Isaiah's description of the "circle of the Earth."

The "circle of the Earth" simply does not mean a round ball Earth, and if that is what Isaiah wanted to communicate, he had the language skills to offer up a precise image that would have no reader in doubt.

THE BIG SPIN

The fact that he didn't is proof that the Scripture nowhere describes, hints at, or discusses a ball-shaped spinning Earth.

CHAPTER 6

THE CIRCLE OF THE EARTH

Doesn't the Bible talk about the circle of the Earth? Doesn't this prove that the Bible taught a globe Earth model?

Yes, the Bible does talk about the "circle of the Earth", but instead of proving that the Earth is a spherical globe, it actually teaches the exact opposite. Let's explore the Hebrew word chug, which is translated circle, and see what we discover.

So what does the Hebrew word chug, which is translated as circle in English, actually mean?

Before we answer that question, let's look at the verse containing the word CIRCLE in its context.

ISAIAH 40:21-22

Have ye not known? Have ye not heard?
 Hath it not been told you from the beginning?
 Have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

THE BIG SPIN

Circle

Gimel

Vav

Chet

(Hebrew is right to left)

CHUG

Chet

Private – To Separate –
To Protect – Place of Protection
To be Cut Off – Grace – Favor
A place of Refuge
A Protected Garden – Quiet Place – Silent and Still In Security – Fence – Inner Room Sanctuary

Vav

To Add – To Secure – To Join
Together – To Make Secure
To Bind Together – To Create a Connection Between
Two Things that are Separated
from Each Other
Wooden Hook – Wooden Peg
To Hold Up
Iron Nail

Gimel

To lift up
Lifted up with Pride
To Lift up the Name of the Lord
Benefit – Bounty – Reward –
To Toil – Exaltation – Camel

3 Gimel

6 Vav

8
Chet

Numeric Meaning of each Number in Circle

8 ח Chet

Eternity – New Creation – First in New Series
New Birth – Super Abundance – Follows Seven and is the First in a New Series
New Beginning

6 ו Vav

Enmity with God – Weakness of Man – Imperfection
Manifestation of Sin – Evils of Satan – Falling Short
Preservation – Labor – Sorrow – The Sixth
Number of Man – Secular Completeness
Man's World

3 ג Gimel

Divine Perfection – Completeness
Three Attributes of God;
Omniscience, Omnipresence, Omnipotence
Solid – Substantial – The Entirety
Third Commandment
Lifting Up the Name of God
God the Holy Spirit

THE BIG SPIN

The purpose of the “circle of the Earth” is revealed in the number eight. The purpose is rebirth and a new beginning. This purpose is directed to those men and women living within the “circle of the Earth.”

It is as if God had drawn a circle around man and filled the interior of that circle with His blessings and bounty.

Man is directed to consider the three attributes of God.

Man is to consider – God’s Omniscience,
His Omnipotence and His Omnipresence.

(God is all knowing, all powerful and always present.)

The response God expects from man—the response that would be appropriate, considering His Divine promise of a new birth and a new beginning—would be to lift up the name of God in both worship

EXODUS 20: 3-7

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

and praise and to make it our chief purpose in life to bring Him glory.

The first three commandments make it clear how God expects man to treat Him as their Creator and benefactor.

Unfortunately, Man has decided that they have no allegiance to their Creator, deny His existence, and falsify the facts about His Creation.

The primary purposes for studying the word circle, as it is used in Scripture, is to discover if it can be understood to be a ball or a sphere. In addition to the passage in Isaiah, the Hebrew word chug is found two other places in Scripture.

The dictionary defines a ball as a Sphere.

Ask yourself if any of the following biblical definitions sound like a ball or a sphere.

Isaiah 40:22 • Chug is translated as a CIRCLE

Proverbs 8:27 • Chug is translated into English as COMPASS

Job 22:14 • Chug is translated as CIRCUIT

Circle

A circle is a closed plane curve consisting of all points at a given distance from a point within it, called the center. Equation: $x^2 + y^2 = r^2$.

A circle is the portion of a plane bounded by a curve.

A circle is any circular or ring like object, formation, or arrangement.

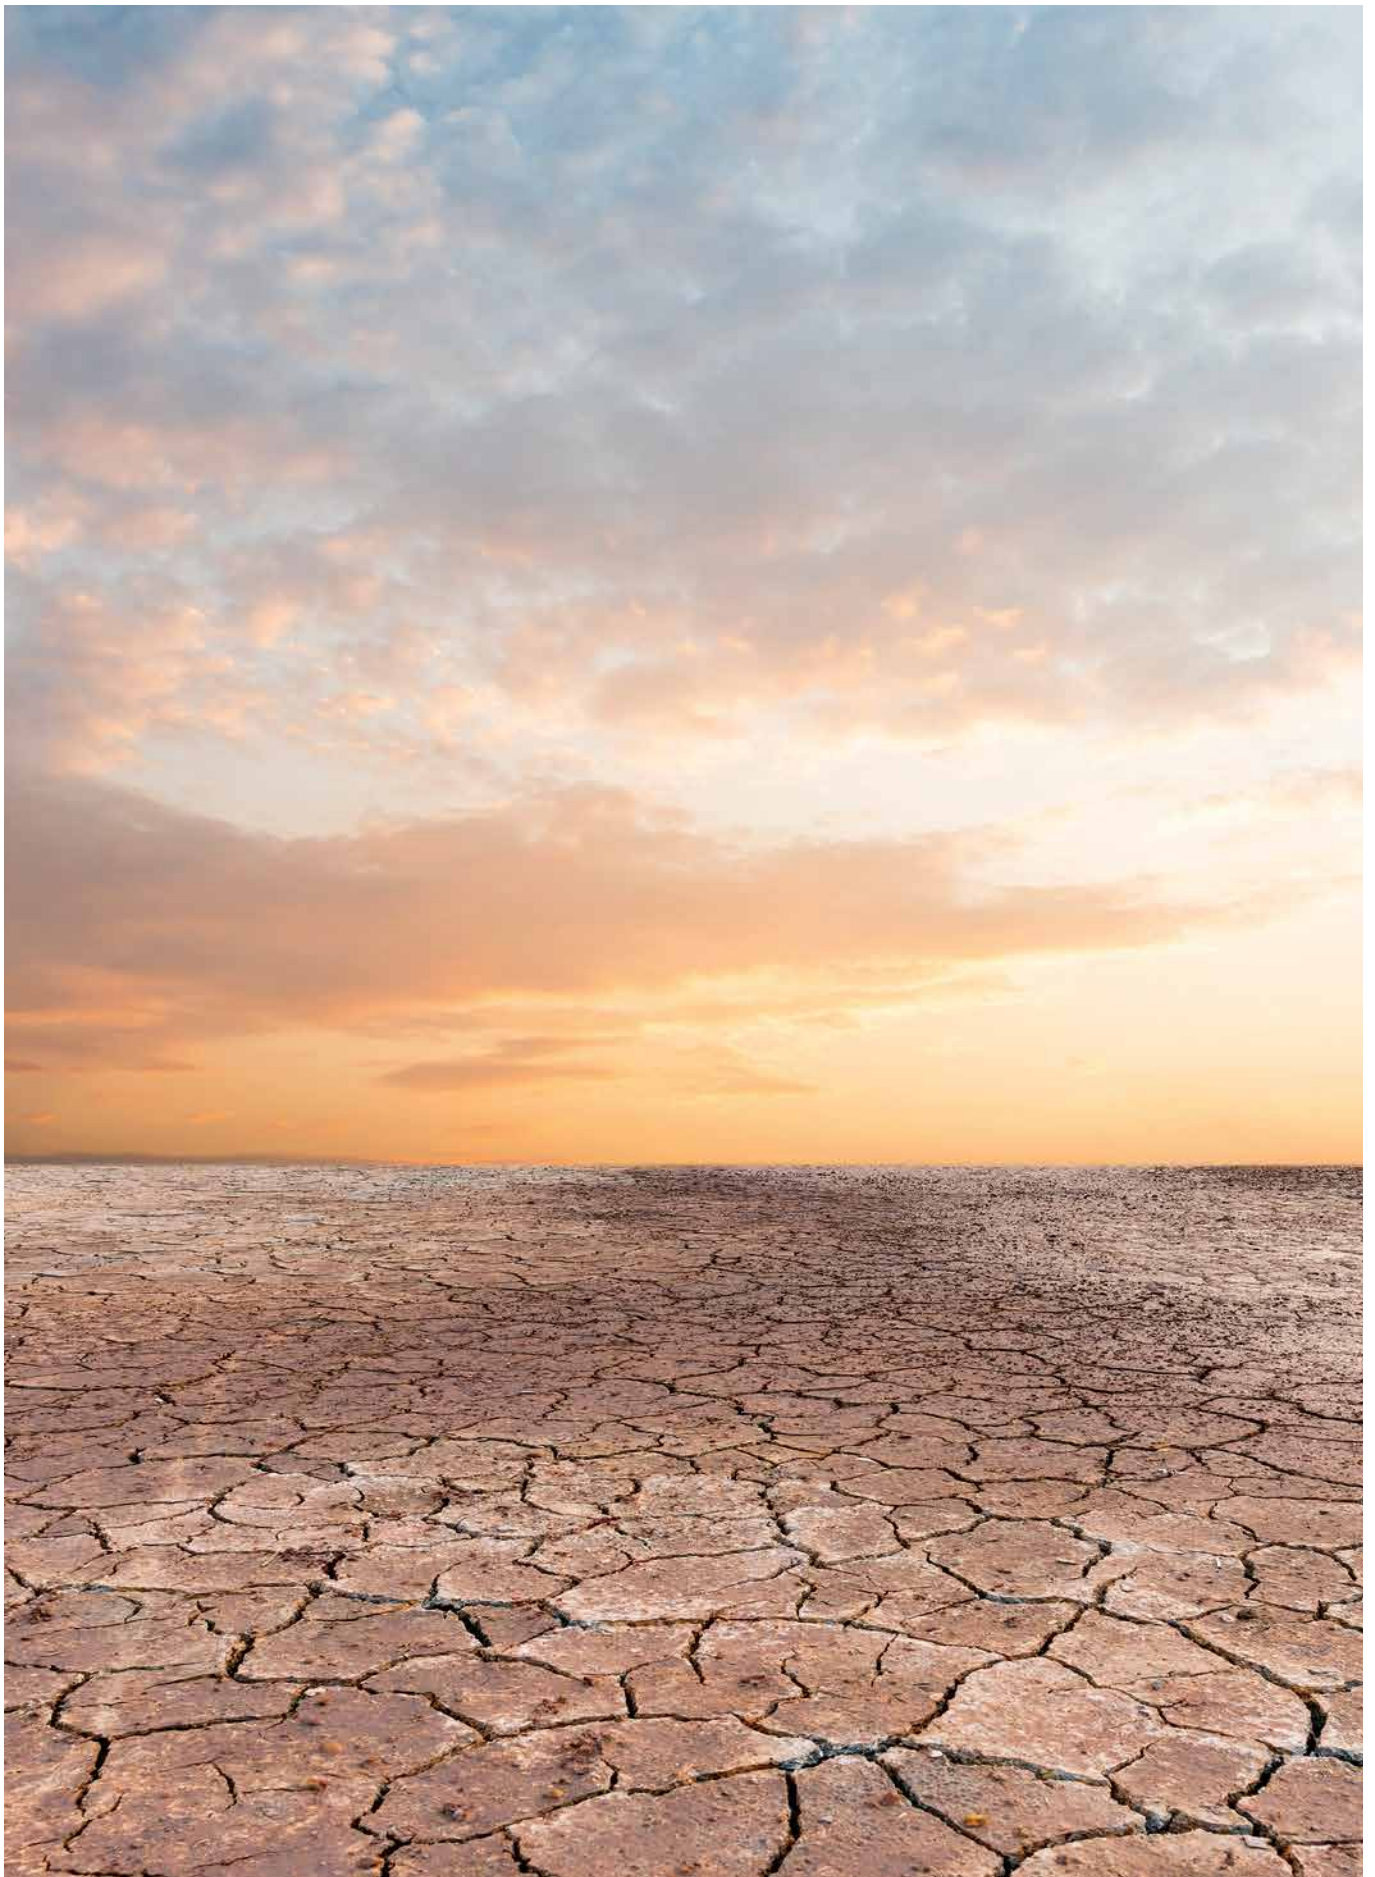

Compass

A compass is the enclosing line or limits to any area; perimeter. A compass is a space within limits.

To compass is to create a boundary, a space within limits.

Circuit

A circular journey beginning and ending at the same place.

CHAPTER 7

THE EARTH IS AT REST

While many Christians are spinning out of control!

The presupposition of all heliocentric globe theories is that the Earth is spinning while coursing around the sun at an astounding 1.6+ million miles a day. This fiction is the basis and foundational tenet of what we call the “solar system.”

If the Earth is neither spinning or orbiting the sun, the entire scheme presented by the Copernicus based solar cosmology falls to the ground and fractures into a million useless pieces.

If the “solar system” is proven to be untrue, does it expose modern science and its proponents as simply muddled thinkers?

No, it is much worse than that.

Some have been fooled and can be excused at some level for fooling others. Some absolutely know they are promoting a fiction and continue to do so for reason that should be alarming.

Fools and Fakers abound in this made up world of fictional cosmology. In either case, it needs to be abandoned as a worldview by all Christians.

If the truth was widely known and published, it would obviously produce an outcome that would radically change the world over night.

If it were ever exposed en-masse, the present system that is devised to cause man to disbelieve, the Divine record of creation would crumble overnight and the world as we know it would be thrown into chaos and confusion.

What is the reality that is waiting for everyone who buys into the lie?

Sooner or later the curtain will be lifted and the truth will be known.

The consequences of this would be nothing short of the greatest revolution to ever unfold before the physical eyes of modern man. The hundreds of thousands of people that have invested their lives and derive their very livelihoods from teaching and promoting this system, and everything that springs forth from this system, would suffer a catastrophic loss of income and reputation.

The current village idiots would be immediately displaced by an army of professors decorated with worthless degrees that would immediately be seen as badges of stupidity and absurdity.

Would it surprise you to know that everything described in the above two paragraphs is about to happen.

Will it happen as a result of this book?

That would be about as likely as putting out the Great Chicago Fire with a squirt gun.

Will some other champion for the truth purchase a main stream media outlet dedicated to exposing the lie of evolution and modern astronomy?

That would be about as likely as flying pigs.

As a matter of fact, the Scriptures that describe the real Earth and Heavens above are the same Scriptures that tell us that in the last days, the overwhelming majority of all those that reside upon the Earth will believe a great lie.

Many Christians who have wondered about the contours of this great lie have never considered the fact that they themselves have already been caught in its sticky web.

THE BIG SPIN

Could there be a greater lie than the lie of the globe, and all its attending and soon coming spinoff science fiction, presented as science fact narratives?

Some have wondered if the great deception might be a fake alien invasion. While this is possible, it would be impossible if we suddenly abandoned the “globular” worldview and once again returned to Biblical cosmology and the Creator Elohim, who revealed it to us.

I have listened to all the debates regarding the possible upcoming universal deception clearly reserved for the end times. Not one of them could happen without the solar system as currently theorized by modern astronomy.

Strangely, all these end times speculations fizzle without the globe model.

Will they fizzle?

Clearly not!

Not until the Lord returns.

The globe deception is the foundational storyline upon which all the rest of the end time’s deceptions are completely dependent. It is the stage upon which the actors and actresses, both men and angels of iniquity and their attendant armies of demons, must act out their final performances.

You cannot name one end time conspiracy that is not directly or tangentially related to the big lie that Satan has spun regarding the two big “joined at the hip” lies that must be in place for the show to begin.

The two fictional backdrops for the big drama that is waiting in the wings are evolution with its billions of years and modern astronomy with its trillions of light years.

I can guarantee you that the globe, heliocentric spinning Earth deception, will not be overturned until it has served its purpose under Heaven.

THE BIG SPIN

I can also guarantee you that it will be ultimately overturned by the Creator Himself.

Why does God allow this charade to continue?

Why??

Haven't you figured it out yet, Christian?

Don't you understand that we are all being tested!

So why bother writing a book exploring Biblical cosmology if the results are guaranteed to be a big flying flop?

The answer is simple. This book is a plea for Christians to come out of the great global deception, as it is only meant to entrap you in its deadly delusion.

This book is written for those that God has marked as His remnant people who will see the lie exposed and repent of it before the world is forced to do so.

Those that reject the world's deceptive fiction will not stand with those soon to be branded as traitors and liars.

While the world will continue to be deceived, there is no reason for Christians to be ensnared in the great deception. Christians need to stop believing, supporting, and in some cases, promoting, the great spinning globe deception.

The libraries are full of "Christian" eschatology solely based on the Copernicus sun centered model promoted by NASA and modern astronomy. These books are just continuing the fiction and dishonoring the very Scriptures they believe they are elucidating for other Christian believers.

Many Christians who consider themselves quite the scientists and theorists have employed websites to try and debunk the idea that the Bible supports the immovable non-spinning Earth.

THE BIG SPIN

They litter their websites with “muddy math.”

They confuse unsuspecting Christians with even more deceptive “Biblical word studies” aimed at turning everything upside down. Lies, which if believed, would completely undermine your confidence in the Scriptures. According to these modern day dissemblers, everything the Scriptures report regarding an Earth at rest are idioms, mistranslations, and misunderstandings.

They would have us believe that the millions of Christians and Jews over thousands of years misunderstood the Scriptures. How silly of them to believe that the Earth did not move or spin. According to these experts, anyone that holds to the non-spinning Earth reality are fringe.

I have spent a good deal of my time looking at the proofs of a non-spinning Earth according to the Scriptures. My only goal was to find out what the Scriptures describe. This book is the product of that investigative enterprise.

In addition, I have found literally hundreds of “scientific” proofs of a non-spinning Earth. I am also well aware that each one of these proofs ends up being assaulted with some theory that proposes to debunk it.

The majority of these de-bunking's are easily debunked themselves.

I could easily offer 100 proofs of a non-spinning Earth and it would be countered by 101 proofs of a spinning Earth around the sun. As I prayed for a pathway out of this confusing mess, I stumbled on one proof that was both relatively simple to understand and unassailable.

In other words, I discovered that God had actually provided for us an indisputable proof that no one with a functioning brain can dispute. It is a proof that has been largely, but not completely, overlooked. A diamond in the rough.

This proof will be explored in chapter's 17-20. This proof will convince any thinking person that the spinning globe around the sun theory is a fabrication and clearly wrong.

I will accomplish this with a simple old fashioned demonstration and common sense. So keep reading and you will be rewarded with an "ah ha" moment as you read chapters 17-20—if you have not already skipped ahead and done so already.

I hope to stop Christians from saying, "We all know the Earth revolves around the sun."

No we don't. I don't know it and thousands of Christians who take their Bible literally do not know it.

You can be assured that with or without "my proof", the globe spinning system will crumble and die. Those that taught and promoted the "great solar scam" will fall on their faces stunned into quivering silence by the King of Heaven, the Creator of the real Earth and the real Heavens.

Those that have maligned God's Creation and defied the purpose of its design, will melt into the ground like snowflakes in July.

Those that followed the Prince of Darkness like lemmings, will find their cliff waiting for them immediately up ahead. There they will go skipping over the ledge to be dashed into pieces by the unchanging foundations of truth that have always been just below their feet.

There is a terrible end that awaits all those that defy or distort God's revelation.

To be clear, I am not saying that all the present-day Christians who have believed the lie will perish. Fortunately for them, their salvation is based on a sincere confession of faith in the atoning work of the Son of God. If they have confessed with their mouth and believed in their hearts that Jesus is Lord, they will be saved without any other qualifiers.

That is not to say they will not be ashamed that they doubted their Creator.

This book is written in order that Christians return to Biblical cosmology and flee from the world— view promoted by the God-haters. It is also written for those Christians that need to repent of their attempts to reinterpret Scriptures to fit the latest boundaries of modern astronomy.

Biblical Proofs of Non-Spinning Earth at Rest

Let's take a look at what the Bible says about the Earth.
To be clear at this point, we are looking for Biblical proofs that the Earth is not a spinning ball.

CHAPTER 8

CHRISTIAN HELIOCENTRICITY?

At this juncture in the book I would like to take a look at what the “Christian” skeptics of a geocentric immovable Earth have to say. I am not going to reveal their names or web addresses, as the purpose of this expose is not to start an argument with anyone in particular, but rather to offer comments that generally reflect where many, if not most Christians, now find themselves oriented when it comes to the Biblical geocentric versus world’s heliocentric cosmology.

One Website devoted to “debunking” geocentric, non-spinning Earth, makes the claim that the Bible taught the global, heliocentric, spinning Earth model thousands of years before Copernicus. You can read these comments and the summary of responses that can be found on any forum or blog where the question of Biblical cosmology is discussed. (Read below)

Anonymous

In conclusion, both atheists and geocentrists have false beliefs that the Holy Bible teaches that the Earth stands still and does not orbit the sun. When the meaning of the Hebrew verses are known, it becomes obvious that the Bible taught us thousands of years before Copernicus, Galileo, Max Planck and other scientists "discovered" that the Earth rotates and orbits the sun. The Holy Bible teaches us that the Earth is not flat, and its rotation was taught before Copernicus, Galileo and Max Planck.

Hebrew meaning of "circle" is scriptural proof that the Earth travels in a circuit (around the sun). That is scriptural proof that the Earth moves. Isaiah 40:22

Anonymous

These are misconceptions of Biblical verses or idioms. Both the Old and New Testaments are rich in idioms. Isaiah 66:1 and Acts 7:49 are used as proofs that the Bible says the Earth does not move.

Anonymous

Even in this day of science and technology, nearly ALL of us speak of the sun as rising and setting, even though we KNOW that it is the Earth rotating, not the sun. If it is such an idiom now, should we expect it to be different in the Word? The Word is God's communication to us, in a method we can comprehend, to a degree.

Anonymous

Flat Earth is the biggest conspiracy of all.

Sometimes we are guilty of reading more into the Word than what is there. And even more often, we get so caught up in such foolishness that

Anonymous

"It is he that sits on the circle of the Earth." The we cannot see what it's really trying to tell us.

Anonymous

The Bible can only be correctly understood one way.

The Bible verse that talks about, from the rising of the sun unto the going down, thereof, is not meant to be a lesson in solar physics as it is meant to be just a figure of speech.

The sun standing still or going back along it's course, are obviously references to a subjective point of view, rather than an objective reality.

The above selections of comments are tame and respectful compared to the hundreds of comments I have read on blog sites and viewer comments on video sites aimed at those who dare promote a geocentric worldview.

Here is a summary of the type of attacks and criticism you will receive if you challenge the current global, spinning Earth theory.

Those that disagree, based on posted comments, are clearly in the minority and often abused mercilessly for their “antiquated” and “non progressive” beliefs.

Summary of Criticism Aimed at Geocentrists

- 1 You're a fringe Christian with no grasp of science of technology.
- 2 You have misinterpreted the Bible and are not smart enough to understand the difference between a metaphor, idiom, or simile and a statement of reality.
- 3 You are out of sync with everyone who knows that the Earth rotates around the sun.

4 All verses in the Bible that refer to a flat, immovable Earth are either idioms or meant to communicate something other than the fact that the Earth is actually immovable.

5 Flat Earther's are guilty of a "false belief" and find themselves in the company of atheists.

6 We live in the day of science and technology and the Bible is about neither.

7 The Bible taught heliocentric cosmology thousands of years before Copernicus.

8 Geocentrist are caught up in foolishness and are blind to the truth.

9 The Bible should be given credit for the heliocentric solar system model, as it was clearly taught before Copernicus, Galileo, Max Planck (and the rest of the scientists) "discovered" that the Earth rotates and orbits the sun.

10 The Scriptures are not meant to be strictly accurate scientifically but rather are simply telling a story in a way that man can understand it. So when the Bible talks about the sun standing still or going backwards, it is not meant to be taken literally but only as an Earth-based perspective. This is so obvious that anyone should be able to figure it out.

Did the Bible have it right all the time and we were just too unsophisticated and unscientific to understand it? Have the Scriptures always taught a heliocentric cosmology and we just didn't realize it?

THE BIG SPIN

There are those that believe that if you torture the Scriptures long enough they will confess to anything.

The idea put forth that the Scriptures support the current astronomical model are a complete fabrication and fiction that has been debunked by those who read the Scriptures as plain and literal.

This is supported by respected Semitic language experts who, despite their own heliocentric views, are at least honest enough to report that the Scriptures report a cosmology that is a trillion light years away from the current theories put forth by NASA and modern astronomy.

You are free to believe that the world wobbles and spins around the sun.

You are not at liberty to ascribe this theory to the Bible.

Believe what you will, but do not presume to change the force and clear literal meaning of God's Word.

I do not want to spend a lot of time debunking the Christians who have abandoned the plain, literal meaning of Scripture and then reinterpreted the Scriptures to fit their modern astronomical beliefs. I would simply ask them to consider two of the myriad of arguments that should stop them in their tracks and warn them against tampering with the Word of God.

The first argument is the argument of history. Anyone that tells you that the ancients, be they Jews or Christians, had a cosmology that agreed with Copernicus is simply, completely ignorant of the historical record or lying.

It is only recently that the majority of Christians have bowed the knee to the fiction currently presented as settled fact by modern astronomy. This current majority represents a tiny remnant of the untold millions of Christians and Jews who took the Bible at its plain sense meaning and believed in an Earth at rest, with the sun moon and stars moving above their heads in the Heavens.

The second argument emerges from a common sense reading of the Scriptures.

Read the first chapter of the book of Genesis and explain to me how the following could possibly work:

The sun, according to Genesis, was created on day four. The purpose of the sun was to provide light by day and the attending heat that warms the Earth.

The Earth was in place with a firmament before the sun, moon, and stars were created.

I would like someone to explain to me how a sun, that is supposed to be 400 times the size of Earth, is going to fit into the firmament dome, or vault, that God placed around the Earth in order to separate the waters below from the waters above. A “firm”...ament that has a form God describes as “resembling a footstool or tent.”

Believe it or don't believe it, but don't try and change what God both said and meant.

You cannot stuff one full size elephant into a 12 oz. tin can.

Stuffing a sun that is 400 times the size of Earth, into a space created by God that has its boundaries in the four corners of the earth, would make putting an elephant in a tin can seem like child's play.

The answer, of course, is that trying to reconcile modern astronomy with the model described by God in Genesis 1, simply won't work. Since “we all know that the Earth revolves around the giant distant sun”, then we Christians need to tear the first page out of the Bible and every other page that does not agree with modern science.

Practically and intellectually, that is exactly what most Christians have done.

THE BIG SPIN

In some Christians' minds, the Bible remains in tact only as an ancient artifact of a bygone age, before science figured it all out for us.

To make matters even worse, there are some who have made careers out of defending the literalness of half the first chapter of Genesis while distancing themselves from the other half of Genesis 1. These folks have labeled the parts of the narrative that they have surrendered to modern astronomy as "non-literal poetic expressions by a God who puts man's understanding of truth ahead of truth itself." To compound the problem, they claim that it simply doesn't matter and we should move on to more important topics.

Don't you understand that when you discount God's account of all of creation, you're accusing Him of a mockery of His own nature, a nature that is always truthful?

At this point I can hear someone asking, "what about the 'rising and setting of the sun', isn't that an example of God explaining something to man that is not scientifically accurate?"

If the Earth spins and revolves around the sun as modern astronomy claims, then God has misled us. I think they call that lying.

If God has lied about the motion of the sun, relative to the earth, then God's explanation becomes "exhibit one" against God in the courtroom of Truth. To be clear, if God represented something that is not scientifically accurate, then we have believed a lie.

Have I painted myself in a corner?

Am I demanding too much of our Creator and misunderstanding His good intentions?

Have I missed the point of God's revelation?

Am I applying a standard to the understanding of God's Word that is out of bounds?

ABSOLUTELY NOT!

The only thing in this life I can depend on is God.

Listen to others for very long and you will soon hear lies and deceit.

Listen to your own heart and you will discover that it is exactly what God says it is, desperately wicked.

Listen to the scientific elite and all your hopes will be swallowed up in the chaos, confusion and deliberate dissembling, that is their stock and trade.

Listen to anyone besides God the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit and you are doomed. Rely on any word but His Word and you will become someone to be pitied.

I am taking God at His Word. He says He never lies and I have absolutely no evidence that this is not the most truthful and dependable statement ever made.

Well, you might say, "God may not lie, but can't we allow Him to fudge the truth a little bit in order to enlighten us?"

NO!

My God is simply incapable of lying or misleading.

Fortunately for us, God cannot lie, or dissemble, or mislead His Children. He always leads His children into truth. He never leads us into half-truths and error.

It is one thing to make reference to a rising and setting sun based on man's perspective and viewpoint. It is quite another thing to make reference to a rising and setting sun and explain the phenomenon to man in a way that leads man to believe a lie.

Perspective is a legitimate pursuit of science.

Explaining and understanding perspective is not only legitimate—it is necessary—if we are going to understand the world we live in.

THE BIG SPIN

So let me ask you a question:

When God talks about the appearance, or rising of the sun, and the disappearance of the setting of the sun, isn't He talking about science?

Who created the eye with its limitations?

We see things disappear out of sight based on the human eyes limited scope of the horizon.

Why don't you spend a trillion dollars exploring that scientific phenomena before you vainly imagine that you're living on a globe, and the disappearing sun is a result of a phenomena that the Bible never makes mention of. And what is that phenomenon?

Curvature!

It is man that has made the tragic disconnect between what God describes as reality and what man now believes, based on the programming of modern astronomy.

To assume that the “rising and setting”, or appearance and disappearance of the sun, somehow disqualifies God as a reliable source is absurd.

The same God that made the human eye and created the “science” of perspective is the same God that put the sun in motion circling over the Earth.

God has described both realities with perfect clarity. Do you really think the ancients were so provincial and unobservant that they did not understand that the appearance and disappearance of the sun was based on their location and perspective?

I would like to remind the reader that the DNA of man has been corrupted with each succeeding generation.

The IQ of man has not increased over time, it has been diminished. The men and women that preceded us were, by the design of the Creator, more brilliant than any of us can imagine. It is only the modern technology of the past 100 years that has deluded us into thinking we are the sharpest pencils in the box.

And where did all these whiz-bang technologies come from?

That is a question you should be asking yourself. The answer may provide a context for this final and terminal generation that would be well worth your consideration—but that is another book.

If you proclaim that the sun is not in motion over the Earth, are you calling God a liar?

If you think that God has given you a wink and a nod to make that leap based on the fact that you cannot understand the science of perspective or planetary motion, then that is your error, not God’s.

Instead of assuming the worst about God, shouldn’t we think the best?

THE BIG SPIN

Is it not reasonable to imagine that God has allowed for at least two possible lines of inquiry when it comes to the question of the sun's rising and setting?

One line of reasoning would lead us into the science of perspective, and the other into the understanding of the circular motion of the path of the sun, moon, and stars as they circuit over an Earth at rest?

In other words, there is no deception in describing the appearance and disappearance of the sun from the perspective of man as it travels over the Earth, as long as the sun travels over the Earth.

It is a deception to describe a sun traveling East to West over Earth, when actually the sun is not moving, and anything you're seeing can now be described as an optical illusion.

Notice the word "illusion".

God is not into slight of hand or illusions which create confusion for His children. God may judge those that hate and dishonor Him with a blindness that allows them only to see the world as Satan wants it viewed, but this is not the same as making a false representation in the name of simplicity.

Finally, I would like you to notice a few verses that make the case as clearly as it can be made from a Biblical perspective.

AMOS 8:9

And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

JOB 9:7

Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

JOSHUA 10:12-14

Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies.

Is not this written in the book of Jasher?

So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day.

And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

What I want you to notice is that God says HE caused the moving sun to stop moving. Not the Earth, but the sun!

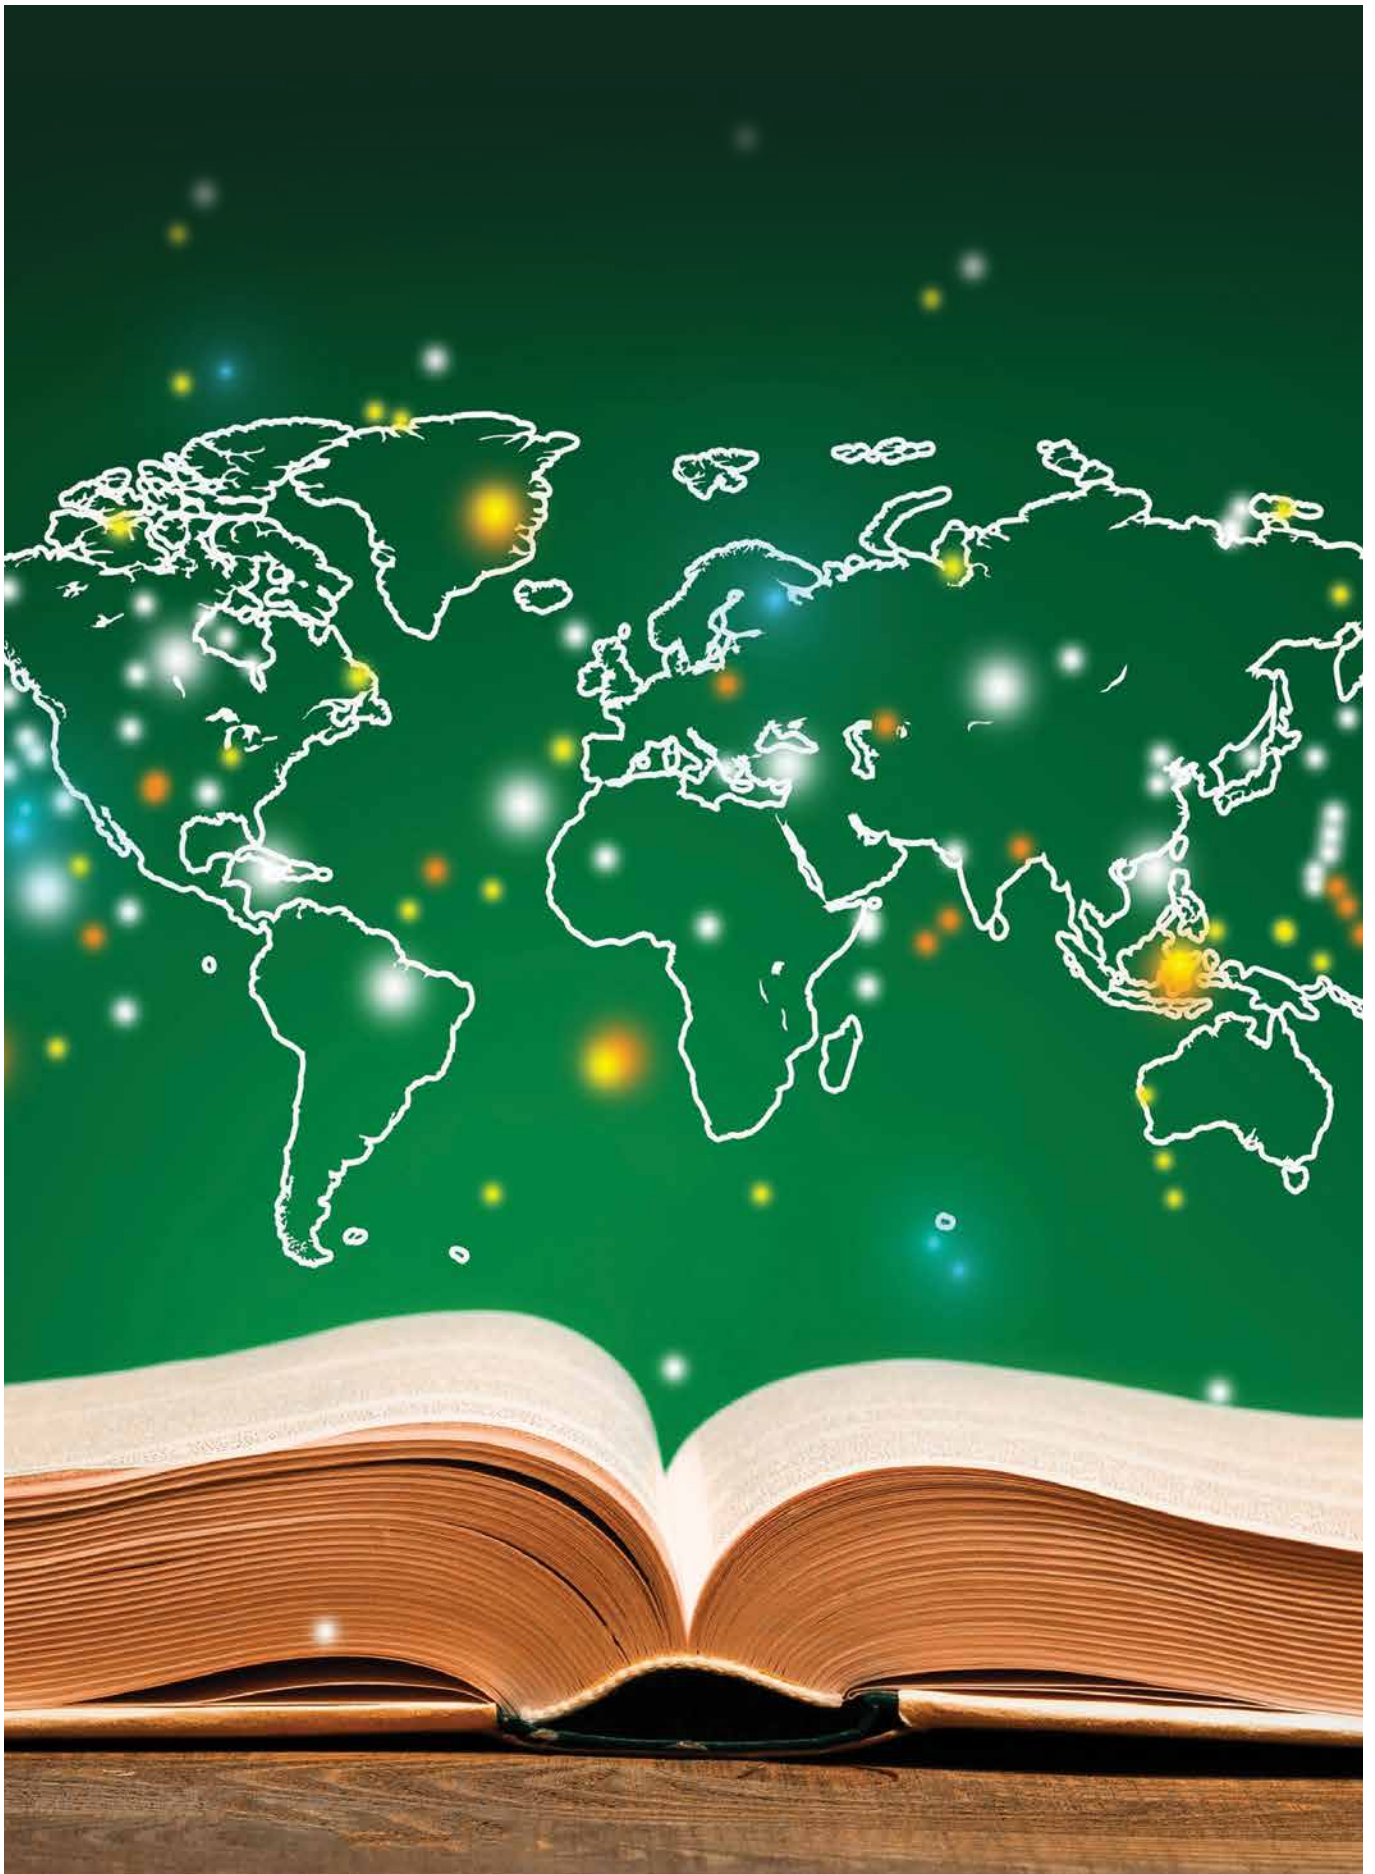

God reveals lots of things to man that seem to conflict with man's understanding.

True science is always catching up with the revelation of God while false science is always trying to portray God as a liar.

God cannot lie, but Satan lies from the beginning.

So who are you going to believe?

CHAPTER 9

THE EARTH AND THE WORLD

There has been an attempt in the past 100 years, that has accelerated in the past 50 years, to re-orient the Scriptures to line up with the current cosmological model put forth by modern science and astronomy.

Almost all non-Christians—and the majority of Christians—now accept this modern heliocentric theory as absolute truth.

There are three words that we need to clearly define. This is an important first step that needs to be taken in order to understand the stark difference between the modern heliocentric theory and Biblical cosmology.

Obviously we are concerned with the Earth's physical relationship to the sun. The Scriptures use two words to describe the habitat we call home.

The first word we need to consider is the Hebrew word “erets”, translated into English as EARTH.

The second word we need to understand from a Biblical vantage point is the world translated into English as WORLD.

The third word we need to understand is the Biblical definition and meaning of the word we translate into English as SUN.

Let's begin:

WORLD

Let's begin by looking at the world's dictionary definition of itself.

The dictionary defines the word world as the Earth or globe, considered as a planet.

The word WORLD may also refer to a particular division of the Earth: for example, the Western world.

The WORLD may also refer to the Earth or a part of it, with its inhabitants, affairs, etc., during a particular period: for example, the ancient world.

Since there are so many verses that link the term world with a cosmology that is completely inconsistent with modern astronomy, some “Christian” apologists have come up with a solution they imagine will assist God with the task of “getting up to speed” with modern astronomy.

In order to accomplish this, they must decouple the Scriptures from any hint of the “outdated and antiquated” geocentric worldview. This requires some crafty word smithing, linguistic slight of hand, and a lot of ignorant dissembling.

Among the casualties of this enterprise is the Biblical meaning of the word we translate into English as world. They have redefined the Hebrew word, translated World, so that it loses its force and meaning. By this effort, they imagine that this brings them into harmonious conformity to the current theoretical system of modern astronomy.

There is no warrant for torturing the word translated into English as world, in order to narrow its meaning. This deliberate word crafting is the antithesis of the Scriptural revelation at so many levels that it becomes a clear obstruction to the amplification of truth, and so it must be torn down.

Anyone that understands Hebrew, or has read the Scriptures, will not be misled by this uninformed assault on the language of Scripture.

Unfortunately, we live in a world where research is abandoned in favor of a party spirit that seeks alliance with the world’s opinion, instead of an unfaltering allegiance to God’s truth.

Obviously, there are times when the word world is used to describe the inhabitants of the Earth. The Apostle Paul provides a good example in the following verse:

1 CORINTHIANS 3:19

For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

You can also see by reading the words of both Jesus and King David that the word world is not limited to the inhabitation of the world but has a broader meaning that includes both the inhabitants and the place of habitation.

JOHN 11:9

Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

PSALM 24:1

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

PSALM 98:7

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

The Hebrew word tebel (Tav Beyt Lamed) is most often translated into English as world—but not always.

THE BIG SPIN

For example, in Jeremiah 25:26 the Hebrew word e-artz, which is almost always translated as Earth, is translated as world in many English versions of the Bible, including the KJV.

In the same verse in Jeremiah 25:26, the word e-adme (Adam or red earth) is translated into English as Earth, instead of the usual Hebrew word erets.

Let's begin by looking at the Hebrew word tebel which is translated into English as world.

What is the underlying embedded meaning of this Hebrew word?

How does God want us to understand the meaning of the word world?

WORLD HABITAT

Lamed

12

Beyt

2

Tav

400

(Hebrew is right to left)

THBL TEBEL

THE BIG SPIN

ת

Tav
To Seal – To Covenant –
A Sign – Crossed Wooden Sticks Cross

ב

Beyt
House – Son
Family – Dwelling Place – Inside – Within – 1st Letter in the Torah that Identifies The Son of God
House/Tent

ל

Lamed
Control – To Shepherd
To Have Authority –
To Urge Forward
The Tongue –
The Voice of Authority
Staff

The literal meaning of the Hebrew word tebel, translated into English as world, is a combination of habitat and inhabit. Obviously, God has created a place that He has ordained to be inhabited.

World is pictured as a dwelling place that is a TENT, not a ball.

The first letter in the Hebrew word translated WORLD is tav.

Tav is pictured as crossed sticks. It depicts both a sign and a covenant.

What is a covenant?

It is an agreement between two or more people.

So we must ask, “Who did God the Father make a covenant with at the time the WORLD was created, in order to be inhabited?”

The covenant was between the Father and the Son.

The Father covenanted to give the Son a people—a people whose redemption would be accomplished by God the Son. This was such a delight to the Son that in spite of the great cost to Himself, He considered it a Joy.

HEBREWS 12:2

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The last letter in the word for world is the Hebrew letter lamed.

And what is the picture that is embedded in the letter lamed?

The answer is a Shepherd's staff.

Could this be the emblem of the Great Shepherd of the sheep, the one who speaks with authority, the only voice that the sheep will follow?

What do we have in the middle of this picture of the word WORLD?

What is pictured in the center between the covenant, represented by the sacrifice of the Cross, and the Shepherd's staff?

What is between the picture that represents the voice of authority and the promise of redemption?

So then, what is it that we find right in the center of this pictographic revelation of the WORLD?

WORLD HABITAT

Lamed

BEYT

Tav

Is it a BALL?
 How foolish would that be?
 Of course not.

It is Beyt

A house or a tent

A ball is not a place of refuge and safety, nor is it a place that is staked out and unmoving.

Is a ball the picture of a place with a protective roof or dome?

Absolutely Not!

The picture of the world in Hebrew is the picture that has its central point of drama centered around a tent or house, which is either staked out or built on the firm foundation on solid level ground.

And what is the picture God consistently uses to describe the Earth?

It is a tent, house, or a footstool.

The picture of the house and tent are from man's point of view, and the footstool is from God's vantage point. Both pictures are consistent with each other in architectural design and dimensions.

This is the picture that God consistently gives us of the world or Earth throughout the Scriptures.

The same Christian teachers who have also become apologists for the "solar system", would have us believe that whenever the Scriptures use the Hebrew word erets, translated into English as Earth, it is referring to the dirt alone.

This is clearly false.

Consider the following verse where the Scriptures use the word world and Earth interchangeably. Trying to limit the definition of Earth as a term that is always referring to real estate, while the word world is always referring to the inhabitation of Earth, requires a reading and twisting of Scriptures that is both unnatural and confusing.

We simply need to let the Scriptures say what they say and not limit or force the clear meaning into the latest fashion of science. The Bible does not need to be defended by those that think they need to reinterpret God's revelation in order that it become acceptable to the world.

ROMANS 10:18

But I say, have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

2 SAMUEL 22:16

And the channels of the sea appeared; the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

Now lets look at the Hebrew word erets that is translated in English as Earth.

Conventional
EARTH

EARTH ERETS	א	ר	ע	(Hebrew is right to left)
	Tsade 90	Reysh 200	Alef 1

MODERN ASTRONOMY'S DEFINITION OF EARTH

The word “Earth” is defined by modern astronomy as the planet third in order from the sun, having an equatorial diameter of 7926 miles (12,755 km) and a polar diameter of 7900 miles (12,714 km). We are told that the Earth has a circumference of 24,900 miles and a mean distance from the sun of 92.9 million miles (149.6 million km). We are told that the Earth rotates once every 24 hours as it orbits around the sun every 365.26 days. We are told that the Earth has one orbiting satellite called the moon.

BIBLICAL COSMOLOGICAL DEFINITION OF EARTH

Biblical cosmology describes an Earth at rest, not moving or spinning. It is a place covered by a firmament (dome or vault) in which God placed the sun, moon, and stars. These lights have been placed by God inside the firmament where they move around an Earth that is at rest.

The author of this work does not subscribe to the theory held by modern astronomy, choosing rather to believe God’s revelation.

FIRST USE OF HEBREW WORD TRANSLATED EARTH—IN THE ENGLISH SCRIPTURES

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

GENESIS 1:1

PICTORIAL EARTH

Tsade

Reysh

Alef

E.ARTZ — ERETS

Pictorial Meaning of The Earth

ה

Hey
 Pay Attention to what Follows – To Reveal
 To Unfold – To Look Upon
 Holy Spirit as the Revelator

Behold The

א

Alef
 Strong Leader – Strength – Leading
 The First – Aloof or Separate – Gentle
 The Beginning
 The Head of the Family

God the Father

ר

Reysh
 A Person – The Head – The Highest
 The Sum – The Supreme – The First
 The Most Important – The Top – Master Leader – Head

And The Prince of Heaven

ז

Tsade
 To Catch – To be Caught – A Harvest
 To Pull Forward – Unable to Escape – Trouble
 To Strongly Desire – Just or Righteous
 To Need – Fishhook

And Strongly Desire Him!

EARTH

Tsade
90

Reysh
200

Alef
1

E.ARTZ — ERETS

Numeric Meaning of the Earth

1 א Alef

Deity – Unity – Sufficiency – Independence

The First – Indivisible

God the Father

200 ר Reysh

Inadequate – The Insufficiency of Man

Sufficiency of God

90 צ Tsade

Signifies the Conclusion of a Matter that will be Followed by Judgment – Same Meaning as the Number 9, Magnified by the Multiplier 10 – Combination of Ordinal Perfection and

Judgment at the Conclusion of a Series

Numeric Translation of the Earth

Theological and Prophetic

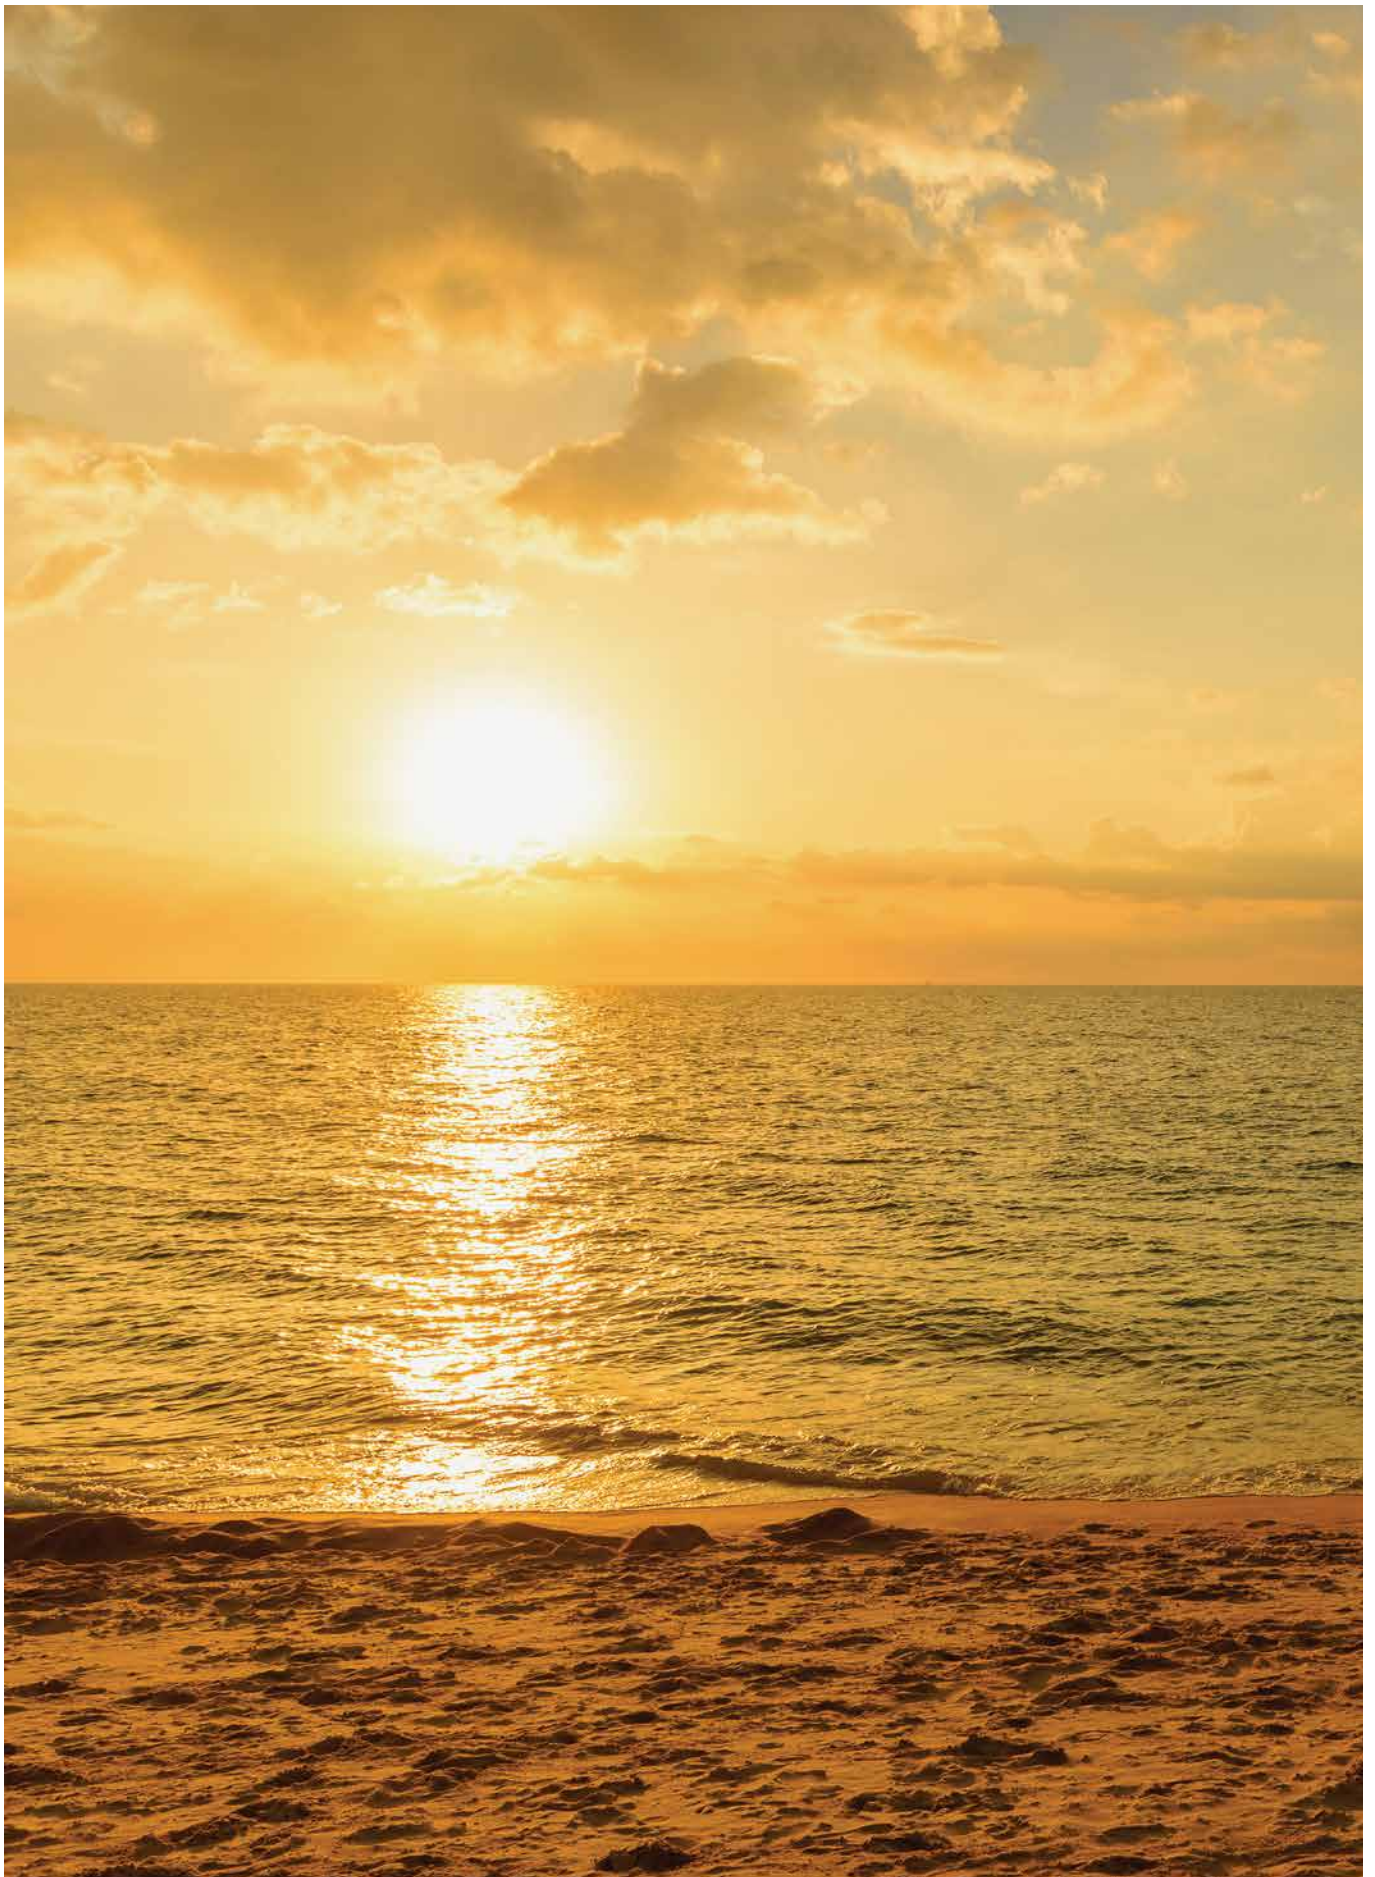

It is meant for Man to understand that he has been placed on this Earth to discover his insufficiency. The purpose behind this discovery is that he might seek with all his heart, and desire above everything else on Earth, the Son of God, his Savior.

Clearly, the meaning and purpose of Earth has a meaning and significance that goes well beyond the narrow definition as DIRT.

Having made that clear, we are not saying that the conventional meaning of Earth does not include the terrestrial plane on which we exist.

Obviously, we are attempting to broaden the understanding of this word in order that it not be used as an obstacle. Our desire is to fully understand the revelation of Scripture.

CHAPTER 10

THE SUN

The Hebrew pictograph of the sun as revealed in the three Hebrew letters that we translate into English as sun are very instructive. Please consider the following:

SUN

Sheen	Mem	Sheen
300	40	300

SHMS - SHEMESH

Sheen

To Consume – To Destroy
Sharp – To press – The One
Letter that God
Used to Identify Himself
God’s Signature
Letter that Stands for God
Almighty
Teeth

Mem

Liquid
Mighty Waters Like the Ocean
Massive as the Waves of the Sea Chaotic and Destructive Like a Tsunami – Water Coming Down like a Stream – Rain Water that makes the Desert Bloom
The Word of God that brings Life
Living Water – Waters

Sheen

To Consume – To Destroy
Sharp – To press – The One
Letter that God
Used to Identify Himself
God’s Signature
Letter that Stands for God
Almighty
Teeth

Pictorial Meaning of the Hebrew Word Shemesh Translated SUN in our English Version of the Scriptures.

The meaning that jumps out is found in the pictures that undergird the Hebrew word shemesh. These pictures are meant to communicate two obvious elements.

The first is the picture of chaos and destruction. The second is a picture of liquid.

The letter mem is pictured as WATER, but that does not always mean H₂O. For example, the Hebrew word for blood (dam) is made up of the two letters dalet and mem. The picture meaning of blood is clear. Blood is the liquid that is in the pathway (arteries).

The Hebrew word for sun is not meant to make us think of water but of liquid.

Sheen is pictured as teeth and can have the meaning of destruction and chaos.

Picture a molten, chaotic churning sea of liquid and what do you have?

The answer is the SUN.

The Numeric meaning of the Hebrew word translated sun in English is also very clear. Let's take a look.

Tsade
300

Reysh
40

Alef
300

SHMS - SHEMESH

Numeric Meaning of the Sun

300 Sheen

A Divinely Appointed Period of Time - Election Number Connected to the “Children of Promise” - Supernatural Victory Over Enemies, Including Death - Number Connected with the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of Messiah - Signifies Final Blood Sacrifice Made by the Perfect Lamb of God.

40 Mem

Trials - Probation - Chastisement but not Judgment - Grace Resulting in Revival & Renewal - An Extended Period of Rule or Dominion - Grace multiplied by Renewal (5 x 8)
Probationary Period that Results in Renewal

300 Sheen

A Divinely Appointed Period of Time - Election Number Connected to the “Children of Promise” - Supernatural Victory Over Enemies, Including Death - Number Connected with the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of Messiah - Signifies Final Blood Sacrifice Made by the Perfect Lamb of God.

The Sum Number of the Sun

640

The clearest and most obvious meaning of the numeric of the Hebrew numbers sheen mem sheen, reveals itself in the number 6 and the number 4.

Six is the number of man and his world.

Four is the number of Creation.

Multiply the number 6 X 4 and what do you get?

One complete 24 cycle of day and night!

Are you confused about how many hours are in a day?

The Lord himself made it clear.

JOHN 11:9

Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

The sun's number 300 is also meant to be a time and season keeper. This is to remind us that there is an appointed time for man.

The number 40 informs us that we are being tested and have a limited allotted time of probation here on Earth.

The numbers God assigned to the sun remind us that we have failed the test and only deserve judgement. Do not despair!

God in His Grace has made a way for us to be revived and renewed. And what is that WAY?

The answer is found in the number 300. The number that is connected with victory over death because of the death, burial, and resurrection of the Son of God.

Is there a more awesome display of God's creative handiwork between the firmaments than the sun?

The answer is YES!

The sun, moon, and stars are an awesome display of God's majesty. Although, it does not even come close to displaying the marvelous grace of God, exhibited under the firmament on a mountain God Himself formed, in order to lift up His only begotten Son on the Cross of Calvary.

THE BIG SPIN

The sun follows a path ordained by God that is over our heads, in order to provide us with light and heat. Without it we would perish on the Earth.

The Son of God followed a path ordained by God that put Him “above our heads” on a cruel Roman cross where He paid for the penalty of sin and rebellion, in order to give us eternal life.

The sun was created by God on the fourth day of creation.

The importance of the sun is limited to a period of time under the firmament.

The sun did not create us, and was not even present in the heavens during the first three days of creation. God Himself lit up the Earth and scribed the circumference of the Earth in order to create His design for light and darkness—day and night.

The sun is not a god, it is a light created by God so that we might see His creative works and glorify Him alone as our Creator.

The worship of the sun is the oldest religious pagan mythos on Earth and it is alive and well to this day.

Sun worship has been dressed up in new robes and passed off as “science”. Sun science has its own high priests called “modern astronomers” who are in charge of making sure we understand that we are inconsequential compared to the majesty of our solar system and the great cosmos beyond.

The Earth is a speck of dust compared to the almighty sun and less than a speck compared to the millions of galaxies that give constant testimony to our insignificance.

THE BIG SPIN

God's revelation and the revelation of modern science and astronomy are not compatible with each other. To try and mesh them together may be seen as a wonderful accommodation that allows Christians to retain the remnants of truth while getting along and agreeing with the world's latest fashionable theory.

The question that needs to be asked is this: How does God view this amalgamation of errors?

Can you say TREASON?

The sun was not present on the first day of creation! The sun will not be present in the new Heavens and Earth that God will create at the appointed time.

REVELATION 22:5

And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 11

THE FACE OF THE EARTH

There is one more word we will look at carefully. The word is FACE. The Scriptures literally disclose the “face of the Earth” in hundreds of verses. It is probably the most common descriptive term connected with the Earth.

The Hebrew word for face is paneh (pey noon yood).

The first letter gives us all we really need to understand its meaning.

The letter pey orients the reader to understand that the face is referring to the surface of your face—clearly identifiable as its most prominent feature is your mouth. In other words, pey is the picture of an open mouth.

The literal Hebrew meaning of the word face is SURFACE.

So every time you read the phrase “face of the Earth”, you’re meant to understand that what is in view is a surface of the Earth.

The two dictionary definitions that are the most compelling are as follows:

The outer face, outside, or exterior boundary of a thing; outermost or uppermost layer or area.

The face of a body or thing as in the six surfaces of a cube.

A face is the extent or area of outer face; superficial area.

In order to leave us in no doubt as to what the translators understood every time they translated the Hebrew word paneh—which literally means surface—consider the following dictionary definition:

Surface in Geometry is any figure having only two dimensions; part or all of the boundary of a solid.

Could it be any clearer?

GENESIS 1:29

And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

GENESIS 8:9

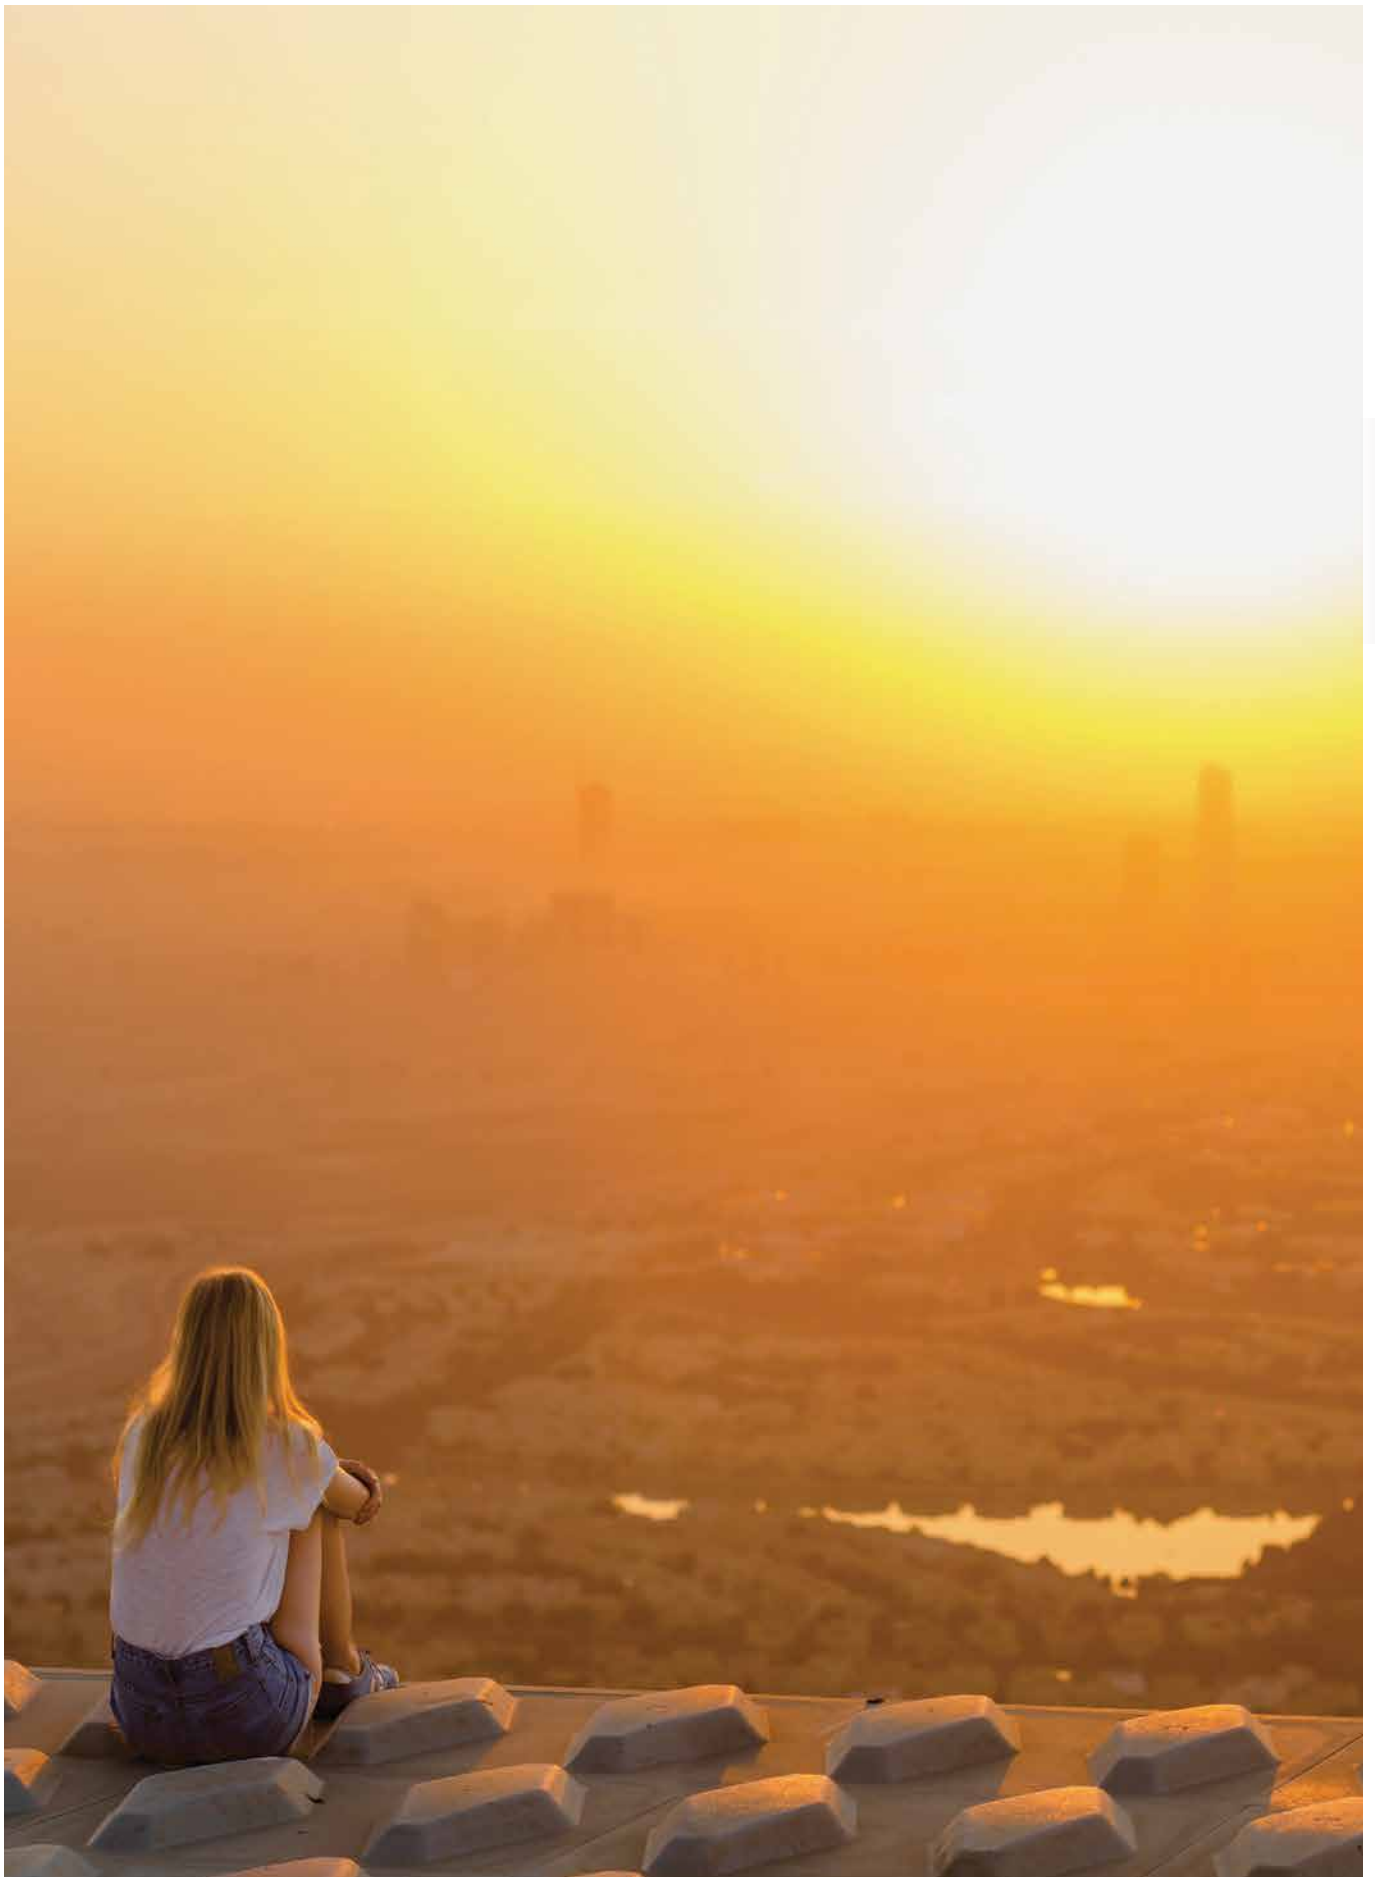

But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

DEUTERONOMY 7:6

For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

ISAIAH 23:17

And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 12

THE EARTH AND THE SUN

2 PETER 3:5

For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the EARTH standing out of the water and in the water:

The Bible is unique among all books and deserves a reverence and respect not due any other book on EARTH. At the same time, the Bible needs to be read like you would read any other book.

The Bible is written in order to disclose truth to mankind. Some of those communications take the form of historical accounts, and some of the Scriptures are clearly poetic. Sometimes the Scriptures employ metaphors and allegories, and at other times the Scriptures speak to us in parables. No matter the venue for communicating truth, the Scriptures always tell the truth.

To be clear, the Scriptures never use a parable, allegory, metaphor, simile, or any other idiom to promote a false or fraudulent reality.

At this juncture I can just imagine someone saying, “Wait a minute, what about Matthew 5:13?”

MATTHEW 5:13

Ye are the salt of the EARTH: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

This would be a valid argument, except for one thing:

Where are millions of Christians who believe they are literally SALT? I have never met one or even heard of one single Christian who is confused about this verse and what it means.

According to my very unscientific calculation, the Holy Spirit—the editor and chief of all Scriptural revelation—gets an A++ for communicating a truth using a metaphor that has not confused one single person.

This verse actually proves my point—God is the Master Communicator.

What about John 6:51 where Jesus looses many of His disciples because of His revelation that He was the living bread from Heaven?

It is true that this was a hard saying for some—and offended many—who then retreated back to their old lives, rather than continuing to follow Jesus.

The question is about the veracity of Scripture.

Do the Scriptures leave you in any doubt about what Jesus was talking about?

The answer is NO!

Jesus made it clear to His disciples that He was not talking about His physical flesh, He was

JOHN 6:51

I am the living bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the WORLD.

speaking about the spiritual bread from Heaven.

JOHN 6:61-63

When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

The Bible does not teach us that everyone that hears God's word will understand it. In fact, we are promised that it will be hidden from some and revealed to others.

This provides the context and is again proof that God's communications are meant to be clearly understood by His people.

And so I would ask the question, "Is there any evidence at all that the revelation regarding the stationary EARTH and the circulating SUN is intended to communicate something other than what it clearly states?"

Where is the contextual corrective Scripture?

Can you find the Scripture that says all the references to a stationary Earth have another meaning?

Where is the key verse that unlocks the hidden message behind the oft repeated Scriptures regarding the circular path of the SUN?

It is the nature of Satan to use language for the purpose of obfuscating the truth, while God is always straightforward and honest. This simply means that God is not going to use a metaphor or poetic simile that does not advance the truth—even collateral truth.

Some would argue that many of the verses we are using as the “Earth at rest” and “circulating sun” proves that it is actually not about the motion of the Earth but something else completely unrelated.

They would point out that the reference to Earth and sun are tangential and therefore unreliable. They would argue that the “still fixed Earth” or “circulating sun” references are collateral to the topic God is communicating. They would insist that this being the case, they should not be used to advance the “Earth at rest” or “Sun in motion” argument.

Consider the following statement:

“Sally, your beauty is unmatched by the roses I clipped from your garden.”

What is the main point of this sentence? Obviously, it’s about the unmatched beauty of Sally.

If we ask where the roses came from, you could confidently answer that they came from Sally’s garden.

The clipping of the roses may not be the main point of the communication, but it does not mean it is untrue. It may be a truth that survives the passage of time and endures longer than the fading beauty of Sally.

The point is that ALL God’s communications are truthful and designed NOT to mislead or confuse His children.

Over 100 verses communicate the concept of a fixed EARTH and a moving circling SUN.

Knowing this, where are the counter-argument verses in the Bible that reveal a spinning Earth and a sun at rest?

They do not exist!

You cannot find a single one.

THE BIG SPIN

There are a few straw graspers who want to use the verses regarding earthquakes and the shaking of the Earth as an example of a spinning Earth.

Common sense provides the simple answer to that objection.

A table that is set in one place can be shaken by jiggling the legs of the table. That does not make the table a spinning globe that is hurtling through space.

If the truth communicated regarding the fixed Earth is communicated on occasion by the use of a poetic expression, does that mean it is false and should be ignored?

Why is this deemed less dependable than an outright assertion that makes the same claim?

There are those that think they need to assist God in finding a way out of the mess they imagine He has made of science—with his “muddled up metaphors” regarding a non-spinning Earth that actually goes around the sun.

Really?

If you are one of those detractors then you need to STOP!

You need to consider the 100% probability that it is you who are muddled and confused and not God. Instead of spending your energy trying to marry God with modern pseudo science, spend your time repenting of your unbelief, and ask the Lord to graciously lead you into real truth.

How would you describe a ball that is spinning at 1000 miles an hour while it is hurtling through space at 66,000 miles an hour, tottering and wobbling like a top?

You need to ask yourself that question as you read the following six verses (there are many more) in which God describes a World/Earth that is at rest—immovable and fixed in place.

The Bible Reveals an EARTH at Rest

ISAIAH 14:7a • The whole EARTH is at rest, and is quiet:

ZECHARIAH 1:11 • And they answered the angel of the Lord that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the EARTH, and, behold, all the EARTH sitteth still, and is at rest.

1 CHRONICLES 16:30 • Fear before him, all the EARTH: the WORLD also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

PSALM 93:1 • The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the WORLD also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

PSALM 96:10 • Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the WORLD also shall be established that it shall not be moved:

PSALM 104:5 • Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

Now let's consider the Scriptural references to a moving SUN and MOON.

The SUN Circles Above the EARTH

ECCLESIASTES 1:5 • The SUN also ariseth, and the SUN goeth down and hasteth to the place where he arose.

PSALM 19:4 • Their line is gone out through all the EARTH, and their words to the end of the

THE BIG SPIN

WORLD. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the SUN,

HABAKKUK 3:11 • The SUN and MOON stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

ISAIAH 38:8 • Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the SUN dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the SUN returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

PSALM 19:4-6 • Their line is gone out through all the EARTH, and their words to the end of the WORLD. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the SUN, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

GENESIS 1:9-18 • tells us that the SUN, moon, and stars were created after the "foundation of the EARTH" was laid.

GENESIS 15:12a • And when the SUN was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram;

GENESIS 19:23 • The SUN was risen upon the EARTH when Lot entered into Zoar.

EXODUS 17:12 • But Moses hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the SUN.

EXODUS 22:26b • "...the SUN goeth down:"

LEVITICUS 22:7a • And when the SUN is down, he shall be clean, NUMBERS 2:3a • And on the east side toward the rising of the SUN shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies:

DEUTERONOMY 11:30a
• Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the SUN goeth down, JOSHUA 1:4 • From the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the SUN, shall be your coast.

JOSHUA 10:12-14 • Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, SUN , stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. And the SUN stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the SUN stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. And there was no day like that before it or after it that the Lord hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

JUDGES 5:31a • So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but let them that love him be as the SUN when he goeth forth in his might.

II SAMUEL 2:24a • Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the SUN went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah,

I KINGS 22:36a • And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the SUN,

II CHRONICLES 18:34 • And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the SUN going down he died.

JOB 9:7 • Which commandeth the SUN, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

ISAIAH 41:25 • I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the SUN shall he call upon my name:

and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

ISAIAH 60:20 • Thy SUN shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

AMOS 8:9 • And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the SUN to go down at noon, and I will darken the EARTH in the clear day:

JONAH 4:8 • And it came to pass, when the SUN did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the SUN beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

NAHUM 3:17 • Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the SUN ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

MALACHI 1:11a For from the rising of the SUN even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles;

MATTHEW 5:45 • That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his SUN to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

MATTHEW 13:6 • And when the SUN was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

MARK 1:32 • And at even, when the SUN did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

LUKE 4:40 • Now when the SUN was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

EPHESIANS 4:26 • Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the SUN go down upon your wrath:

JAMES 1:11 • For the SUN is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

GENESIS 1:17 • And God set them [sun, moon, and stars] in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the EARTH,

Now this is where an argument regarding Biblical interpretation breaks out. So let's see if we can settle this in a way that is logical, simple, and fair.

First, consider the only real two options—Note: the argument that the Bible teaches a spinning round Earth that circles the sun is not a serious argument since it cannot be demonstrated, except by torturing the text and applying rules of logic and word interpretation that are outside the bounds of reason. There are really only two options:

1 The Bible was never meant to be taken LITERALLY as it reveals a non-spinning Earth. Therefore, if the Earth is indeed spinning as it circles the sun, then the Bible must NOT be taken LITERALLY.

2 The Bible is to be taken LITERALLY and reveals an Earth at rest that is not spinning around the Sun.

The follow up question goes to the heart of the problem.

Why are we looking for a way out of the clearly revealed cosmology of Scripture?

Now that is the question we need to ask.

The answer is simple.

Most Christians don't believe the Bible is true!

There would be no attempt to "correct" the Scriptures regarding the disclosure of the fixed unmoving EARTH and a circulating SUN, if we believed that the EARTH was fixed and the SUN was circling over our heads.

So, mixed in with the "science" question regarding the motion of the so-called planets is the question of how you interpret the Bible.

THE BIG SPIN

Do you interpret it literally or do you consider it all poetry and myth?

Most Christians find themselves somewhere in-between these two goal posts.

So let me ask you a question: If I can prove to you that the Earth is not spinning or moving around the sun, do you think you might consider taking the Bible more literally?

The real test is not the motion of the planet—the real test is how seriously or literally do you take the Scriptures.

But of course, most of you think this is a foolish argument since “we all know the Earth spins as it moves around the sun.”

Right?

NO!!

For you “doubting Thomases” that need to see, touch, and feel this for yourselves, I would again point you to Chapters 17-20.

CHAPTER 13

LIVING IN THE PROGRAM

There is a humorous story that has stuck in my mind for almost 60 years. I was in my early teen years when I first heard this story played on a phonograph machine—what we called a “record player” in the olden days. Seems like yesterday.

The scene opens with a room full of kids “glued to the screen” of a 1960 vintage television set. A technological device that earned the appellation “Boob Tube” and not without warrant, for it was truly a tube invented for the purpose of creating mindless dumb booby birds.

The “program” that the children were watching was a fictional docu-drama that was presented in much the same way that “The War of the Worlds” was broadcast—over the radio in a series presented by The Mercury Theatre on the Air.

These booby birds found on Lord Howe Island, off the northern coast of New South Wales.

THE BIG SPIN

“The War of the Worlds” episode was performed on Halloween, October 30, 1938 and was aired over CBS (Columbia Broadcasting System) radio network.

The story was narrated by the actor, Orson Wells, who was no relation to the famous novelist, H.G. Welles, who wrote The War of the Worlds in 1898.

The broadcast of “The War of the Worlds” over the radio caused an uproar because many claimed that it was irresponsible of the media to present this drama in such a way that it blurred the lines between fictional drama and a reality—based on a news broadcast format.

It was reported that some of the people listening to the broadcast believed they were listening to a true news report of an alien invasion. Sound familiar?

Is this a harbinger of things to come?

Some Christians are warning that this drama may be playing out again in the near future. The unsuspecting public of 1938 that listened to the radio has been replaced by a “fully programmed Star Wars generation” that has been primed to accept “outer-space” fiction as indisputable fact. Even the Catholic Pope is getting us ready for the deception.

And what is the basis, the firm foundation of all this nonsense? It is the heliocentric solar system that produced the big bang that produced evolution.

It all started when we substituted the reality of God’s revealed creation account with the counterfeit we now mindlessly accept as the heliocentric solar system.

The Chicken Heart that ate up New York City

Now back to the room full of small impressionable children glued to the television watching what they believe is an actual news bulletin about “The Chicken Heart that was eating up New York City.”

I am telling the story as I remember it. This may be slightly different than the original that I heard almost 60 years ago.

The Chicken Heart throbbed with an increasingly amplified heartbeat that was designed to put terror into the minds of the children.

Ka-thump, ka-thump—the Chicken Heart devours the Statue of Liberty as it heads toward Manhattan Island.

Ka-thump, ka-thump—the Chicken Heart devours the Brooklyn Bridge and is headed for the Empire State Building.

And ka-thump, ka-thump—when it is done eating the Empire State Building it is coming to eat you!

The children were terrified and began making desperate plans to deal with the invasion of the deadly Chicken Heart that was eating up New York City and would soon be at their front door, ka-thumping and still hungry.

The first thing the children did was lock the front door. The next thing they did was smear Jell-O all over the floor, thinking this would slow the Chicken Heart down. Then they lit the sofa on fire in order to keep the Chicken Heart from eating them.

Then came the THUMP THUMP THUMP on the door.

“It is the Chicken Heart and it is coming to eat us!” yelled one of the children.

From the other side of the door they heard a familiar voice, “I am not the Chicken heart, I am your Dad, NOW OPEN THE DOOR!”

The children quickly opened the door, happy to have an adult ally in their desperate battle against the Chicken Heart.

Dad slipped and fell on the slick floor that had been smeared with Jell-O. “What is the sofa doing on fire?” dad yelled.

“THE CHICKEN HEART, THE CHICKEN HEART is coming to eat us alive!” the children yelled in unison.

“What Chicken Heart?” screamed Dad as he took off his jacket to put out the burning sofa.

“The Chicken Heart on TV!” the kids yelled.

“WELL TURN IT OFF!” yelled dad.

How do You turn this Thing off?

God did not design the human mind to be assaulted daily with a constant barrage of mis-information and corrupt data.

The human mind was designed by God much as He designed the earth, to be at rest. A mind at rest works best when it has a chance to reflect and to contemplate as it considers a matter.

Imagine what might have been if Eve had taken the sly and deceitful words of the serpent spoken to her in the Garden of Eden and put them into the crucible of contemplation, reason and reflection.

What if Eve had told the serpent that she would take the astonishing revelation the serpent was disclosing to her Creator for a second opinion?

Oh what might have been?

THE BIG SPIN

There are many lessons we can take away from the Garden of Eden.

One simple truth stands out among the rest and can be summarized as follows:

Be careful who you listen to!

The simple point is that we should be skeptical of things that come at us fast and furiously. We need to stop and think, to evaluate and consider a matter with a clear mind and in light of the revelation that is settled truth—God’s unchanging Word.

Let’s just consider for a moment the amount of information that screams at us from all directions. We see it on billboards, we read it in magazines and newspapers, we see it in the movies and in video commercials, we hear it on the radio, we see it in the places we shop. We are literally being immersed into a worldview that is diametrically opposed to the Biblical view that Christians claim as their touchstone.

And what is at the substance of much of the data that is flowing our way? It is the ubiquitous, never ceasing GLOBE and the attendant heliocentric theory that follows in its wake. The racing, spinning globe circling the sun is the foundation on which evolution and the big bang theory solidly rest.

Imagine what would happen without the mythological, spinning globe circling the massive sun in our “one among Trillions”, solar system. Instantly we would find peace and rest as a sizable chunk of the incredible data points that are aimed at our hearts and minds would simply cease.

As it now stands, the “programed” messages are literally everywhere. They are even in the invisible manipulated radio waves that bounce off your brain.

Could it be that the hidden purpose of all this “data drama” is to produce a numbing effect that inoculates us from hearing and responding to the real truth? Could it be that the purpose is not only to crowd out the Divine message but also to discredit it completely?

Counterfeit Cosmology

One of the purposes of counterfeiting a nation's currency is to debase and decrease the value of the genuine currency.

Nations at war have long employed the printing presses to do what no bullets could accomplish. Destroy the value and confidence that people have in the one thing they depend upon for all their trade and commerce, and you destroy the nation.

The counterfeit creation account has two purposes.

The first is to devalue the genuine currency of the Scriptures.

Make no mistake, the target of modern astronomy with its fake science is to devalue and destroy the value of the Bible and its account of creation.

We must give the “devil his due”. The counterfeit system of cosmology he has fostered is a work of art. In order to be a good counterfeit it must “work”.

And it does work! More or less...

The “solar system” is a creative system that is constantly self-adjusting and self-correcting. The dizzying numbers of studies, and concepts that have developed out of this counterfeit system are beyond astounding.

In the next chapter I will debunk the solar system theory with a chapter that aims at the heart of the solar system deception.

Skeptical?

Think this is an idle boast?

Do you believe you have all the arguments against a geocentric system down pat and this will be just another easy one to brush off?

THE BIG SPIN

Think again!

What is that fundamental foundational lie that we are being told? In a nutshell it can be summarized as follows:

The Earth spins around as it circles the sun.

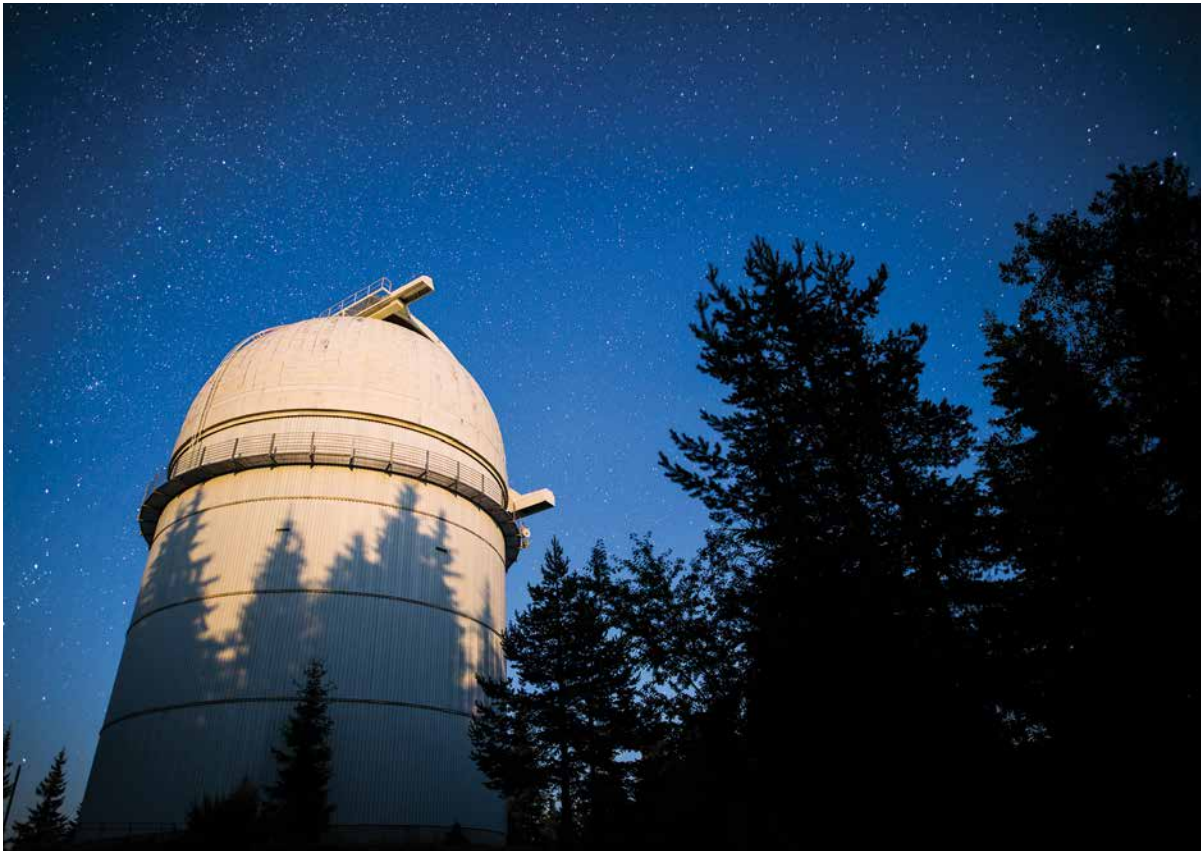

The sun does not move relative to the Earth.

The sun is the center of a “solar system” and the Earth revolves around the sun.

Isn't that “What we all know”?

I am laying a foundation that you need to understand in order that your head does not explode once you are exposed to the truth.

A warning ahead of time to any one with a PhD or Master's Degree in any science related field: You will need to read the chapter twice. I am not implying that you're stupid, but just that you have been programmed and awarded a degree that certifies that you have reached a level of mental programming that will be difficult to shed.

In other words, the layers of programming in your brain will take longer to penetrate.

For the rest of us, Chapter 17 is coming up. It will be simple and easy to understand. Once understood, you have the key to unshackling yourself from the greatest deception and conspiracy to ever unfold on the Earth.

Now consider 100 of the 1000's of new concepts, "scientific terms", definitions, and new educational disciplines that have unfolded before us as a result of the heliocentric solar system theory.

I have underlined a few of my personal favorites.

- Asteroids
- Cosmology
- Electric Propulsion
- Elliptical
- Gravity
- Meteors
- Nano Technology
- Parallax
- Radio Telescopes
- Satellites
- Stellare Parallax
- Universe
- Thermodynamics

And this is just a sample. The list of new theories and new science based fields of research is expanding almost as fast as they tell us the universe is expanding.

What is this all about?

Read what NASA says on its Website Under the Title “Earth Origin’s”

Answering the question "how did we get here?" is one of the key goals in NASA's Astrophysics Division, and is the prime objective of its Cosmic Origins (COR) Program.

An exciting aspect of the Program is that the telescopes of the future are significantly more capable than those that have flown before. HST, currently in orbit and at the peak of its scientific powers, has observed galaxies as long ago as only 500–600 million years after the Big Bang. Yet it will take JWST—with a larger mirror and a longer reach into the infrared—to see all the way back to when the first star systems formed, perhaps only 200 million years after the birth of the universe. In science, the past and present inform the dreams and efforts of the future, and that is certainly true in NASA's Cosmic Origins Program.

CHAPTER 14

TWO PATHS – TWO REALITIES

One is Real, the Other a Counterfeit

And You Get to Choose!

Door Number One

The Heavens Declare the Glory of God

The Reality

Door number one leads to a world that is far different than the one many of you imagine yourselves living in.

The description of this world may seem so bizarre and out of place that some of you might be tempted to laugh out loud. Be my guest!

That's all right; while you're laughing at the Creator's disclosure of the Heaven and Earth, the Creator is laughing at the foolishness of the system you now own with such pride.

The cosmology that the Scriptures present is both astounding and understandable.

God has not given us a detailed summary of how He created the cosmos, but He has given us a view of what it looks like from the perspective of both Heaven and Earth.

THE BIG SPIN

God has kept it simple for us to understand, and so it is with little difficulty that I am able to describe what so many others, who took the Word of God literally, have described before me.

To be clear, this is not some novel or new concoction that is designed to fit into modern fraudulent science. This is the ancient and unchanging portrait of the Heavens and the Ancient Hebrew Conception of the Universe

The ancient Israelites divided the world into Heaven, Earth, Sea, and the Underworld

They viewed the sky as a vault resulting on foundations—perhaps mountains—with doors and windows that let in the rain. God dwelt above the sky, hidden in cloud and majesty.

The world was viewed as a disk floating on the waters, secured or moored by pillars. The earth was the only known domain—the realm beyond it was considered unknowable.

The Underworld (Sheol) was a watery or dusty prison from which no one returned. Regarded as a physical place beneath the earth, it could be reached only through death.

THE BIG SPIN

Earth as unfolded and disclosed by the Creator.

God created the space we live in. God separated the waters—leaving water below and water above. In the waters below He called forth the dry land. The waters above were separated from the waters below with a solid firmament.

In the space between the waters above and the waters below God placed the sun, moon, and stars.

In the space below, God created all the living creatures that live on the dry land, the creatures that live in the waters and the creatures that would fly in the sky above the earth and sea. See the figure named “Ancient Hebrew Conception of the Universe” in the contiguous page.

God created all the varieties of plant life—including fruit yielding trees, herbs, and grains for the benefit of man.

All the creatures that inhabit the Earth were created by the authoritative voice of God, except for one creature.

Man, the pinnacle of God’s creation, was formed out of the red clay of the ground and given life as God first kissed man with the breath of His life-giving Spirit. Adam was the first man.

God accomplished all of this in six literal days and rested on the seventh day.

The creation of man and beast, the sun, moon, and stars under the firmament happened approximately 6000 years ago as of the AD 2017 publication of this book.

The Earth was designed to accomplish two main purposes:

The Earth was created to sustain man.

The Earth was also created in order that man might constantly and reverently consider his Creator and glorify Him above all other.

The Heavens, including the sun, moon, and stars, were designed to both light and warm the Earth as these celestial bodies circled above the Earth.

THE BIG SPIN

The pathway of the circling sun and moon was designed by God to separate the day from the night. The constantly large circle path of the sun, followed by a smaller circle path of the sun as it travels above the Earth, creates the seasons.

The warming rays of the sun were designed to produce life in the soil and seas.

The circuit of the sun and moon over the Earth were also designed to be a reliable calendar that would not only forecast the seasons of man but also forecast the redemptive plan of God.

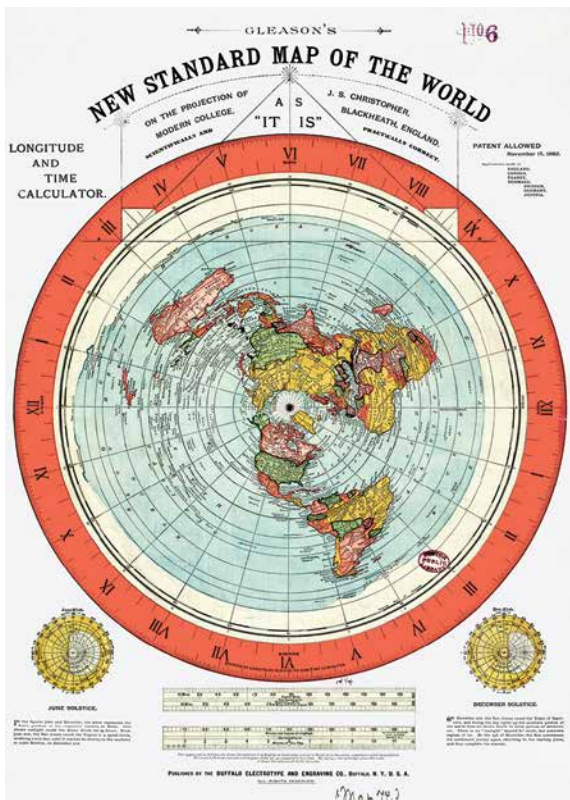

God's redemptive plan was eventually codified beginning with Moses and then subsequently by other men that God chose to reveal His plans and purpose.

This revelation is contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.

The purpose of it all is to bring honor and glory to the Son of God who created all things.

Unfortunately, man heeded the voice of the serpent, who is Satan.

Man today is listening to the same voice that deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden. If you want to know what that voice is saying all you need to do is read a newspaper or magazine, turn on your computer, radio, or television set.

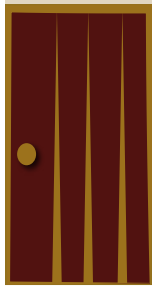

The Scriptures tell us that in the last days there will be a deception that is so great that even the elect would be deceived, if that were possible. Are we living in those last days? Is the great deception the Scriptures warn us about something that is going to happen in the future or has it already happened?

The answer is both. The greatest deception to ever engulf the entirety of mankind upon the Earth is the deception of the solar system. The great deception has its foundation in the heliocentric solar system. Remove this deception and evolution vanishes, along with the big bang cosmology and the entire science edifice that has been erected around us in order to imprison and corrupt our minds.

The purpose of this book is to liberate the minds of Christians and unshackle them from the lies of Satan. We are the terminal generation and the Great Deception is closing in on all of us.

Door Number Two

The Heavens Declare the Glory of NASA And Modern Astronomy

The Counterfeit

And now I speak as a fool. The following is an accurate description of the basic contours of the heliocentric theory that 98% of the world, including most Christians, believe is indisputable settled and absolute truth.

Door number two has its roots in an ancient religious philosophy that worshipped the sun. This is not a spin on the historical record, but an accurate description that anyone can verify with some careful investigation

Don't expect Wikipedia to give you this information, clearly they have no interest in exposing the religious and philosophical underpinnings of those that promote the heliocentric model.

Anyone interested in exploring the roots of the heliocentric solar system can begin that journey by looking up the following apologist for the sun-centered system.

We have been sold the idea that this is a battle between an antiquated religious dogma and modern enlightened science. Nothing could be further from the truth. This is a battle between two religious perspectives.

The most ubiquitous and widespread form of idolatry from the ancient until this very day is sun worship.

Consider a short list of the following nations whose roots were steeped in sun worship:

- EGYPT worshipped the sun under the names of Ra and Osiris
- PHOENICIA including the land of Canaan, worshipped the sun gods Baal, Melkarth, Shamas, Adoni, Moloch—to name a few
- SYRIA worshipped the sun gods Tammuz and Elagabalus
- MOABITES worshipped the sun god Baal-peor and Chemosh
- BABYLONIANS AND ASSYRIANS worshipped the sun gods Bel and Shamas

THE BIG SPIN

- THE MEDES AND PERSIANS worshipped the sun gods Ormuz and Mithra
- GREECE worshipped the sun gods Adonis, Apollo, Bacchus, and Hercules
- ROME worshipped the sun gods Bacchus, Apollo, and Hercules
- ANCIENT INDIANS worshipped the sun god under the name of Mitra, Mithra, or Mithras

Is the heliocentric system connected to the ancient sun worship? A careful study of the most famous apologist for the sun-centered system reveals some interesting parallels and connections. The reader is invited to investigate this topic and come to his or her own conclusions.

CHAPTER 15

THE HISTORICAL STEPPING-STONES THAT LEAD US TO THE MODERN VIEW OF THE UNIVERSE

Consider the following short list of apologists for the heliocentric system:

Pythagoras of Samos
370 BC – 495 BC

PYTHAGORAS

(370 BC – 495 BC) Pythagoras developed a complicated cosmology in which he believed the Earth to be perfectly spherical and that heavenly bodies, likewise, perfect spheres. In this cosmology, all the “planets”—including Earth—circled around central fire invisible to human eyes. This invisible fire was not the sun as we know it. In his cosmology, the sun also circled this central “invisible fire” (as shown on the following page).

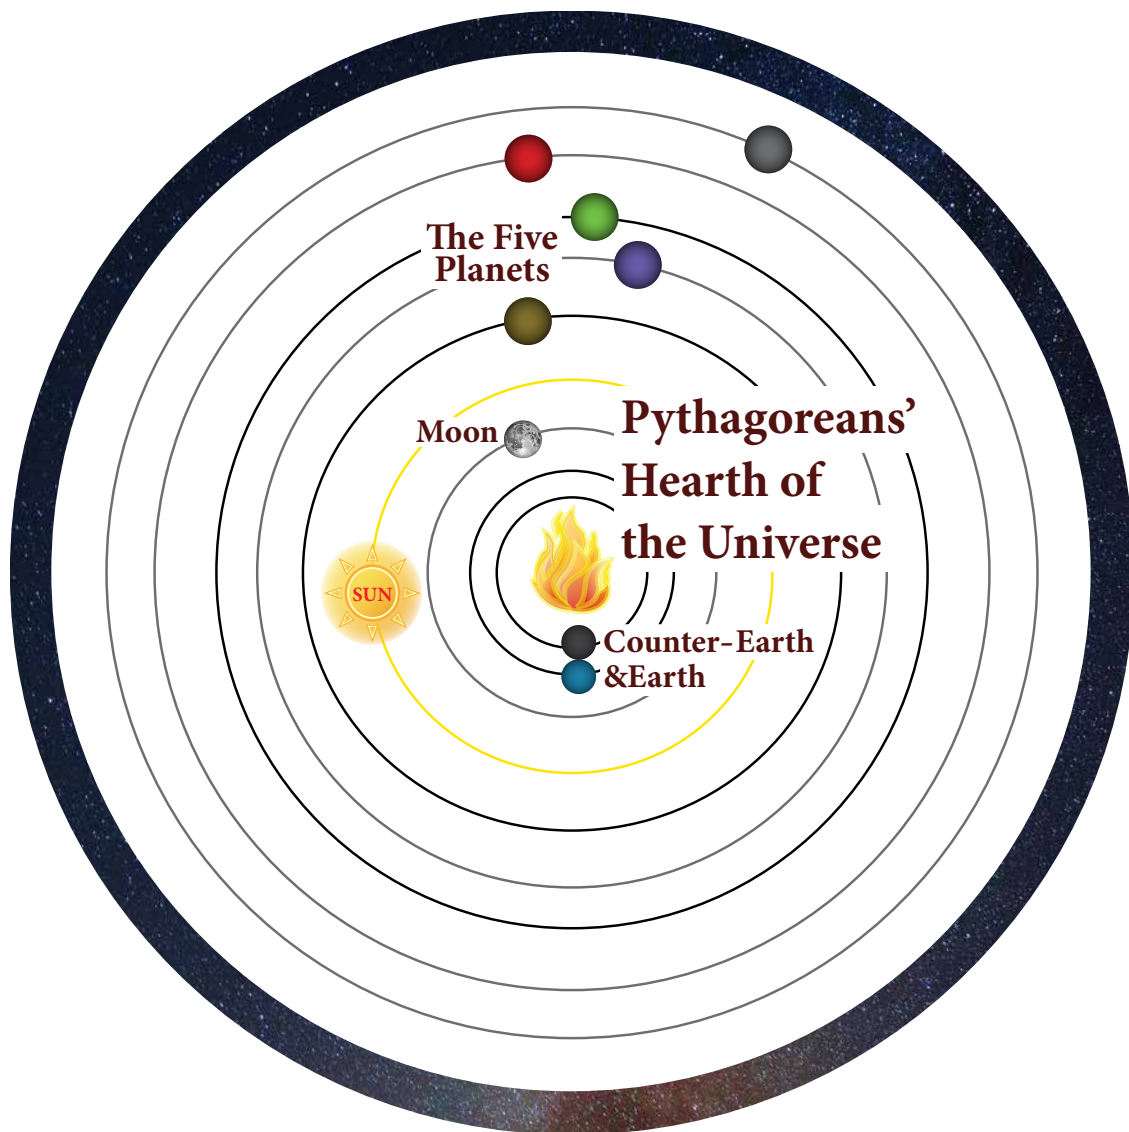

According to Pythagoras, there were 10 objects circling the central fire which included a counter-Earth assumed to be there to account from some eclipses, but also because they believed the number 10 to be particularly sacred.

THE BIG SPIN

This was the first “coherent system” in which celestial bodies move in circles, an idea that was to survive for two thousand years. Pythagoras is credited with being the father of the modern view of the solar system, a system perfected by Copernicus almost 2000 years later.

PHILOLAUS

(480-385 BC) Philolaus, also influenced by Pythagoras, described an astronomical system in which a central fire (different from the sun) occupied the center of the universe. A counter-Earth, the Earth, the Moon, the Sun itself, the planets, and the stars all revolved around it, in that order, outward from the center.

HERACLITES PONTICUS

(387–312 BC) Ancient Greek Astronomer proposed that the Earth rotates on its axis.

ARISTARCHUS OF SAMOS

(310 BC – c. 230 BC) Greek Astronomer who presented the first known model that placed the sun at the center of the known universe with the Earth revolving around it.

SELEUCUS OF SELEUCIA

Teaching around 150 BC. Seleucus is known to have been a follower of the heliocentric theory of Aristarchus of Samos. Aristarchus of Samos stated that the earth rotated around its own axis, which in turn revolved around the sun. It was reported that Seleucus was the first to demonstrate the heliocentric system through reasoning; although, no one can find the “reasonable” arguments he used.

NICHOLAUS COPERNICUS

(AD 1473-1543) Copernicus "Commentariolus" summarized his heliocentric theory. It listed the "assumptions" upon which the theory was based, as follows:

1 There is no one center of all the celestial circles or spheres.

THE BIG SPIN

- 2 The center of the Earth is not the center of the universe, but only of gravity and of the lunar sphere.
- 3 All the spheres revolve about the sun as their midpoint, and therefore the sun is the center of the universe.
- 4 The ratio of the Earth's distance from the sun to the height of the firmament (outermost celestial sphere containing the stars) is so much smaller than the ratio of the Earth's radius to its distance from the sun that the distance from the Earth to the sun is imperceptible in comparison with the height of the firmament.
- 5 Whatever motion appears in the firmament arises not from any motion of the firmament, but from the Earth's motion. The Earth, together with its circumjacent elements performs a complete rotation on its fixed poles in a daily motion, while the firmament and highest Heaven abide unchanged.
- 6 What appear to us as motions of the sun arise not from its motion but from the motion of the Earth and our sphere, with which we revolve about the sun like any other planet. The Earth has, then, more than one motion.
- 7 The apparent retrograde and direct motion of the planets arises not from their motion but from the Earth's. The motion of the Earth alone, therefore, suffices to explain

THE BIG SPIN

so many apparent inequalities in the Heavens.

GALILEO GALILEI

(AD 1564-1642) Italian, “father of observable astronomy”, Galileo defended heliocentrism. In his Letter to the Grand Duchess Chistina, he argued that it was not contrary to Biblical texts. He took the Augustinian position that poetry, songs, instructions or historical statements in Biblical texts need not always be interpreted literally. Galileo argued that the authors wrote from the perspective of the terrestrial world in which the sun does rise and set, and discussed a different kind of “movement” of the Earth, not rotations.

JOHANNES KEPLER

(AD 1571-1630) German, heliocentric defense of Copernicus. In 1596 Kepler published his first book, the Mysterium Cosmographicum, which was the first to openly endorse Copernican cosmology by an astronomer since 1540. The book described his model that used Pythagorean mathematics and the five Platonic solids to explain the number of planets, their proportions, and their order. The book garnered enough respect from Tycho Brahe to invite Kepler to Prague and serve as his assistant.

SIR ISSAC NEWTON

(AD 1642-1726) English, gravity and planetary motion.

The heliocentric model percolated under the surface for almost two thousand years and finally became widely accepted by the end of the 17th century.

The first recorded use of the term “solar system” dates from 1704.

18th century proponents of heliocentric theory include the following:

EMANUEL SWEDENBORG

IMMANUEL KANT

PIERRE-SIMON LAPLACE

ALBERT EINSTEIN

(AD 1879-1955) German Theoretical Physicist most noted for “general theory of relativity” and his $E=mc^2$. Einstein once wrote: "I do not believe in a personal God and I have never denied this but expressed it clearly".

CARL SAGAN

(AD 1934-1996) American astronomer and cosmologist. Famous for coining the following terms: “Pale Blue Dot” and “Billions and Billions.” He believed in “extra terrestrial” life, promoted the idea of UFO’s and supported (SETI) Sagan writes:

“Some people think God is an outsized, light-skinned male with a long white beard, sitting on a throne somewhere up there in the sky, busily tallying the fall of every sparrow. Others - for example Baruch Spinoza and Albert Einstein considered God to be essentially the sum total of the physical laws which describe the universe. I do not know of any compelling evidence for anthropomorphic patriarchs controlling human destiny from some hidden celestial vantage point, but it would be madness to deny the existence of physical laws.” CS

Science's Description of Solar the System

The formation of the Solar System began 4.6 billion years ago with the gravitational collapse of a small part of a giant molecular cloud. Most of the collapsing mass collected in the center, forming the sun, while the rest flattened into a protoplanetary disk out of which the planets, moon, asteroids, and other small solar system bodies formed.

CHAPTER 16

TWO COSMOLOGIES REPEATED

Only One can be True

Literal Biblical Cosmology

1 We must begin with God’s revelation of the firmament. The firmament is a canopy, dome, or vault in which exists the expanse of everything that is not the “waters beneath and the waters above.”

2 God calls the space between the waters below and the waters above a firmament, the Heavens. It includes the atmosphere we breathe and the sky and the space we view. It is the place where God placed the sun, moon, and stars. We might call it the celestial realm. It is a realm with a “firm”. It is an impenetrable canopy, vault, or dome with waters below it and above it.

3 The height and width of the firmament are not directly revealed in Scripture, except by comparing it to three things that man is familiar with and can easily measure without difficulty.

Those three things are a cottage (or house), a tent, and a footstool.

Two of these perspectives are earthly while the other is heavenly. All three disclose approximate dimensions that are in harmony with one another.

THE BIG SPIN

The combination of all three things is designed to keep the speculation, regarding the size of the firmament, within a reasonable range.

A footstool, for example, cannot be reasonably understood as an accurate comparison to the firmament if it is three feet at the base and 20 feet tall.

God has given us common sense in order that we might employ it in a way that is consistent with reason and experience.

All three comparative models are suggestive of a roof or solid domed firmament that is approximately 30%-50% of the base measurement of all three suggested models.

Based on an Earth with a 16,000 mile diameter (see figure 6) the firmament can be “speculated” to be anywhere from approximately 5000 to 8000 miles high.

Obviously, a sun that is 93 million miles away, with a mean radius of 432,450 miles and a diameter of about 864,938 miles boasting a circumference of about 2,713,406 miles cannot be accommodated by the open space God created in Earth’s firmament.

The Earth, with its domed firmament over the Earth, would need to be inflated to 55 times its present size in order to simply accommodate the introduction of the sun—which would be a one time crispy event for planet Earth that would immediately be vaporized and disappear.

4 God called the dry land out of the waters. He named the dry land Earth.

5 The circumference of the plane Earth, as measured around the ice curtain we call Antarctica, is not 24,900 miles as suggested by the globe model. The radius of the plane Earth is 8000 miles as measured between the North Pole and the edge of the ice curtain we call Antarctica. The diameter of the Earth is, therefore, approximately 16,000 miles, which means the circumference of the Earth is (16,000 miles X 3.14) or approximately 50,000 miles.

THE BIG SPIN

6 The Earth is not spinning and there is no Biblical evidence that it is a globe. There are hundreds of Biblical references that inform us that we are to regard the Earth as a plane surface that is dimpled with hills valleys, canyons and mountains.

7 The sun is approximately 30 miles in diameter.

8 The sun is circling over the Earth.

9 Based on plane trigonometry measurements, the sun is approximately 3000 miles above our heads inside the firmament.

The speed of the sun changes as it makes wider and then smaller circles over the Earth.

The sun always makes a complete cycle every 24 hours regardless of its changing speed.

The seasons are created as the sun circles around the Tropic of Capricorn in January. The sun's speed is at its maximum during January as it circles around the Tropic of Capricorn.

By the month of March the sun is making a smaller circle as it slows down and circles around the equator.

By the month of June, the sun is making its smallest circle and moving at its slowest speed as it makes its circuit around the Tropic of Cancer.

It is in this circuit that the phenomena called the "midnight sun" can be observed on June 21st as the sun makes it tightest and smallest circle around the Tropic of Cancer.

Between June and January the sun retraces as it widens its circular path, until it arrives back in the circuit around the Tropic of Capricorn. The sun always moves in an easterly direction.

10 The moon is approximately the same size as the sun, about 30 miles in diameter. Based on plane trigonometry the moon is 3000 miles above our heads in the firmament.

11 The moon is self-luminating and is not reflecting the light of the sun.

12 The “phases of the moon” operate independently of the Sun.

13 The Scriptures describe the sun, the moon, and the stars.

Some stars are fixed and others “wander”. The sun is not a star.

14 The Scriptures identify another category of stars, called wandering stars. Modern astronomy calls these planets.

15 The Scriptures tell us that the stars of Heaven will one day fall to Earth like figs shaken from a tree. Stars may vary in size and brightness but they are all relatively small compared to the Earth.

God has placed millions of stars into the firmament. All the stars, including the wandering stars, are between 4000 and 5000 miles above Earth.

The Earth is the center of the universe. Deep space with all its billions of galaxies is a fiction, created in order to discredit the Scriptures and the God who created everything that is and ever will be.

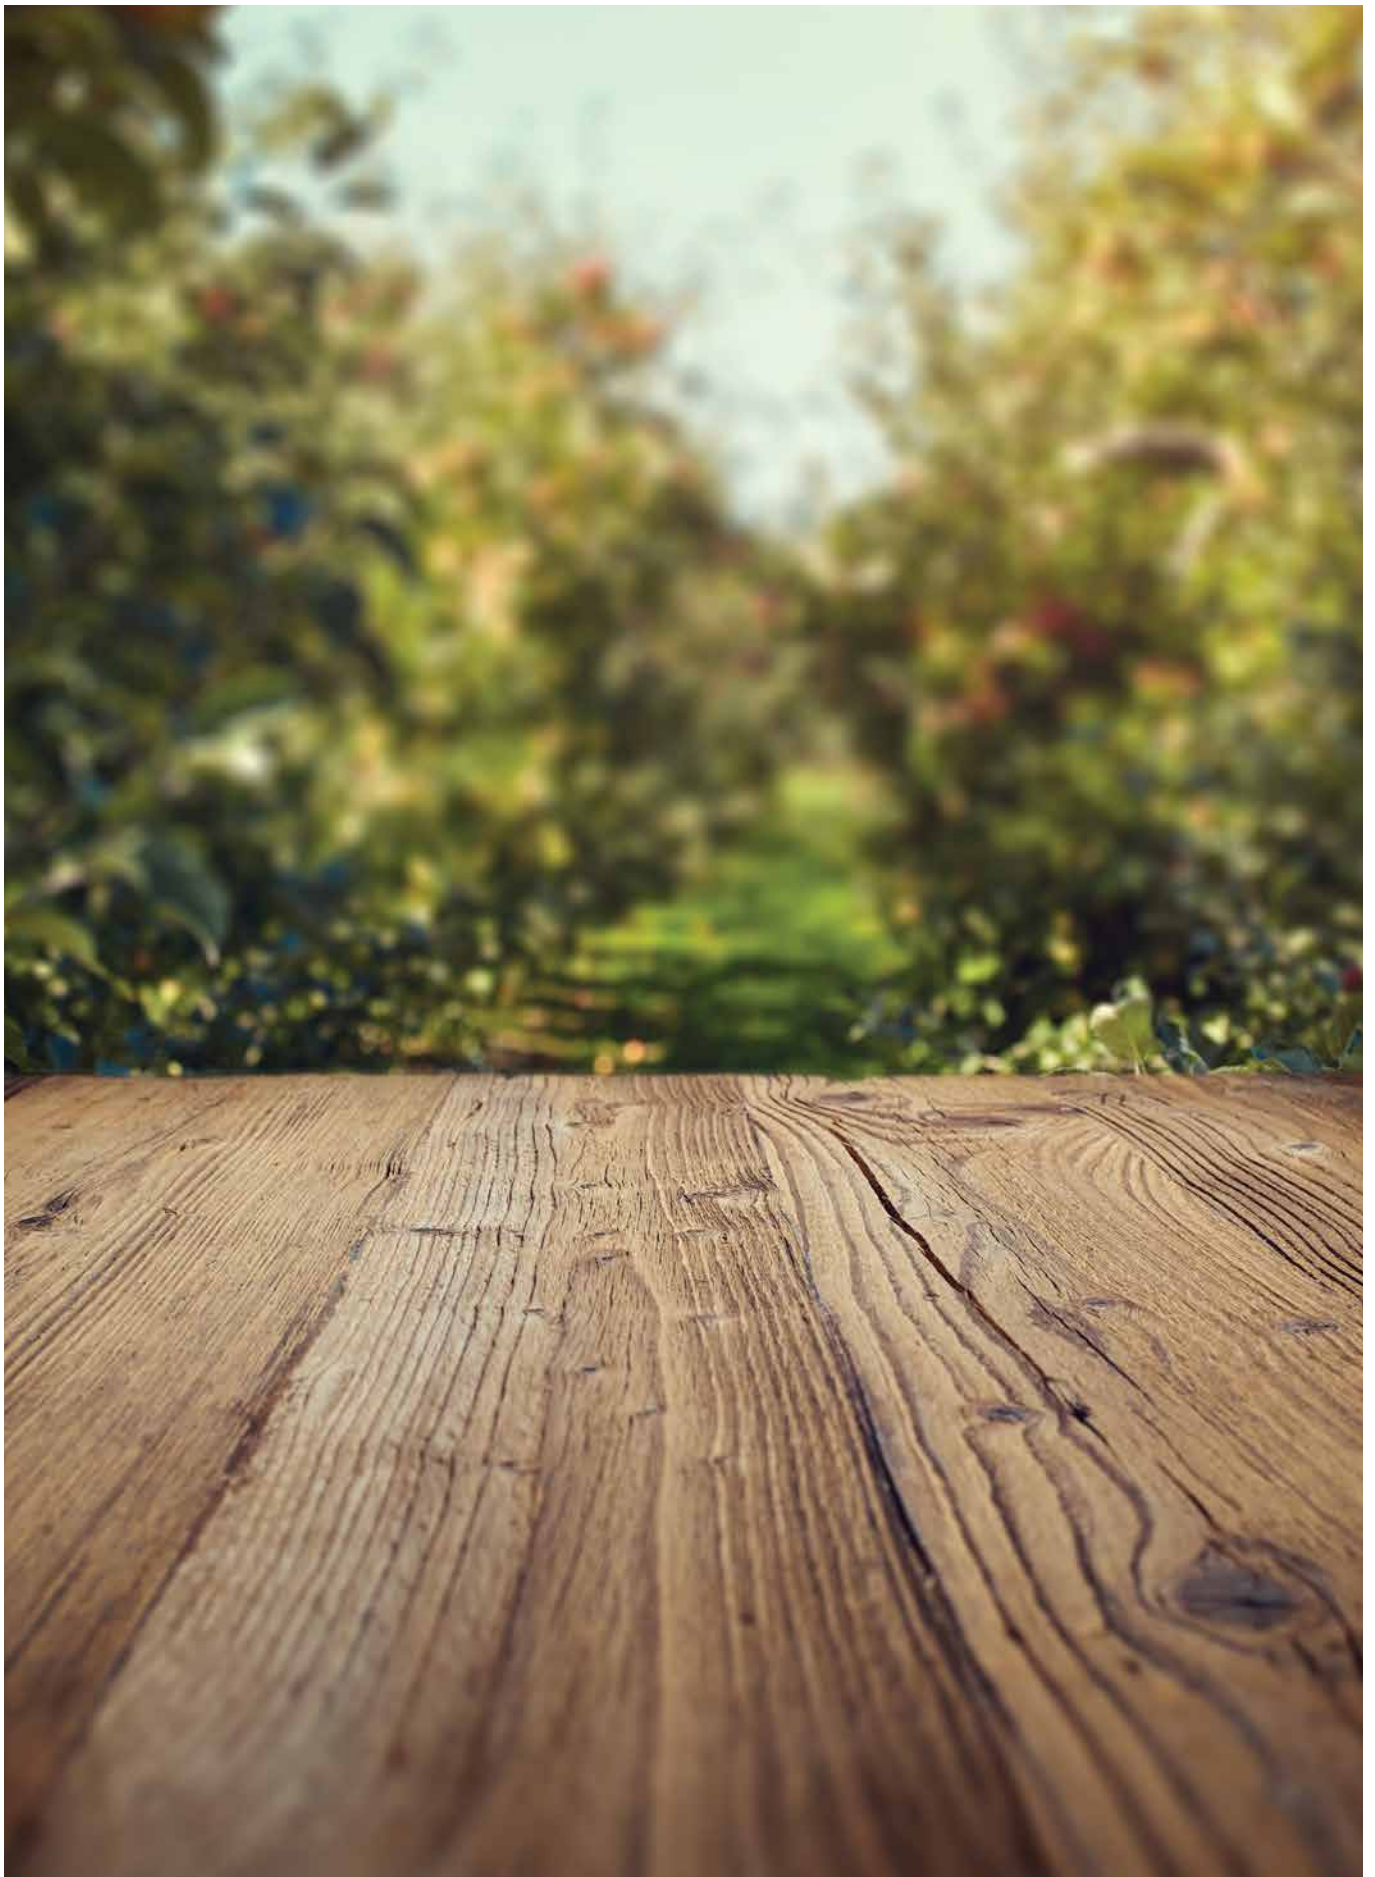

Modern Astronomical Cosmology

- 1 “Nothing” exploded 14 to 15 billion years ago, give or take a couple hundred million years, creating the universe and all known life.
- 2 Earth coalesced between 4 and 5 billion years ago.
- 3 Early man showed up on earth about 160,000 years ago.
- 4 All life forms on Earth owe their existence to the explosion of stars, and all the life forms on the Earth are, by extension, part of the stellar stuff of the universe.
- 5 The Earth is the third planet from the Sun in a solar system where all the planets, including the Earth, rotate around the Sun.
- 6 The Earth is a spinning globe with a circumference around the equator of approximately 24,800 miles. The approximate diameter of the globe Earth is 8000 miles.
- 7 The Earth rotates in a counter clockwise direction and makes a complete 360-degree rotation, relative to the sun, every 24 hours.
- 8 The Earth spins on a theoretical point that goes through the center of the Earth at the North Pole and exits as a theoretical point in the South Pole.
- 9 The Earth is at a tilted angle of 23.4 degrees relative to the sun.

THE BIG SPIN

- 10 The rotation of the Earth, based on stellar reckoning, is once every 23 hours, 56 minutes, and 4 seconds. This is called stellar parallax.
- 11 The Earth rotates at a speed in excess of 1000 miles an hour at the equator.
- 12 Man lives on all parts of the globe. This is made possible by the theory of the force of gravity, which no one can explain.
- 13 The Earth rotates around the sun every 365.24 days.
- 14 The sun is stationary relative to the Earth.
- 15 The sun is 93 million miles from Earth.
- 16 The sun has a diameter of approximately 865 million miles.
- 17 The moon is a satellite of the Earth approximately 250,000 miles from Earth.
- 18 The moon has a diameter of approximately 2200 miles.
- 19 The moon reflects the sun's light.
- 20 Our solar system is just one of between 500 billion and one trillion galaxies in the universe.
- 21 The universe is so big that no one can accurately calculate its size.
- 22 The star closest to Earth, besides the Sun, is Proxima Centauri which is 4.2 light years away.
- 23 A light year is just shy of 6 trillion miles. The closest star is over 25 trillion miles away.

CHAPTER 17

PERSPECTIVE AND COMMON SENSE

"The Laws of Perspective will bend your mind."

The dictionary discloses several definitions of perspective.

For our purposes, we will consider the following two:

- 1 Perspective is the state of existing in space before the eye:
- 2 Perspective is the faculty of seeing all the relevant data in a meaningful relationship:

God has created us with an amazing gift that is designed to increase our capacity to marvel and wonder as we make our pilgrimage through His world. This gift is conjoined with the ability to rationally organize, understand, and sort out the visual images that greet us every waking hour. This is in order that we might function in the world God created for us without chaos or confusion.

There is a world seen through the eyes of man that can be both perplexing, comforting, enlightening, and sometimes deceiving.

First Sight in Heaven's Light

The first thing that Adam beheld with his eyes was the glorious sight of his Creator as He breathed life into his nostrils.

The next thing that Adam saw was the beautiful garden in which he had been so carefully and graciously placed.

Without effort or training, he walked with his Lord through the garden and was introduced to the splendor of the world, which he had been given the instantaneous ability to apprehend, appreciate, and understand.

In other words, Adam was graced and gifted with a visual intelligence that operated perfectly in obedience to the laws and principles that the Creator had masterfully designed.

This was purposefully designed to increase Adam's enjoyment of his Creator and the life within the confines of the garden space where he had been strategically placed.

Adam was also given a mind that could immediately, and without tutelage, understand the language spoken by His Creator. Was this the language of Heaven? It is unreasonable to assume otherwise.

Adam was the first and only man that had no need "to learn to listen". Adam's comprehensive skills must have been nothing short of astounding. We only think we can visualize the resplendent world that Adam sinlessly entered. We are clueless since the dark stain of sin has marred our vision.

Adam was also the first and only man that had no need to learn "to speak with intelligence." Adam's vocabulary must have been beyond our comprehension.

God granted Adam those twin gifts without any effort on his part—no schooling and no university degree in linguistics or logic. How did he ever get by?

And what was the first connection between those twin gifts? What caution was given to Adam through the ear gate that then directly connected with Adam's eye gate?

GENESIS 2:16-17

And the Lord God commanded the man, saying,
Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:
But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

We might summarize this communication between the Creator and the creature as follows:

“Adam, you cannot always trust your eyes. While the fruit from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil may appear pleasant to the eyes, it is deadly.”

What were the First Lessons God Taught Man?

- 1 Things are not always as they appear.
- 2 God’s Word is more trustworthy and dependable than the untrustworthy testimony of his eyes.

The Time has Come to Prove that the Earth is NOT Spinning Around the Sun, or Anything Else.

If I have changed anyone’s mind up to this point in the book, I would be truly surprised.

The current heliocentric model is so ingrained and programmed into everyday life that no amount of Bible verses is going to change what you believe to be settled science. In most Christian's minds it is the Bible that apparently needs alteration, since the science is obviously settled and "we all know the Earth spins around the sun."

Having had the "non spinning Earth" conversation with a number of Christians, I am used to hearing that "science is right and the Bible is talking about something other than astronomy." Really?

The feedback from non-Christians is, "Are you crazy? Anyone with a brain knows we live in a heliocentric solar system." The End!

If you're interested in finding out the truth, you need to follow the instructions listed below—to the letter.

You will not be asked to do anything difficult. You will be asked to do some exercises that may seem below your pay grade, but you must follow these directions—no matter how silly they may seem—if you want to discover the fatal flaw of the heliocentric solar system.

So let's get at it!

It is all about PERSPECTIVE!

Please do not be insulted by the simplicity of these tests. The truth, once apprehended, is not complicated—it is very simple. So, arriving at an obvious, simple answer is often best achieved by asking simple, easy to comprehend questions, with obvious, simple to understand answers.

Experiment ONE

One Observation – Two Realities!

Step One • Sitting or standing, put your hand approximately eight inches away from your nose with your index finger pointed straight up.

THE BIG SPIN

Step Two • Move your INDEX FINGER from right to left, within your field of vision, without moving your head. For most people, the range of motion before your index finger goes out of your field of vision is six to eight inches.

Remember to keep your head still and stationary as you observe the back and forth motion of your index finger as it zigzags in front of your eyes.

What did you OBSERVE?

The answer is obvious. You observed your index finger moving in one direction and then in another direction in front of your eyes.

Question?

In this experimental observation, is your index finger actually moving in front of your eyes?

The answer is YES.

Step Three • Sitting or standing, put your hand approximately eight inches away from your nose with your index finger pointed straight up.

Step Four • Move your HEAD slowly from right to left within the field of vision that keeps your stationary, unmoving index finger in view. Remember to keep your INDEX FINGER stationary.

What did you OBSERVE?

The answer is that you observed your index finger moving in front of your eyes, zigzagging slowly from left to right.

Question?

Is your index finger actually moving in front of your eyes?

The answer is NO.

It only appears that your index finger is moving.

The motion of your head, as viewed through your two eyes, creates the optical illusion that your index finger is moving, when in fact it is not moving at all, but is still and stationary.

Viewing your index finger in motion while it is actually still and stationary is an optical illusion.

The law of perspective allows for the observable motion of an object based on one of two realities.

The observable motion could be the result of the object actually moving or it could be based on the motion of the observer.

In either case, what is observed seems to be the same. The only question is this:

What is actually moving?

Is the object being observed moving?

Or

Is the person viewing the object the one moving?

Let's assume the person viewing the object is moving his head in order to create the illusion that their index finger is moving back and forth. This being the case, another law of perspective comes into play that further explains the optical illusion.

As you moved your head to the RIGHT your index finger appeared to be moving to the LEFT. As you moved your head to the LEFT your index finger appeared to be moving to the RIGHT.

Biblical Cosmology Versus Modern Astronomy and Science in a Nutshell

The above experiment encapsulates the essence of the dispute between Biblical cosmology and modern astronomy that promotes the solar system.

The Bible reports over 60 times that the Earth is at rest and cannot be moved!

The same Bible reports multiple times that the sun moves in the Heavens in a path over and above the Earth. The Bible never reports, not even once, that the Earth is in motion or moves in the Heavens.

1 CHRONICLES 16:30

Fear before him, all the earth:
the world also shall be stable,
that it be not moved.

PSALMS 93:1

The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

Do you believe the globalist who insists that the Earth is spinning at a thousand miles an hour at the equator, completing a 360 degree circle every 24 hours, making a yearly circuit around a sun every 365.23 days while traveling through space at 65,000 miles an hour?

Can we believe the first revelation disclosed by our Creator regarding the motion of the sun, moon, and stars? A Bible that never mentions a spinning, orbiting, or rotating Earth?

If we cannot trust God's first words of revelation, then doesn't that raise some pretty serious concerns about everything else that He has written in the Ancient Prophetic Text we call the Old Testament?

The contest for the minds and hearts of men initially begins with one simple test found in the first chapter of the first book of the Holy Bible.

Are you going to believe what God reveals, or are you going to believe what modern science reveals?

It could not be more clear-cut and simple to understand.

If the Earth is spinning in front of and around the stationary sun, then the Bible is fake news.

If, on the other hand, the Earth is stationary and the sun is circling overhead inside a solid dome that Elohim created and called the firmament, then ALL modern astronomy—including pretty much all modern science—is fake science.

All modern science and the integrity of God's Word hangs on the answer to one simple question. A question that the world is insulted to even consider, since they believe they have figured it all out to everyone's satisfaction. The world claims that the solar system is no longer theory, it is settled science and should not be questioned.

Really?

According to the world of modern science, we're not allowed to even ask the following questions.

Is the Earth fixed and stationary, and the sun-moving overhead inside the firmament (dome) that covers the face of the Earth?

We must accept that

The Earth is spinning in front of and orbits around a stationary sun.

Take away the solar system and almost ALL modern science collapses of its own weight.

The stakes could not be higher. Let us continue investigating.

Experiment Two

The Mystery of a Circle

The Kings Riddle

How is it possible to walk a mile in one direction and then walk a mile in the opposite direction without turning around and going back the way you came?

THE BIG SPIN

Put in modern parlance, we might ask, “How is it possible to walk two miles without ever turning around and retracing your steps and end up exactly where you began?”

The answer of course is to walk in a circle.

You can perform this experiment with a sheet of paper and a pencil.

- 1 Draw a big circle and then draw a line that separates the circle into two equal half circles.
- 2 Put an X next to the place where your straight line diameter intersects with the circle, dividing it into two equal parts.
- 3 Starting with the X, trace around the entire circle moving counter clock-wise until you finish tracing the circle and end up exactly where you began.

After you have traced 360 degrees moving counter-clockwise around the circle, answer the following questions:

Question?

As you traced out a complete circle in how many directions did you move?

The answer is that you moved in TWO directions while tracing a complete circle, all the while going counter clockwise. You went in one direction until you arrived at 180 degrees and then you moved back in the opposite direction until you arrive back where you started at 0 degrees.

Now, instead of tracing out a circle on a piece of paper, imagine you are standing on a spinning globe Earth. Now, imagine that the spinning globe Earth is moving counter-clock wise 360 degrees every 24 hour day.

THE BIG SPIN

Question?

How many directions are you moving every 24 hours?

Think about it as you look at the circle you have just traced.

(The answer is two directions.)

If this is not the answer you arrived at then you need to stop and think about it for a moment or two. Keep in mind that relative to everything outside the spinning Earth, you are moving in two directions every day. For 12 hours or 180 degrees of rotation you are moving in one direction, and for the final 12 hours in a day you are moving 180 degrees in the opposite direction.

When you're done tracing the entire 360-degree circle, you end up exactly where you began. This daily movement on a spinning ball is exactly what modern astronomy teaches you about your place on a spinning Earth, the third planet from the Sun.

This is the solar system theory.

According to the solar system theory, the sun is not actually moving overhead from East to West.

According to modern science, this perspective is simply an optical illusion that is caused by the fact that you're viewing the sun while you are rotating counter clock wise on a ball Earth in front of a stationary sun.

According to modern science, even though you can sense no movement on the spinning Earth, and by all appearances it is the sun that is moving, you're actually being deceived by an optical illusion that is operating according to the rules of perspective, just as we learned at the beginning of this book.

I doubt that anyone can argue that this explanation is a fair and accurate explanation of the solar system theory.

This is in fact modern science's explanation for why you only think you're watching the sun move in a path over your head from East to West, when in reality, according to modern astronomy, you're the one being spun around on a spinning Earth in front of a stationary sun.

THE BIG SPIN

Here is the big question:

How can you refute something that appears to be correct?

If we had to rely on perspective alone, based on the evidence provided in 12 hours of daylight, wouldn't it be impossible to figure out which cosmology was correct—since both observations “appear” to be the same?

In other words, how would you know, based on the laws of perspective, if it was the Earth spinning or the sun circling overhead inside a dome—since both “look” the same from our human vantage point? How would we really know which celestial body was moving and which was not?

If all you ever experienced was a daytime view of the motion of the sun from East to West, it would be almost impossible to distinguish between the Biblical stationary Earth disclosure and the theory of the solar system.

If all you ever experienced visually was the approximately 12 hours, or 180 degree path of the sun overhead, you would be hard pressed—based on the “perspective proof”—to ever resolve the question, once and for all.

(Please note that there are literally hundreds, if not thousands, of proofs that undermine the so called “science” of the solar system—we are just looking at one—to be clear, the evidence for the non existence of a solar system does not depend upon just one proof.)

So what is the solution to the dilemma?

THE BIG SPIN

What if we could observe the sun, not for 12 hours, but for an entire 24 hour period?

What if you could observe the motion of the sun relative to the Earth for a week?

What about a month?

Would that resolve the question of “What’s actually moving, the Earth or the sun?”

The answer is YES.

If you could observe the sun’s movement relative to the Earth for one entire day and record the results, then the mystery could be solved.

Are you wondering why the apparent mystery of “what’s moving, the Earth or the sun” cannot be solved in 12 hours?

Why can it be solved in 24 hours?

The perspective tests presented earlier in this book reveal the answer.

Modern science tells us that the Earth is spinning counter clock wise in front of the sun, creating the optical illusion that it is the sun moving clock wise (East to West) overhead.

So if you’re moving West to East, relative to the sun, as you view the sun from one spot on a spinning globe, then it follows that the sun will appear to be moving in the opposite direction (East to West), just like you observe every day.

So far, so good.

But what happens when you reach the 180-degree, or half-way juncture, on the globe?

Remember, according to modern science you’re spinning in a circle 360 degrees every 24 hours with the sun in front of you.

The answer is simple.

Relative to the sun from your vantage point on a spinning Earth, the sun will appear to change directions as it begins retracing its route back to the starting point.

THE BIG SPIN

Say that again?

In other words, the same sun that appeared to move from East to West will now appear to move from West to East. Remember that once you reach the 180-degree juncture in a circle, you begin moving in the opposite direction.

STOP!!

If you're not onboard with this concept, then you need to think about it until it “dawns on you.”

This is not an insult to your intelligence, considering this is a new concept for most of you who have been living with the solar system deception since you first walked into a classroom and viewed the globe on the teacher's desk.

So take some time and get this figured out—as it is the key to being delivered from the solar system deception.

So now these questions remain:

Can we find a place on Earth where we can observe the sun for 24 hours? And if we can, what will be observe?

CHAPTER 18

WELCOME TO BARROW, ALASKA

Land of the Midnight Sun

Where are We on the Spinning Globe?

Barrow, Alaska is about 320 miles north of the Arctic Circle and 1300 miles south of the North Pole.

North Latitude 71 degrees, 18 minutes, and 3 seconds and West Longitude 156 degrees, 45 minutes, and 19 seconds.

Barrow, Alaska—where the sun does not set for over 80 days between the months of May through July.

According to modern science and astronomy, if you sliced off the top of the globe at the same longitude of Barrow, Alaska and viewed it from above, you would be looking at a circle with a diameter of 1300 miles. Multiply that by pi (3.14) and you end up with a circumference of 4082 miles. According to modern science, from your vantage spot at Barrow, Alaska, the Earth would be spinning at 170 miles per hour (4082/24) in front of a stationary sun.

THE BIG SPIN

From this vantage point in Barrow, Alaska, we can easily set up a time-lapse movie camera and film the 24-hour circuit of the sun.

Of course, that would be unnecessary since the movement of the sun over a 24-hour period has been photographed and filmed hundreds of times. Tens of thousands of people have ventured to Barrow, Alaska to view the midnight sun and are witnesses to the scene that I will describe for your consideration.

The photographic evidence and the eyewitness evidence reveals the following:

It displays the sun moving in a westerly direction at all times as it moves clockwise over the horizon that appears to be moving counter-clockwise, just like you would expect. Right?

To be clear, if you were in Barrow, Alaska in July, you would witness the sun moving in a circle around the horizon in a westerly direction.

To make it real simple, you would witness a sun making a complete circuit around you every 24 hours.

There is no disputing the above testimony.

This is WONDERFUL NEWS for those that are Biblical literalist's and believe in the cosmology revealed in the Holy Scriptures.

This proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that Earth is not moving but stationary.

It proves that the sun is moving in a circle over our heads just like it appears to be doing.

And what is the scientific proof of this?

The answer—the law of perspective and common sense.

More Proof from Barrow, Alaska

What would it look like if the heliocentric solar system was true and it was the Earth that was spinning in front of a stationary sun?

If the sun was stationary and the Earth was spinning in front of it, as reported by modern astronomy, then you would witness the following:

The sun would move from East to West—just like you expect it to move—just like it does everyday, everywhere else on the Earth where you witness the motion of the sun.

But wait!

After 12 hours, or 180 degrees, something extraordinary would happen, if the Earth were spinning in front of a stationary sun. The sun would appear to change direction and move from West back to the East.

The sun would then continue to appear to be moving from West to East for exactly 12 hours, or 180 degrees, until it arrived back at 0 degrees where it would again change direction and appear to move from East to West, and so on.

In other words, based on the law of perspective, from your vantage point on the imaginary, spinning Earth, the imaginary, stationary sun would zigzag every 12 hours.

This is exactly what you would see if there actually was a solar system, but since the solar system does not exist, you will never see the sun zigzag—moving back and forth every 12 hours. So until it does, we can declare with 100% certainty that the solar system scheme is a hoax, a fabrication, and a big fat lie.

It bears repeating—the solution to the mystery that unlocks the simple but indisputable truth that proves the Earth is not a spinning globe can be observed by anyone who takes the time to investigate the perspective motion of the sun, as viewed by all human eyes and recorded by all cameras over any 24-hour period of time.

This can be observed from any place inside the Arctic Circle on June 21st. It can also be observed continually from places like Barrow, Alaska, which is 300 miles north of the imaginary Arctic Circle, for months at a time.

Of course, you will never see the sun moving back and forth across the horizon and overhead because there is no such thing as a solar system—except in the imagination of the over-educated dupes that have fallen for the lie and the ones doing the lying.

The Earth is at rest, just like the Bible says it is.

The sun is circling overhead just as it appears and as the Bible says it is.

The reason you see the sun-circling around the near horizon for nearly 80 summer days in Barrow, Alaska is because the sun is circling around the near horizon for nearly 80 summer days in Barrow, Alaska.

Amazing as it may sound, what you witness every time you see the sun overhead is the sun overhead, inside the dome, doing exactly what Elohim created it to do. Are you surprised?

There are some who want to hold on tight to the solar system theory. They would point out that Barrow, Alaska proves the solar system exists since the reason we can see the sun for a twenty-four hour period in the middle of summer is because the earth is tilted 23.4 degrees at its axis, allowing for a view of the sun for 24 hours during the season when the northern axis of the Earth is tilted toward the sun.

In the first place, the reason you see the sun for 24 hours a day in Barrow, Alaska has nothing to do with a rotating Earth but rather the summer circuit of the sun around the Tropic of Cancer.

This is exactly what you would expect as the sun makes its tightest circle above the face of the Earth as it charts its circular path around the Tropic of Cancer.

The solar system theory is a big lie and Christians should stop believing the big lie and get back to believing the big truth.

Obviously this is not going to be the end of your journey. For most of you, this is just the beginning as you explore the truth in order to both better understand the world you actually live in and to be forever separated from the lie that has entangled your mind for all your life.

Why Doesn't God Mount a More Aggressive Defense Against the Lies of Satan?

God knew before He ever created the universe that the lie of the solar system would be the greatest deception to ever entangle the Earth. And yet God has allowed the fabricated lie regarding the creation and basic architecture of the Earth to be organized into the biggest deception to ever infect the world.

Why has God allowed this deception to creep into our culture and become standardized as unquestionable truth?

THE BIG SPIN

Let me answer the question with a question.

Why did God put the alluring and enticing Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil in the middle of the Garden of Eden?

Why did God then command Adam and Eve not to eat the fruit of that one single tree?

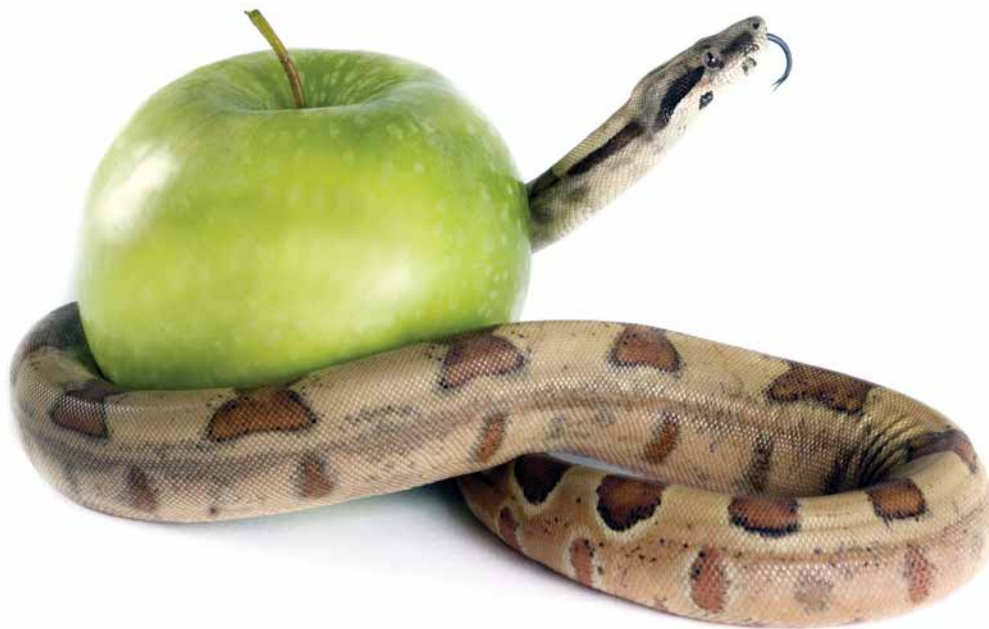

The test question was simple.

Will Adam obey me or a talking snake?

We know the answer.

The same liar that told Eve that she would not die, and that eating of the forbidden fruit would transform her into a god, is the same liar that is behind all the chalk and blackboard silly math that is designed to cause man to mock the creation account that is found in the Genesis revelation.

And since I have opened up this can of worms, I would advise the reader to do his own investigation using the true “scientific method” of testing and observing in order to discover who is telling the truth.

THE BIG SPIN

One simple test that anyone can do with just a little research and a clear rational mind will convince you that the solar system with a Sun 5000 times the size of Earth cannot be true based on the Scriptures.

The Scriptures tell us that on the fourth day Elohim placed the sun inside the firmament (firm dome over the earth).

Does this sound ridiculous?

Probably!

Does that mean it is not true?

Most cannot imagine that it is true because they have all been “deep programmed” by Satan, the Father of lies and the prince of this world.

Clearly God has given us a “test case” from the very beginning of His revelation.

Is God to be taken literally, or did God simply adjust His revelation in order that it might fit into the mythos that we are told early man superstitiously believed?

Clearly this is not the case.

Obviously, in context of Genesis, the creation account is meant to communicate literal truth.

Clearly God gives us unmistakable clues when He is using a figure of speech, a metaphor or a parable and He expects us to understand everything that remains, literally.

The account of creation found in Genesis is not a poem, it is not an allegory or a parable. It is literal history!

If you are a Biblical literalist you are faced with a constant attack against your intelligence, since the world is absolutely convinced that the creation model they have been taught by the world is unalterable truth. Anyone who challenges the theories that they propose are censored and dismissed as mentally challenged misfits.

THE BIG SPIN

Thankfully, God does not leave us without a defense against this attack by the enemy. He has given us His word and a rational mind.

The truth that makes mockery of the theory of the solar system is not just evident to Christians.

Anyone using simple common sense can easily discover that this theory is clearly a fabrication.

Remove the lie of the solar system and the world's cosmology crumbles into an ash heap of obvious lies and distortions meant to remove us from the confidence that God wants us to have in Him and His word.

Everyday we wake up and we observe the sun rising and setting from East to West.

Has anyone ever observed the sun moving from West to East?

The answer is NO! This has never been observed in all of human history. From any stationary spot on the round globe, we always observe the fiction that that sun is moving overhead from East to West.

And that is the proof that there is NO solar system.

CHAPTER 19

INDISPUTABLE OBVIOUSNESS

I was going to put a chapter in this book that dealt with the principles of Biblical interpretation in which I tackled the question of the literalness of the Scriptures in light of metaphors, similes, parables, idioms, and allegories.

In that chapter I was going to prove that when the Scriptures describe an Earth at rest it was meant to be understood literally. When the Scriptures describe a sun and moon in motion it is meant to be understood literally.

As I considered this chapter, I began to wonder what would be the point of writing it.

Why would one need to write such a chapter if one provided evidence that the motion of the sun, moon, and stars, along with the NON-motion of the Earth, was undeniably true, as revealed in the Scriptures?

If the only reason people are arguing about the literalness of the passages regarding the revelation of the firmament and the motion of the sun, moon, and stars is because they do not believe the Bible, then what is accomplished by proving the Scriptures reveal something they believe is hogwash?

If on the other hand it were proven that the Bible was correct, then what would be the point of proving that the Bible was to be taken literally, when a literal interpretation would be manifestly obvious?

I have proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Earth spin is a fiction. If it's true that the sun is moving overhead and not stationary in front of the Earth, then why waste a chapter stating the obvious?

At this point, it would be my hope that once you're convinced you have been misled regarding the foundational premise on which all modern astronomy is based, you would be ready as a Christian to humbly investigate the Biblical model that was the foundation for man's understanding of the Earth, sun, moon, and stars for millennium.

In other words, I would hope you might return to the ancient paths that lead to truth, as they are trail marked in the Scriptures. If you skipped ahead to read the chapters that exposed the truth regarding the non-spinning Earth, then I would encourage you to begin reading the book again, starting at Chapter One. I believe you will find it both instructive and inspirational.

For some of you this is difficult. You were handed a globe about the same time your well-worn binky fell lifeless to the ground from your drooling lips. You have been watching the "global news" and "global weather" for decades. You're constantly using "global positioning technology" and talking on phones that are transmitting by way of "space" satellites that you have been told are in a perfect synchronous orbit as they spin around the globe Earth.

You have been programmed to accept a world that does not exist.

The first question people ask is,

“What about all those great distances to planets and stars?”

All the distances of the planets, including the sun, are based on the existence of a solar system, except for one. The only luminary that is measured based on an unspinning Earth is the moon. The distance of the moon is said to be 250,000 miles away. This is based on spherical trigonometry that assumes Earth curvature. Take away the imagined Earth curve and the moon can be reckoned, as it was for thousands of years to be approximately 3000 miles away.

THE BIG SPIN

The distance of the sun is based on all the reckoned distances in the solar system. It is literally based on circular reasoning.

The sun distance is calculated based on the distance and orbit of Venus, which is presumed to be Earth size, which it isn't. The math is too complex to unfold in this book. Bottom line—it is based on the circular presuppositions that are ALL dependent upon a heliocentric solar system. Take away the solar system and all the imagined distances are exactly what you would expect under the firmament.

The star distances are measured based on the angle of the stars—as measured—for example, on June 21st and then measured again on December 21st. The formula takes two angles reckoned from Earth as it rotates around the sun from any two points that are 180 degrees away from each other. The next measurement to figure the distance of the stars is based on the distance between the Earth on June 21st, for example, and December 21. That distance is approximately the distance of the center of the sun to the Earth, doubled.

In other words, the calculus uses a distance of almost 200,000,000 miles in order to calculate the distances to the stars. Basically, a 200,000 mile presupposition that is unprovable based on any known reality-based method of measuring. All modern science, math, and astronomy is based on blackboard reasoning without any testing or questioning. The whole solar system theory, which has been spun out to include stars and planets trillions and trillions of miles away is based on someone's theory and a piece of chalk. The irony should not be missed.

THE BIG SPIN

Now you know why stars that are really only about 4000 miles away are said to be trillions of miles away.

There are a thousand other threads that hold you fast and tight to the fiction of the fake solar system fiction.

Facing up to the idea that you have been lied to about the nature of the universe seems unimaginable. It might even make you angry. I don't blame you a bit. It will take you months to untangle all of this in your mind, assuming you begin to do your own investigations and start using common sense.

CHAPTER 20

LIBERATED FROM THE PROGRAM

Believing the truth and coming to terms with the real physical world that God has created should elicit a response of thanksgiving and praise. Now consider the Heavens and Earth, the luminaries of the sun, moon, and stars, all under the firmament that God created as our home. What should be the appropriate response? Glorify God!

I would like to end this book on a positive and light-hearted note.

Obviously this is not going to be the end of your journey. For most of you, this is just the beginning as you explore the truth in order to both better understand the world you actually live in and to be forever separated from the lie that has entangled your mind for all your life.

It will be an exciting journey. I have listed some YouTube sites and websites that may be of some help as you explore what you previously thought unthinkable. You will be amazed at what you find.

Goodbye Cruel Spinning World!

I would like to leave you with the following list that includes some commentary of the realities and novelties you will be bidding goodbye. Some of them are humorous and some are very alarming. They are all fiction and should be treated as such.

THE BIG SPIN

Everything on this list has either been directly stated by the leaders of NASA or by the spokesman for modern astronomy.

Some of the photos on the list have been placed there by NASA without comment. If you think this is unimportant or that it is a result of carelessness, then think again.

The truth of the matter is that they are craftily leaving blank spaces to be filled in with your imagination.

What a clever way to disseminate a false reality and have you believing something outrageous, based on your own conclusions, not theirs. You are being constantly manipulated.

You think they are hiding something from you and it just slipped out without them noticing, when in reality they are the ones creating the very illusions you are so proud of uncovering yourself. Now you own their delusion. They are laughing at you.

These tricksters understand how the human mind works and are using their knowledge for the ultimate purpose of mass manipulation. See how they cleverly put absurd photos and information in front of you to dull your mind and get you ready to accept the “ultimate absurdity.” It is a deception that is going to enslave the whole world in the last days.

God in Heaven is laughing at this surreal deception. I see no reason why we should not join our Heavenly Father in laughing at the joke that is meant to be on us but will ultimately be on them.

Join me in laughing at their antics as you consider the list of nonsense that is being spewed out of NASA and the other official organizations that have been put in charge of the mass programming of the human population.

Some of it is very funny. Some is meant to scare you to death. All of it is claptrap decorated with horse feathers.

THE BIG SPIN

Scraping this rot off the roof of your brain is going to be an exercise that will require your fulltime attention for a period of time. One thing is for certain, the propaganda is not going to slow down, in fact, it is going to accelerate in these last days.

The following has all been presented to the gullible public as true.

Let's begin by exploring the NASA photos of Mars.

You can find all these officially published photos by NASA on the internet. Obviously they were taken with the "Top Secret - Where's Waldo Lens." These are photos that NASA publishes without comment as they laugh themselves silly.

What's so funny you ask?

The big question?

No really, it is the "big question" that is hilarious.

And what is that big question?

Just how much nonsense can they shovel down the throats of the witless, dumbed-down public? A public that has been carefully prepared to accept the delusion and lies they tell so artfully.

Citizens today are the end product of an educational system that was designed to encourage anything and everything—except critical thinking.

These professional liars have one more objective in view as they spin all this science fiction they offer up as science fact. Can you guess what it is?

They wish to convince you that you are not alone in the universe. You are an insignificant, underdeveloped race of creatures among millions. Other more advanced alien civilizations have evolved thousands, if not millions, of years past our present intellectual ability.

THE BIG SPIN

Perhaps they can be persuaded to help us?

What do you think?

The rest of this story will unfold in the future, but it takes little imagination to see where this is all headed.

NASA Photographic Nonsense
(Official NASA Photos as noted)

Rats on Mars!

Rabbits on Mars!

"Mars rat" spotted in 2012 in images from NASA's Curiosity rover, at a site called Rocknest.

Garden Gnomes on Mars!

Crumbling Canals on Mars!

Mysterious Sphinx on Mars!

The Mysterious Crumpled Jelly Donut!

Big Foot on Mars!

Official NASA photograph of "Big Foot" on Mars

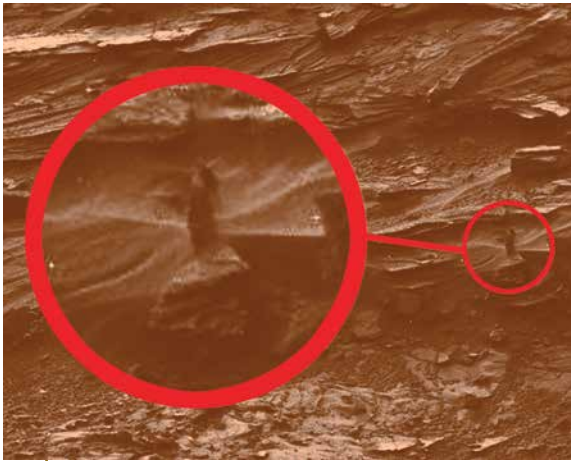

Kitchen Utensils Floating on Mars!

Abandoned Alien Spaceships on Mars!

Alien Artifacts!

Stone Sculpture That Looks Like Obama!

Maiden on Mars!

Maiden on Mars. Official Nasa Photo

Just a Few Headlines You Won't Need to Worry About!

Will an Asteroid Threaten Earth on Christmas Eve?

SpaceX Rocket Landing is a Giant Leap Toward a City on Mars, says Elon Musk

Ancient Mars Had Long Lasting Lakes, Boosting
Chances of Life

Something Strange is Happening Inside Saturn

Mar's Missing Atmosphere
Likely Lost in Space

How NASA Will Get Astronauts to Mars

New company claims they'll be able to RESURRECT THE DEAD by 2045

How NASA's New Horizons defied the odds to reach Pluto

Space station's future role could include commercial use

Japanese group aims to put humanoid robot on moon
by 2016

Space Plutonium: US Once Again Producing Fuel for Deep-Space

THE BIG SPIN

Direct Imaging: The Next Big Step in the Hunt for Exoplanets, Missions

Congress Pushes NASA To Build Deep Space Habitat For Mars Mission

Time Warps and Black Holes: The Past, Present & Future of Space-Time

Will NASA Really Take Humans to Mars in the 2030s Like The Martian Movie?

Stargazer Lottie' Declared 'First Doll in Space' After Launch to Station

Chinese Rover Discovers New Type of Moon Rock

Lunar Leap: Europe Is Reaching for a Moon Base by the 2030s

There are blue skies and red ice on the dwarf planet Pluto.

'Star Wars' Tech: 8 Sci-Fi Inventions and Their Real-Life Counterparts

Our solar system has a missing planet.

Stargazer Spies Space Station Streaking Through Orion's Belt (Photo)

We spotted the most distant object in our solar system.

Russia's Monkeys-to-Mars Mission Draws PETA Protest

There may be a dwarf planet about half the size of Pluto lurking some 9.5 billion miles from the sun.

THE BIG SPIN

One of Saturn's moons has a global, sprawling ocean.

Bright spots on Ceres actually could be just salt.

More planets may be hiding out at the edge of our solar system.

UFO Hunters Claims '800-Year-Old Mobile Phone Dug Up In Austria' Proves Aliens Visited Earth

Massive Solar UFO Sightings Video

Are you ready to simplify your life?

You can start by ignoring all balderdash that NASA and all its companion and subordinate agencies and societies are spewing out.

The Earth is at rest!

Isn't it time that you take a break from the withering assault of disinformation that is designed to turn your brain into mush as they prepare you for the Great Deception?

MARK 4:39

And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

JOHN 14:27

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

The End is Near!